THORNHILL DISTRICT NEWS

The Thornhill Home and School Association met for the last time this season at the school on Monday evening, May 29th.

Very interesting entertainment was provided by the school choir and the pupils who took part in the Aurora festival, also the pupils of our vocal dancing teacher, Mrs. Sharpe. When the children had completed their part of the program they were treated to lolly-pops and sent home. The business of the meeting then began. The officers and convenors gave their yearly reports. The report of Mrs. Jackson, nomination convenor, was read and the following officers and convenors were nominated for the season of 1939-40: President, Mrs. R. Neil; 1st vice-pres., Mrs. A. Stevenson; 2nd vice-pres., Mrs. C. E. Jaeger; recording secretary, Mrs. Young; Cor. Sec., Mrs. Morton; treas., Mrs. Findlay; convenors, Mrs. Jacques, Mrs. Gwillem, Mrs. Farrell, Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Jaeger, Mrs. Pritchard.

Mr. Morton, chairman of the School Board, made a motion of thanks to Mrs. Neil and her executive for co-operating with the School Board and school during the past season and this motion was seconded by the principal, Mrs. H. Hickson. Refreshments were served as usual. The Advisory Board of Trinity Church purpose holding a Decoration Day Service in connection with the cemetery on Sunday, June 11th at 3 o'clock D.S.T. The special speaker will be Rev. A. C. McCallum, B.A., B.D., Vicar of St. John's Church, York Mills. An offering will be taken during the service. Should sufficient funds be contributed the Board purpose placing a large cement cistern at the rear of the hall so that water will be available for the purpose of watering the flowers whenever required. In case of rain the service will be held in the church.

Let us show the respect that is due the memory of the pioneers, the men and women who made this country. We can do so by keeping their last resting place in a proper condition. Kindly make an effort to be present.

The Mission Band of the United Church was entertained on Tuesday evening by the Auxiliary of the W. M. S. in the school room. Mrs. Jacques, superintendent, and Mrs. Morton, vice-president of the W.M.S. were in charge. Miss Marjorie Jamieson read the scripture lesson, which was demonstrated by a number of the small boys. The girls of the band sang. Mrs. J. A. Murray, guest speaker, and secretary of the Mission Bands of the Toronto Centre Presbytery, talked to the children, telling a number of interesting true stories, which were enjoyed by the older ones as well. Refreshments were served at the close.

A display of the year's handicraft was exhibited by the pupils of the Thornhill Public School in one of their class rooms. The exhibit consisted of cleverly designed pylamas, aprons, hemstitching, embroidering, pin cushions, examples of button-holes, laundry bags and other collections of knick knock holders.

The most cleverly designed exhibit of all was a doll dressed in an elaborate Hungarian costume by Laura Magvas. The doll incidentally was made by the senior girls.

A vast number of other collections were also shown. These consisted of historical enterprises, soap carving, novelty vases, art collections, woodcraft, bird houses, book-kends bread boards and others too numerous to mention.

The junior pupils proudly presented their excellent display of weaving, plasticine, flower and salt collections. A clever arrangement of illustrated poems, class books and table illustrations on Indians and Eskimos. All this interesting and educational work is included in the new course of study and has certainly proven successful.

Miss Florence Rickwood of Toronto spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Henderson, Centre St., Thornhill.

Mrs. F. Rickwood of Orillia, Ont. visited Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Henderson at Centre St., Thornhill on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson of Orangeville, Ont. visited friends in Thornhill on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Billerman of Toronto visited with Dr. and Mrs. L. R. Marwood on Tuesday evening.

Miss Lillian Koghill of Thornhill was married last Saturday to Mr. George Kent of Toronto.

A baby daughter was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Smith of Colbourne St., Thornhill.

The Thornhill Girl Guides went on a hike to Mr. Heslop's bush on Saturday. An enjoyable afternoon was spent by all.

Mrs. Percy Bone of Thornhill has been spending a few days at her summer cottage at Lake Simcoe.

Dr. Routledge of Ridgetown and his daughter, Mrs. Carmichael of Toronto visited the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. Attridge of Centre Street, Thornhill on Tuesday.

Provincial Constable L. B. Byles, who formerly patrolled north Yonge St., filled the vacancy created by Constables Howard Jackman and Alex. O. Ferguson of No. 11 Highway. The two constables went to St. Catharines Wednesday afternoon to attend the Royal procession there. Thornhill Girls' baseball team played Fisherville girls Wednesday, June 8, at Thornhill. Thornhill girls beat Fisherville's girls 13-5 but the game was called off in the fifth innings on account of rain.

Thornhill Horticultural Society will hold an Iris Show in Thornhill Public School Monday evening, June 12.

At an O.G.A. tournament played at the Thornhill Golf Club, the Elms Club won the Gross team, scoring a total of 311 points, defeating the Thornhill team with a total of 313 points. John F. Ellacott, Thornhill, of the Elms Club scored a handsome, low gross of 80.
