YORK COUNTY JUNIOR FARMERS ELECT OFFICERS FOR YEAR 1939

Jerry Walker of Todmorden Heads County Body —
Doris Cook of Maple is Vice-President

The annual meeting of the York County Junior Farmers was held on Tuesday, March 28th in the Agricultural Representative's office at Newmarket and was one of the best attended and profitable in the history of this organization. All local Junior Farmer and Junior Institute and Homemaker Clubs, according to the newly adopted constitution, had held their elections during the first two weeks of March and the annual meeting, attended by the officers-elect of the locals; took the form of a rally or leaders' school.

All Clubs, with one exception, were fully represented and enjoyed a programme especially designed to enable the various officers to more efficiently carry out their respective duties in the coming year. The business session in the forenoon was presided over by the President, Wm. Champion of Unionville, who reported on the success of the year's activities including the Drama Festival, Judging Competitions, County Field Day, the record-breaking Home Plowing Competition and the Skating Carnival. Secretary Jim Faris of Newmarket, being ill, had arranged with his brother to give the financial report which showed the treasury to be in a healthy condition.

Following the nominations of the county officers to be voted on in the afternoon, Rev. W. H. Fuller of Markham addressed the group on "How to conduct a business meeting". The speaker gave some very valuable hints on the proper handling of motions, amendments, voting, etc. In fact, a school of this type open to presidents or chairmen and secretaries of the various organizations of the county would be most valuable.

After the adjournment for dinner at the King George Hotel, they reconvened in two groups to discuss programme planning. Miss Florence P. Eadie and Miss Betty Wallace of the Women's Institute Branch and Mr. A. H. Martin, Assistant Director of Agricultural Representatives, offered several helpful suggestions for preparing club programmes, stressing the importance of having a detailed month-by-month program, the value of having the members do something to help themselves and keeping the entertainment features in the secondary position to the educational work. The ladies had an interesting discussion of the project club work being carried on this spring in which they are making a study of meats. The leaders had visited the Packing plants the day previous as a part of their training to lead their respective groups.

W. M. Cockburn, Agricultural Representative, spoke on the duties of the Secretary and Treasurer, offering many suggestions to help these officers to carry out their duties more effectively. He explained the simple filing system which he had supplied to each Secretary. A good secretary is a tower of strength to any president in helping to keep the business running smoothly and even in the conducting of a meeting. The speaker stressed neatness, accuracy and prompt and proper attention to all correspondence rather than waiting perhaps three weeks for a meeting to discuss matters. Someone familiar with accounting should be elected as auditor rather than "one of the boys". A good auditor not only protects the members but the treasurer as well. Membership cards with stubs as a record are preferable and in filling out, these cards, cheques or receipts, the stub should be filled in first, the recipient will tell you if his part has not been written up.

In the balloting for officers the following were elected:

President, Jerry Walker, Todmorden; Vice-President, Miss Doris Cook, Maple; Sec.-Treas., Jim Faris, Newmarket.

Owing to sickness and other factors, it was decided to hold the Junior Farmers' Drama Festival at Pickering College on Monday, April 17th instead of during Easter week. Plays will be presented by Poplar Bank, Vellore, Unionville and Victoria Square Clubs.

HOLSTEIN CLUB ANNUAL BANQUET

The 4th annual banquet of the York County Holstein Club held at Pickering College, Newmarket, on the evening of March 17th, proved to be a wonderful success, most appropriately carried out to pay fitting tribute to both Black and White bovine race and the patron saint of Ireland. After being received by the officers and their wives, the two hundred guests were ushered to the dining room where the College kitchen staff under Miss McCully's able direction, served a most delightful dinner.

President Geo. W. Henry of Todmorden presided and called on W. M. Cockburn to lead in community singing between courses. Headmaster Joe McCully extended a welcome and of course, made reference to the herd at the college being developed by Sanford King, the farm manager. Alice Ramsay and Alice Hall of Sharon rendered two fine duets and Mrs. Lyons flavoured with two solos in her usual pleasing style.

The guest speaker, Mr. Geo. M. Clemens, Sec. of the Canadian Holstein Farmers Association, was introduced by R. M. Holtby, Eastern Ontario Fieldman, who pointed out that only three men have occupied the position of secretary of the parent association, namely the speaker, his father and grandfather. Mr. Clemens after making brief reference to the affairs of the association, particularly the new registration regulations, treated the gathering to a travelogue illustrated by both still and motion pictures of his trip to Europe a year or so ago. The pictures of the Holstein in their native provinces of Holstein and Friesland, many beauty spots in Great Britain and Holland and France were also shown.

Following a motion of thanks by Secretary Frank Ramsay and Vice-President Roy Barker to the speaker and entertainers as well as to Mr. McCully and his staff, the happy crowd found their way to the assembly hall where dancing was enjoyed for a couple of hours. Novelty dances and a shadowgraph of a dental operation added to the gaiety of this part of the programme. Everyone pronounced it to be "the best yet".

Presentation to Mrs. Farrants by Richvale Friends

The Woman's Association of Richvale United Church met at the home of Mrs. Cyril Baker and held the regular business meeting. We regret to report that several of the members were unable to attend owing to illness.

After the business was finished a social hour was spent during which the members expressed their regrets because Mrs. Farrants was leaving Richvale and presented her with an address and an English flannel housecoat. The address was as follows:

Dear Mrs. Farrants:—

The Women's Association of Richvale take great pleasure in presenting this gift to you as a token of the high esteem in which we hold you. As President of our Association for so many years, you have worked untiringly, and 't is with much sorrow that we see you leave us. Your place is going to be hard to fill for we are so few, and the obstacles seem so many, but we will all, I am sure, try our best to keep together and work for the good of Richvale church.

We hope that you will come back and visit us often and give us your help and advice.

With deep affection,
The Women's Association,
Richvale.

Mrs. Farrants thanked the members with a few well chosen words.
