

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

May always brings the annual meeting of the local branch of the Women's Institute, and on Thursday last at the home of Mrs. A. E. Milner the reports of various departments and the election of officers was on the schedule.

An invitation to visit the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Patterson, Agincourt in lilac time was unanimously accepted, with date to be set later. The program held two especially interesting features, a paper on "Education by Mrs. M. Reesor and an instructive talk on Health and Child Welfare by Mrs. J. Brown.

The election of officers conducted by Mrs. R. L. Stiver, resulted as follows: Pres., Mrs. G. Whaley; 1st Vice-Pres., Mrs. W. Young; 2nd Vice-Pres., Mrs. R. A. Sabiston; 3rd Vice-Pres., Mrs. John Brown; District Director, Mrs. R. L. Stiver; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. A. E. Milner; Branch Directors, Mrs. T. Burnett, Mrs. M. Reesor, Mrs. J. Cockrane; Pianist, Mrs. E. Dixon; Press Sec., Mrs. S. Weatherill; Auditors, Mrs. C. H. Stiver, Mrs. A. C. Kennedy; Sick and Visiting Com., Mrs. A. Nash, Mrs. C. E. Stiver, Mrs. S. Weatherill, Mrs. H. H. Powers; Convenors of Standing Committees, Historical Research, Mrs. G. Whaley; Education, Mrs. M. Reesor; Canadianization, Mrs. H. H. Powers; Legislation, Mrs. F. Frisby; Peace, Mrs. W. Young; Health and Child Welfare, Mrs. Brookfield; Agriculture, Mrs. R. Sabiston; Home Economics, Mrs. Bell; Community Activities and Relief, Mrs. E. Dixon. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. A. E. Milner, Mrs. C. E. Stiver and Mrs. R. L. Stiver. Delicious home made bread was on the menu, made by Mrs. R. L. Stiver, that was indeed duly appreciated by the ladies.

A gala event was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Coulson when relatives and intimate friends assembled to extend felicitations to Mrs. D. Coulson on her 83rd birthday. Mrs. Coulson is well known in this vicinity having been born on the Stiver homestead and resided in Markham township her entire life. Mrs. Coulson manifests intense interest in all worth while things, and her homey philosophy has often given good advice and guidance to her friends. The thirty-five guests were present from Oshawa, Markham, Scarborough, Toronto, Unionville and vicinity. The Liberal joins the many friends in extending congratulations and best wishes for many happy returns of the day.

The May meeting of the Women's Association of Central United Church was held in the Sunday School room on Thursday last, Mrs. A. Coulson, Mrs. A. E. Milner and Mrs. F. Boadway hostesses for the afternoon. During the devotional period Mrs. M. Reesor gave the scripture reading and Mrs. A. Coulson an inspirational talk and prayer. The roll call was responded to by a verse of scripture containing the word "disciple". A splendid program had been prepared, but owing to plans having to be made for the Laymen's Banquet, to which the Association catered, it was postponed until the next meeting. Following the meeting a delightful tea was served by the hostesses. Mrs. E. Bewell presided.

Miss Grace Harrington, Toronto, spent the week-end at her home here. The Misses Mauchie and Mrs. Gray of Toronto have taken up residence in Unionville for the summer months. Mr. Wm. Elliott is visiting his daughter Mrs. McLean of Omemeo. Mr. and Mrs. E. Hull and Mrs. Libby Gibson of Toronto were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Gibson on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Harrington spent the week-end at Sparrow Lake. Mr. and Mrs. N. Ogden left on Sunday for Orillia where Mr. Ogden will convalesce following a long illness, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Conley.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Harry, Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson of Toronto visited Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Duffield on Sunday. Mrs. F. Pollard returned on Wednesday from Timmins where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ken Greatrix.

Mr. Willis Weir of Kisbey, Saskatchewan, was the guest of Mr. W. F. Barker on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Rev. David Marshall, Mrs. Marshall and family returned to the village this week from British Guiana where they have been in charge of the Presbyterian Mission. Sunday evening, May 21st, will be a special musical service at the United Church, in connection with the church anniversary. The guest artist will be Mr. Frank Blachford, violinist, and the choir will sing compositions of Bach, Handel and Mozart. Madeleine Rumble, a pupil of Mrs. Isobel Bannerman of Toronto, was a successful contestant at the York Municipal Festival held at Aurora on Monday evening of this week. In the adult Elocution Class she secured the Gold Medal. In class 106, Elocution (open) she secured the silver medal.

Richmond Hill School Choir under the leadership of Miss Jean Middleton took part in the York Musical Festival at Aurora Tuesday morning. The class was non-competitive but the adjudicator spoke very highly of the Richmond Hill choir and complimented them on their singing. Mrs. O. L. Wright was the accompanist.

TO PAVE CENTRE STREET At a special meeting of Richmond Hill council this week it was decided to proceed with the paving of Centre Street East. The contract has been let and the work will commence some time in June.

UNITED CHURCH EVENING AUXILIARY The regular May meeting of the Evening Auxiliary of the United Church has been withdrawn but a quilting will be held at the home of Mrs. Stanley Ransom on Tuesday afternoon, May 30th, followed by a short program in the evening.

ROYAL VISIT SERVICE RICHMOND HILL Those joining the parade to St. Mary's Church on Sunday evening are asked to meet at Little Brothers, north end of the village at 6.15 p.m. Daylight Saving Time. Souvenir Service Programmes containing pictures of the King and Queen, and the Hymn written for the Royal Visit will be distributed at the service. Special prayers for safety and blessing will be offered on behalf of their Majesties. The Rev. W. F. Wrixon will preach on "The Significance of the Royal Visit". The choir will sing "Land of Hope and Glory."

OBITUARY

LATE ANN BOYLE

The funeral of the late Ann Agnes Boyle was held from her late residence Saturday afternoon, May 6th and was largely attended by friends and relatives. The late Ann Boyle who was a lifelong resident of the community passed away Thursday, May 4th. She was the only daughter of the late Matthew and Maria Boyle and her charming personality and kindly disposition endeared her to a wide circle of friends who sincerely mourn her passing. An active member of the Richmond Hill Presbyterian church she was a staunch supporter of all its activities and during her lifetime took a leading part in its various organizations. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. D. Cunningham, minister of the church, who paid glowing tribute to the lovable christian character of the late Miss Boyle. Interment took place in Richmond Hill cemetery, the pall bearers being, Thomas H. Trench, William Wallace, Percy C. Hill, A. G. Savage, Garfield Yerex and R. S. Cooper.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mr. George Windas wish to express their sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors and also to the Women's Association of Teston United Church for the many kind expressions of sympathy and floral tributes extended them during their recent bereavement in the loss of a father.

IN MEMORIAM

BURNS—In loving memory of a dear brother, Melville, who passed away May 12th, 1937. Peacefully sleeping, resting at last, His weary trials and troubles are past; In silence he suffered, in patience he bore, 'Till God called him home to suffer no more. —Lovingly remembered by his sister Lillian and family.

WEDDING

ANDERSON-McCLUSKEY

A very pretty wedding took place in Teston United Church on Saturday, May 6th, when Reta, daughter of Mrs. and the late Andrew McCluskey, became the bride of Mr. Howard Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson of Toronto. Rev. Douglas Davis officiated and Mr. Fred Bignell played the wedding music. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. James McCluskey, wore an orchid taffeta gown with shoulder length veil and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and roses. Her sister Florence acted as bridesmaid dressed in Delf blue taffeta with halo hat and carried sweet peas and roses. Mr. Allen Cubbidge was best man and the ushers were Mr. Ivan Epps and Mr. Murray Armstrong.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother when Mrs. McCluskey received wearing a deep flowered blue redingote dress. The groom's mother wore blue flowered chiffon. Later the bridal couple left for Quebec and on their return will live on 185 Airdrie Road, Leaside. The bride travelled in a beige ensemble with Dutch Clay accessories.

ROYAL THEATRE AURORA

SHOWS START AT 8 p.m. & 10 p.m. SATURDAYS & HOLIDAYS 7:30 & 9:30 DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

TODAY, THURSDAY, MAY 11
BETTE DAVIS - ERROL FLYNN in
"THE SISTERS"

FRIDAY & SATURDAY, MAY 12 - 13
JAMES CAGNEY - PAT O'BRIEN - THE DEAD END KIDS in
"ANGELS WITH DIRTY FACES"

This is a sockeroo melodrama, one of the cleverest concoctions of pulse-pounding excitement, heart-stopping thrills and throat catching emotional human touches ever to hit the screen.

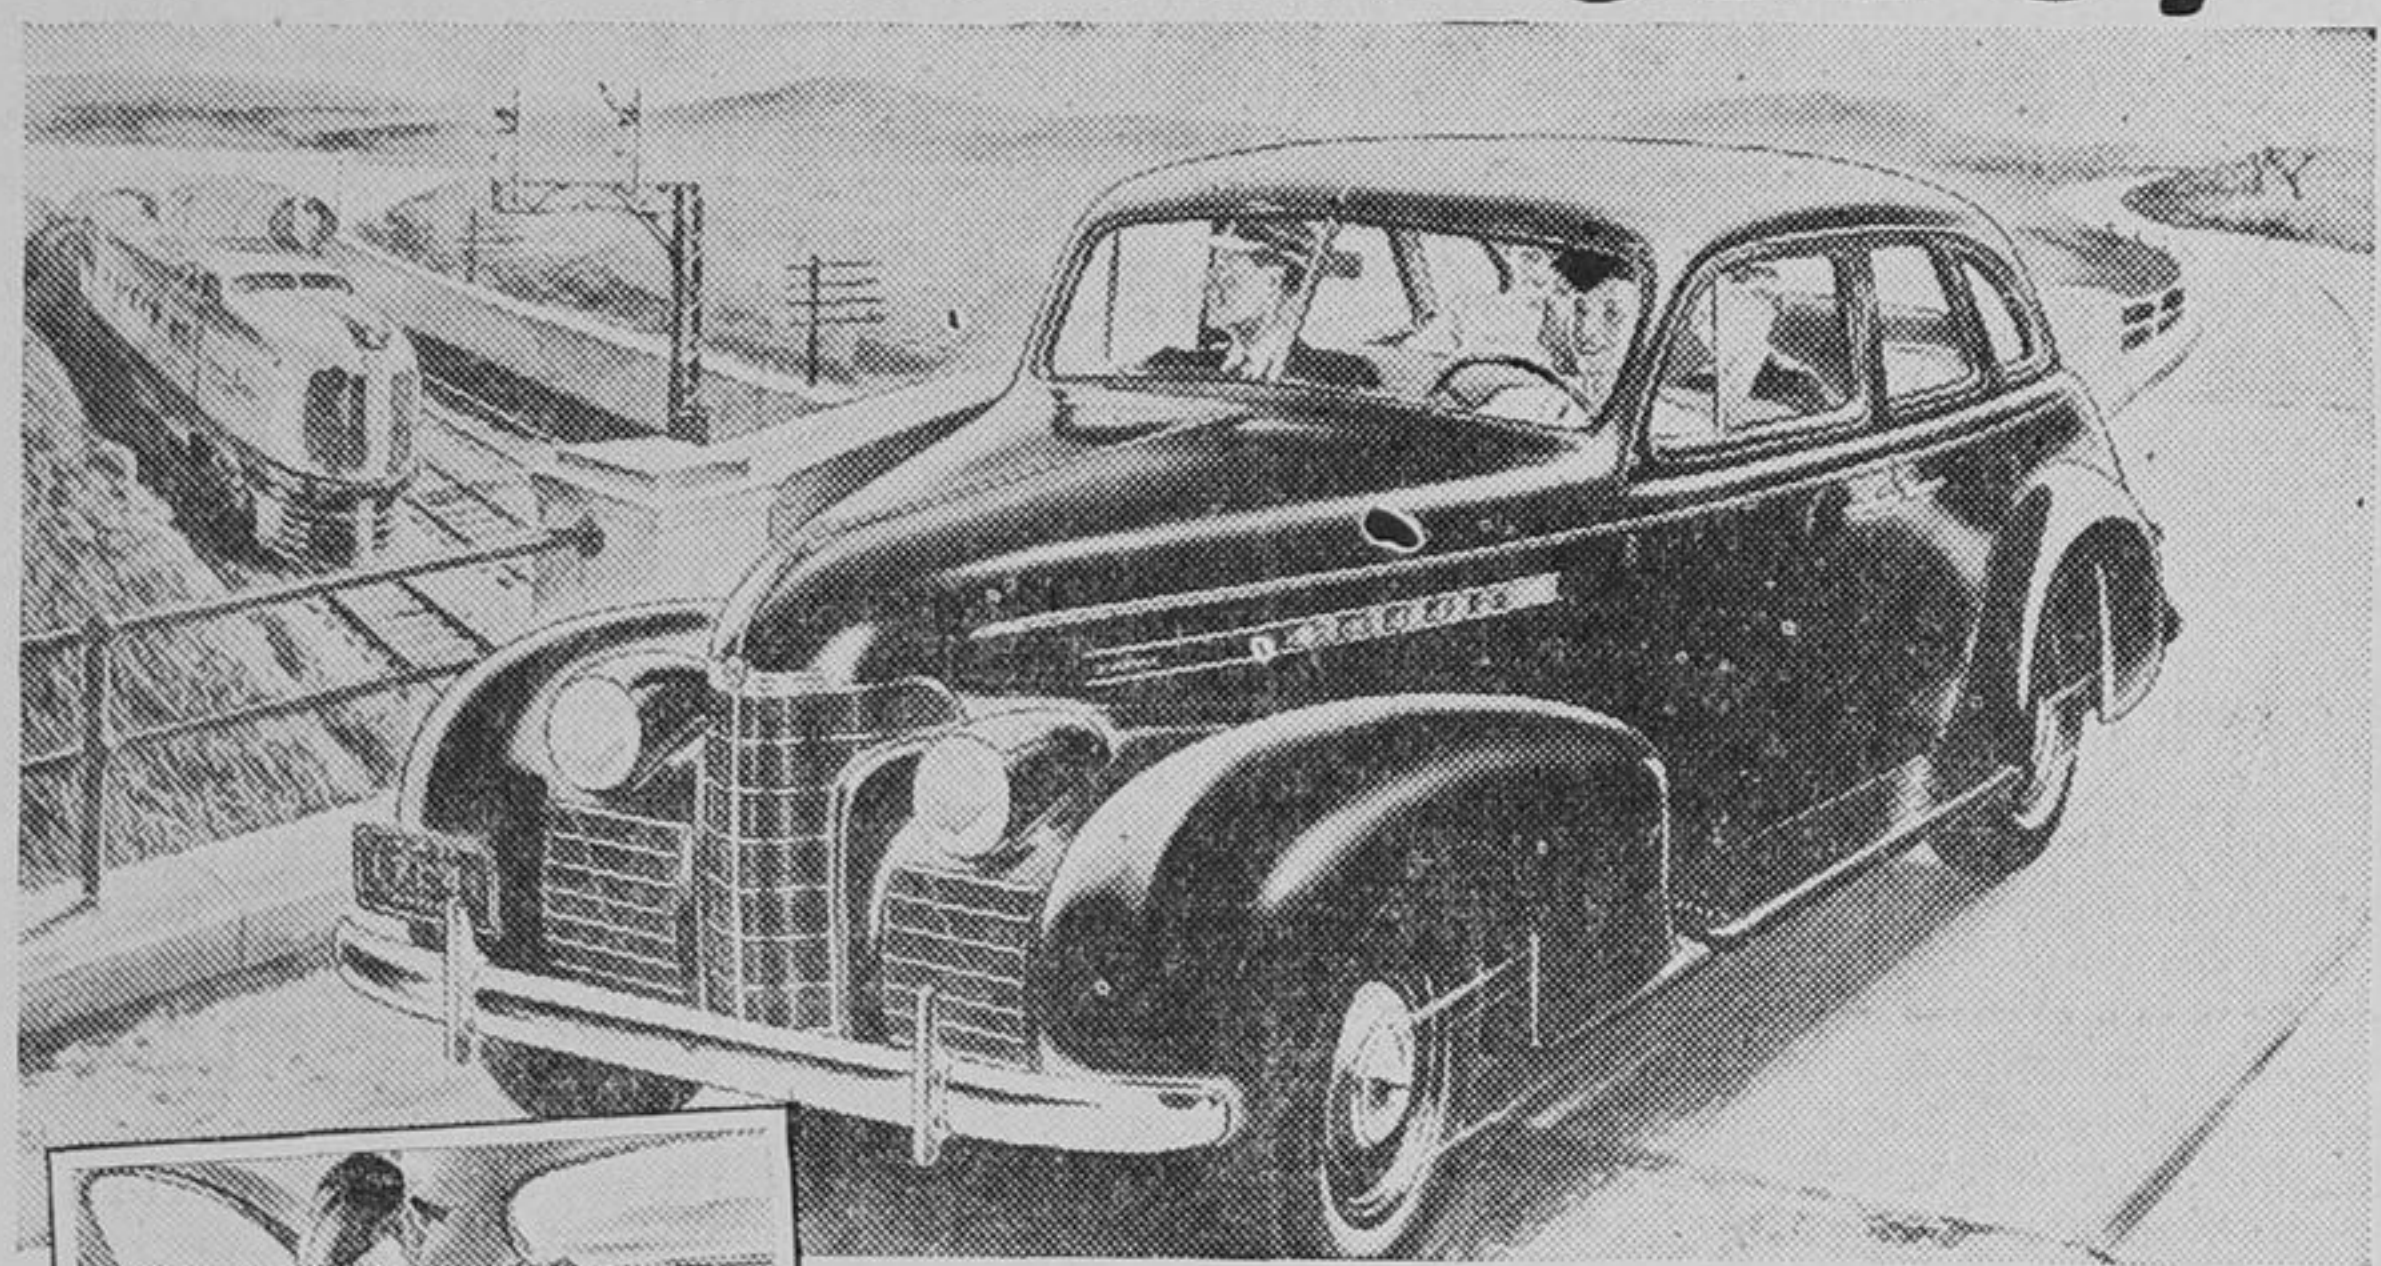

MONDAY & TUESDAY, MAY 15 - 16
JOHN GARFIELD - LANE SISTERS - CLAUDE RAINES in
"FOUR DAUGHTERS"

Based on the novel, Sister Act, by Fannie Hurst. A melodrama of the tangled love affairs of four daughters. It holds one enthralled by its tenderness, simplicity and directness. A picture with a wide appeal on account of its down-to-earth human interest. Full of interest and action, providing good entertainment for the family—Excellent.

WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY, MAY 17 - 18
DON AMECHE - CLAUDETTE COLBERT in
"MIDNIGHT"

A most amusing comedy with many surprising twists to an unusually clever, swift-moving plot. It's a horsey of a picture, probably as good a romantic farce as the year will see. It bubbles and chuckles, it has spice without vulgarity, it presents a group of happy performances by a happy cast.
