YEARN'S FOR PIONEER DAYS
 The pioneers of York County had hard work and volves to worry them, but the main worry of the modern farmer, the annual tax bill, almost missed them entirely.

Bert Kennedy, Agincourt farmer, has in his possession a receipt for taxes paid by his grandfather on the family homestead, then 104 acres in extent, in 1852. It amounted to just £1 17s 5 1-2d, the equivalent of about nine cents an acre.

Mr. Kennedy contrasts that with his peak tax bill in 1932, $549.98 on 60 acres and his 1938 bill, $237.18 on the same acreage.

The old tax bill is a very simple affair, written in fire copperplate on a piece of note paper about the size of a visiting card. It reads: "Joseph Kennedy, 1852 taxes, general, £-19.7; school, £-17.10 1-2; total £17.5, paid Charles C. Brown, collector."

The present taxes work out at about $3 an acre, and the peak in 1932 was $7 an acre. At that time Agincourt district was paying for a school, pavements and lighting in addition to a high general rate. The school and local improvements are now nearly paid off and the general and county rate has come down to 25.2 mills.

Besides its local improvements and schools, Agincourt has acquired many services since the old days. Police and fire protection were unknown then, or practically so. Relief was certainly non-existent and Scarborough had not begun to accumulate its debenture debt.

Mr. Kennedy, however, still expresses doubts that the services supplied have increased in the same ratio as taxes, which are 34 times as much per acre as they were in the so-called "good old days."

Thieves broke into J. Abell's drug store at Malton last Thursday night and stole a radio, camera and the entire stock of cigarettes, cigars, tobacco and candy, valued at $150. Entry was gained by jimmying the rear door.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM M. FITZGERALD
 William Fitzgerald, a well known figure in Orange circles throughout Canada for the past fifty years died at his home in Toronto on Monday in his 83rd year. He was Grand Secretary of the Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario West since 1907. More than fifty years ago he was instrumental in the founding of the Loyal True Blue Association. He was president of the True Blue and Orange Orphanage which was first located at Picton and later transferred to the splendid building now located on Yonge St. near Richmond Hill. The orphanage may well be looked on as a monument to this man whose chief interest in life was the welfare of unfortunate children.

Mother's Day was duly observed here last Sunday. The younger members of the Sunday School assisted by some of the older pupils entered the church singing "The Church's One Foundation" and joined the choir where one verse of "Holy, Holy, Holy" was sung. Two features of the service was a reading "The Room of Gold" by Evelyn Hare, and a chorus by the choir of the Sunday School. The Pastor, Rev. D. Davis, gave an appropriate address taking for his subject "The Mother of Zebedee's Children". There was a larger attendance than usual at this service.

The Y.P.U. service was held on Sunday evening and was interesting to those who attended. Chas. Robson presided. The topic "Freedom Within" was given by Chas. Robson. The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

Edgar Black, of King township, became the bride of Norman Wesley Greensides, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Greensides, of King township. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. V. Abbott amidst a profusion of spring blossoms and cut flowers. Wedding music was played by Miss Gertrude Black, sister of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in her travelling dress of rosewood crepe with pin-tucked bolero jacket of suez rose crepe and white accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses. Her only attendant was a sister, Mrs. Ross Marchant; Mr. Wesley Hindle, of Cookstown, acted as usher, and the groomsmen was Mr. Ross Marchant of Lloydstown. Following a reception at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for a motor trip. They will reside on the groom's farm on the fourth concession of King.
