

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

The twenty-fourth annual meeting of Section 5 Toronto Presbyterian held in Knox Presbyterian Church, Agincourt, on Wednesday last, with Mrs. W. A. Newall, vice-president in charge, was well attended by representative Auxiliaries. Reports showed an increased interest in the work and a definite gain in givings over the past year. The special speakers included Mrs. J. G. Inkster who presented definite plans for organization year, and urged increasing membership.

The work of the Finance and Supply departments was presented by Mrs. Oliphant and Mrs. Wood. The missionary address was given by Mrs. G. W. MacKay, now home on furlough from Formosa. She spoke of the strength of the native church, the devotion of the Christians, and the power of the word of God, their eagerness to learn to read the Bible. "The work is the Lord's, may we take courage and obey the command of the King. Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel." Mrs. J. A. Hiltz, Provincial Home Helper Secretary, spoke of the importance of this part of the work. The Home Helper department is the natural channel through which to reach our membership. "All cannot go or give, but all can pray. The world is confused but not lost."

Special musical selections were contributed by Mrs. Jas. Muirhead, Mrs. Bracken and Miss Bracken.

Dr. Jessie MacBeen, formerly missionary to China, brought recent news from China and urged the help of Canadians, a 5c. contribution being sufficient to keep a child for a week, an adult for three days.

The ladies were entertained to luncheon by the Agincourt ladies, and also afternoon tea following the afternoon session.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Morris and Mrs. M. J. Morris of Windsor were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Duffield Friday and Saturday of last week.

Brown's Corners United Church W.M.S. Celebrate Thirtieth Anniversary

On Wednesday afternoon, June 14 the W.M.S. of Brown's Corners celebrated their thirtieth anniversary.

Mrs. R. L. Stiver, president for almost the thirty years, conducted the meeting. The address was given by Rev. Mrs. Rae of Willowdale. This was very inspiring and a message for everyone. Mrs. David Taylor of Agincourt sang a very appropriate solo and was accompanied by Miss Morgan.

Mrs. Russell took part in the worship service. Two readings given by Mrs. Ward of Agincourt suited this delightful occasion. Miss Barbara Taylor gave two delightful piano solos. Congratulations were extended from the visiting auxiliaries.

Many charter members were present and two of these over eighty years, namely, Mrs. Brook Sr. and Miss Mary Ann Kelly. Mrs. George Padget presided at the piano during the meeting.

The front of the church was a bower of beauty with seasonal flowers. About ninety sat down to supper following the meeting, at which Rev. Morrison Sellar, a former pastor extended his greetings.

Following supper Mrs. R. L. Stiver read an address to Mrs. Sadie Brook and Miss Mary Rodick and Mrs. Douglas Hood presented her with a sewing cabinet. Mrs. Brook until recently was a very active member being first vice-president of this W.M.S. Her departure to Thornhill means a great loss to this Auxiliary.

This Auxiliary in the past thirty years has done a great deal of needy work locally and for foreign missions. Great praise was given to Mrs. Stiver in the wonderful way in which she has carried on the work and many wishes were expressed for continued service.

DIBB REUNION

George Dibb attended his 19th family reunion on his 210 acre farm at Jefferson on Saturday. One hundred and fifty descendants of George and Thomas Dibb who came to Canada in 1848 from Yorkshire and cleared the farm on which the present owner was born seventy-five years ago were gathered at the reunion. Two daughters of the pioneer, George, attended, Mrs. James Brown, age 85, of Jefferson and Mrs. E. Bell, 83, of Toronto. Mrs. John Watson of Maple, 81, is a daughter of Thomas Dibb.

George Dibb, the third, of St. Catharines was judged the visitor from the furthestmost point. The youngest visitor was Kenneth Hoshen, 13 months old, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hoshen of Toronto. Seven children of George Dibb and five of his grandchildren along with other relatives spent Saturday playing baseball and many other games at the farm.

Among those who attended were George Oshen and his family, Doris Fraser, a granddaughter, and her family, Robert, George and William Bell, Will Harris and Mrs. E. Bell all of Toronto.

ROYAL THEATRE AURORA

SHOWS START AT 8 p.m. & 10 p.m. SATURDAYS & HOLIDAYS
7.30 & 9.30 DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME

TODAY, THURSDAY, JUNE 22
DICK FORAN - GLORIA DICKSON in
"HEART OF THE NORTH"

FRIDAY & SATURDAY, JUNE 23 - 24 * TWO FEATURES
ROY ROGERS - MARY HART in
"ROUGH RIDER'S ROUND UP"
There is plenty of action, fast riding and gun fighting, and a couple of bang up fist fights for good measure.
Also BOB HOPE - MARTHA RAYE in
"NEVER SAY DIE"

A clever comedy packed with enough laughs to amuse the most jaded temperament.

MONDAY & TUESDAY, JUNE 26 - 27
CAROLE LOMBARD - JAMES STEWART in
"MADE FOR EACH OTHER"

This is an exquisitely played, deeply moving comedy drama. It is a happy combination of young love, sharp clean cut humor and tear jerker of the first water. It leaves no sagging at the seams. Film is a bell-ringer. "Made for each other" has the potency of another "Stella Dallas" but with a better mixture of comedy plus the stellar strength of Carole Lombard and James Stewart. This cannot miss a top spot among the season's smash hits.

ADDED ATTRACTION
PICTURES OF THE KING & QUEEN'S TOUR

WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY, JUNE 28 - 29
EDWARD G. ROBINSON - WENDY BARRIE in
"I AM THE LAW"
