FORTY YEARS AGO

From our Issue of June 8th, 1899 Mrs. Amos Wright who, with her husband and family, has recently removed from Parkdale to this village, was on Sunday last the recipient of an address and a beautiful clock presented by the members of the North Parkdale Methodist Sabbath School where she had been teacher for the past ten years.

One of the latest attractions at the Dominion House is a Graphophone which sings, songs, plays instrumental music, and makes speeches. The instrument is one of the best we have ever heard, and its tones are so clear that many people are attracted to the interesting novelty.

The first draft of new stations for Methodist clergymen was given in the dailies this week. By the first draft Rev. G. McCulloch will go to Newmarket and Rev. N. Wellwood will come to Richmond Hill as Superintendent of the circuit.

Tuesday dailies give the results of the Arts Examinations of Toronto University. Richmond Hill is represented by Mr. Wycliffe Trench who completed the course for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and Mr. W. A. Glass passed successfully his third year. The latter also received honors in General Proficiency.

The Junior Lacrosse team, accompanied by Messrs. A. E. Coombs and J. W. Forhan, went to Markham Saturday afternoon to play a friendly game with the juniors of that town. They had one of Proctor's best vans, which was elaborately decorated with Union Jacks and maple leaves, and looked well. As they started on their trip they sang with enthusiasm to the tune of "John Brown's Body", an original composition. "We'll teach Markham the way to play Lacrosse", and it was noticed on their return they sang the same tune and the same words, though the words were slightly transposed. The boys had a good time, but as the home team put on heavy players the latter had the advantage. The score stood at the close 5-1 in favor of Markham.

The Epworth League Social held on the church grounds Saturday evening was well managed, and a pleasant time was the result. The grounds were illuminated with Chinese lanterns and looked very pretty. Members of the Village band furnished good music, which was thoroughly enjoyed, and the committee were kept busy dispensing the ice cream, cake and other delicacies. The receipts were over $20.00.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

From our Issue of June 3rd, 1909 Mr. J. Herbert Denton, the newly appointed York County Judge, was born at Richmond Hill 44 years ago. The appointment has given general satisfaction.

Mr. Nicholas Lynett with other members of the family removed on Monday to their new home on Centre Street. Before leaving the farm on the second of Markham where Mr. Lynett had resided for about 70 years, many old neighbors who had long respected and esteemed him called to say farewell on the old homestead, and to wish him happiness and contentment in his new home.

A large bank barn 46x86, was raised on Mr. Charles Comisky's farm, 2nd Con. Markham, last Thursday. Mr. Frank Smith was the carpenter, and the stone work was done by Mr. John Claffey. The heavy timbers went together like clock-work, and Mr. Comisky will have one of the finest barns in this section of country. The captains on Thursday were Albert Williams and Henry Bond. The former, with his able helpers, were the first to surround the tables at a real banquet.

A large stable owned by the Noughton Estate, Elgin Mills, was burned in Aurora Tuesday afternoon, a short distance north-west of the Metropolitan waiting room. The building was occupied by Messrs. Towns and Winters. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

From our Issue of June 5th, 1924 After an illness of only three days Mr. Edward Glover, for many years a resident of Richmond Hill, passed away Sunday afternoon in his 83rd year, following an attack of pneumonia. Deceased was born in Devonshire, England, in 1842, came to Canada when 12 years of age, and lived the rest of his life in Richmond Hill and immediate vicinity. For many years Mr. Glover worked as a stone mason and contractor, and did much work in this section of country. Besides his widow whom he had married 60 years ago this month, deceased is survived by Mrs. Frank Robinson, Richmond Hill; Lizzie, Harry and Charles at home, George, Mrs. Lappin and Beverley in Toronto; and Jack in California. Also two brothers and a sister, Edwin in the West, George in Toronto and Mrs. Cawker in Unionville. The funeral was largely attended on Tuesday in charge of Rev. H. F. Battersby and interment took place in the Village cemetery.

The village council met on June 2nd, 1924, in the clerk's office, all the members present, minutes of previous meetings read and confirmed.

Petitions for sidewalks on Elizabeth street and Baker Avenue were presented. Moved by Councillor Endean and seconded by Councillor Greene that these petitions be received and that work be proceeded with as soon as possible. Carried.

The Building Inspector presented his monthly report showing permits issued during the month of May for buildings to the value of $85,230.00.

Discussion was had with reference to road conditions and on motion it was decided to proceed with the ditching, grading and repairing Wright Street, Mill Street and Hall Street. Council adjourned.

Mr. A. M. Rice, president of the Hill's-Square league and the champion Thornhill team opened the local ball season at Victoria Square last Friday night. The locals emerged victorious after a snappy seven inning contest. MacDonald pitched a good game but his support wobbled at the critical stages. The Lehman Bros. made a formidable battery for Victoria Square. Line-up: Thornhill—Farr, Armstrong, C. MacDonald, B. MacDonald, Johnson, Wesley, Chapman, Hopper, Hooper. Victoria Square—L. Lehman, Brown, H. Nichols, Stevenson, Stiver, Gayman, C. Nichols, Lyon, B. Lehman. Subs, McCague and MacKay. Umpires, Rice and Harding.

Mr. Hicks Smith left for Schumacher last week where he has secured a good position for the summer. He will continue his University work in September.

Mr. Jack New returned home from the General Hospital last Saturday and is progressing as well as can be expected. He received a fracture of his leg in a collision with a motorcycle in Toronto on May 22, the day of the King and Queen's visit. The accident happened after the parade was over and in crossing Yonge St. met with this accident.

Rev. A. H. Halbert, Mr. A. W. Galbraith and Mr. J. V. Batchelor attended the Toronto Conference of the United Church last week. The sessions concluded Monday evening.

Mrs. Earl Bales underwent an operation for appendicitis recently. Her many friends are pleased to hear that she expects to return home soon from the General Hospital.

Mr. Gordon Hurd has returned from the General Hospital much improved in health.

Mrs. Wiley and family of Caledonia visited with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Galbraith last Sunday.

Miss Mary Douglas is spending a few weeks in Toronto with her cousin who is ill.

Mr. S. J. Halbert of Alliston visited last week at the Parsonage while attending the Toronto United Church Conference.

The S. S. executive met in the United Church school room for their regular monthly meeting last Thursday evening with a good attendance. Arrangements were made for the annual S. S. picnic to be held on July 8th to Hanlan's Point.

Mrs. Beacock of Toronto and Mrs. Hughson of Garrie were guests recently of Mrs. A. W. Stephenson.

A choral service was held in the United Church by the choir under the leadership of Miss Bertha Smith and was very much appreciated by all. The choir was assisted in the service by the Haydn String Quartet of Toronto under the direction of Mr. David Tees. Many expressed the hope that the choir would put on another choral service some Sunday evening in the future.

The Masonic Order will worship in the Newtonbrook United Church on Sunday, June 18th.

The Mission Band is making plans for a hike and picnic next Saturday. The members to meet at the home of Miss Rita Hurd, Finch Ave., at 1.30 p.m.

The C.G.I.T. will hold a Bazaar and Afternoon Tea at the home of Mrs. A. H. Douglas, 154 Pemberton Ave. next Saturday, June 10th from 3 to 5. The proceeds will go towards camp funds. A hearty welcome to all.

Miss Cora Good was presented with a beautiful Bible last Sunday morning during the Sunday School session in appreciation of her faithful services as teacher and pianist.

The Drumhead Service which was held recently at Earl Haig Collegiate Institute campus was largely attended. Rev. L. C. Secrett gave the address and was assisted in the service by the local clergy.

The W.M.S. Auxiliary held a Tulip Tea at the home of Mrs. W. T. Wells last Wednesday afternoon with a good attendance. Everyone viewed the beautiful flower garden which was a mass of bloom and looked its best for this occasion. In the dining room Mrs. A. W. Galbraith, the Auxiliary president, presided at the tea table. Mrs. Dr. James Scrimgeour of Trinidad and Miss Campbell of Africa were guests. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent by all.

The North York Horticultural Society held its Tulip and Lilac show on May 20th in the North York Market. All the entries were of a very high standard and there was a large attendance.

Miss Dorothy Johnson will be hostess at a miscellaneous shower to be held on Thursday evening in honor of a bride to be, Miss Nora Graham, whose marriage takes place this week.

The community was shocked last Saturday morning to hear of the sudden passing of Mrs. Edwin Ness (nee Miss Alma Smith). Mrs. Ness underwent a major operation last Wednesday morning and apparently it was quite successful. On Friday night she suffered a heart attack and early Saturday morning she passed away. The deceased was a member of the United Church choir for a number of years and only a few weeks ago entertained the choir at her home. She was married last October 1st. To her husband we extend deepest sympathy. The funeral took place last Monday afternoon from the home on Finch Ave. west, and was attended by a large number of friends. Rev. A. H. Halbert officiated. The beautiful floral tributes testified to the high esteem in which she was held in the community. Interment took place in Thornhill cemetery in the family plot. Her father, Mr. Robt. Smith, predeceased her last August and her mother in November, 1934.
