BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY
A well established business organization has an opening for a well qualified representative in the Richmond Hill district. A man well known in the district with some sales experience preferred, but previous experience not necessary. This definitely is not a house to house selling proposition but a genuine opportunity for a well qualified man of standing in the community to represent a nationally known line of motor cars and trucks. LOCAL W.A. HEARS PAPER ON INDIA
At the regular meeting of St. Mary's branch of the W.A. held on Tuesday of this week, a very interesting paper was given by Mrs. J. Matchett, her subject being "The Religion of India". During the business session, it was decided to have the annual Daffodil Supper on April 21st. The members were delighted to have Mrs. Frisby in her usual place as President after her illness.

EXPRESS THANKS
The teachers of Richmond Hill Public School wish to thank Mrs. J. Moffat for her gift of 2 beautifully stuffed birds for their collection. One is a large crane about 3 ft. high and the other is a large hawk which has just captured a flicker.

EUCHRE AND DANCE
A Benefit Euchre and Dance will be held by Maple Young Men's club on Friday, April 14th, in the Masonic Hall, Maple. Good prizes. Admission 25c.

DIED
BROCK—At his home in Markham township Thursday, March 30, Richard James Brock. The funeral was held from Wright & Taylor's Funeral Home Sunday afternoon, April 2nd and interment followed in Richmond Hill cemetery.

ANGLICAN CHURCH TO USE NEW HYMN BOOK ON EASTER SUNDAY
The new Hymn Book of the Anglican Church will be used by St. Mary's congregation, Richmond Hill for the first time on Sunday next. The new book which was completed last year contains eight hundred and twelve hymns of which one hundred and sixty-eight are new. In addition to the usual sections, new ones have been added, including "Christian Service", "Hymns for Youth", and "God in Nature".

BOY SCOUTS
In Toronto at the Coliseum, Exhibition Grounds, a cyclorama for Scouts and Cubs is to be held on April 13, 14 and 15. Books of tickets can be had from Scouts, 10c. each ticket. There are twelve in a book. This is to be a very large affair, showing "Scout" and "Cub" badge work and also there is to be a hobby show.

In the evenings events will take place showing a display of "Scouting" and "Cubbing". Scouts from the United States are taking part as well as Toronto Scouts and leaders. Scouters from all over Ontario are expected and the usual Ontario Yearly Conference will take place on Saturday evening, April 15th when a banquet is to be held.
We expect 100,000 people to witness one of the largest displays of scouting ever held in Canada.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES
(By Sam Macdonald)
The basketball schedule has drawn to a close and Richmond Hill senior team captured first place with 6 wins out of 6 games.

Under the able guidance of Mr. Teal and co-operation of the team, they have shown some real basketball and won every game with ease making them North York champions. The junior boys didn't do any better than one win and the girls were about as bad.

It has been suggested that the senior team play some city teams. I am inclined to think that they would really have a chance to show how good they really are.
The gymnasium is in pretty bad shape so the school dance will be held in the Masonic Hall.

MIDLAND WINS YORK-SIMCOE VOLLEY BALL TOURNAMENT
With teams from Midland, Orillia and Richmond Hill participating the annual District Volley Ball Tournament was staged at Pickering College, Newmarket, on Saturday last. With a Round Robin commencing in mid-afternoon play was not concluded until 7 p.m. Midland team was led by Mr. J. W. Smith of the Y.M.C.A.; Orillia groups by Mr. Skid-watson, and the local team was represented by Mr. W. H. Charles, secretary of Richmond Hill Club. Orillia Juniors carried off second honors. Classified team trophies with a souvenir book mark for all players were arranged for. The contest was much enjoyed by all.

ST. MARY'S A.Y.P.A.
The weekly meeting of the A.Y.P.A. was held on Tuesday night. During the business part of the meeting it was decided to cancel the meeting next week because of the At Home held on Wednesday, April 12th. Mrs. Dorothy Reaman, convenor of Religious Committee, was in charge and handed it over to Bill Campbell who presented Rev. R. S. Mason. Mr. Mason continued the study on the Common Prayer Book and the meeting closed with prayer.

Two alleged housebreakers were captured by Constable Sam Ireland at Claireville last Friday. The arrests followed an exciting and hectic series of events including an automobile chase and a reported plea of one of the men that he was suffering from appendicitis. Appearing in York county court the same day the suspects were remanded for a week.
