MIDDLETON REUNION

One of the biggest family reunions will be held in Claremont Park on July 1st and is widely known as the Middleton Clan Picnic which is expected to reach the 500 mark in attendance this year. In previous years it has been held in Orillia as most central but owing to Pickering township being the starting place of the first settlers which came from the British Isles some 150 years ago it was decided to hold same at Claremont for at least this year. Plans for sports are under way with prizes and anyone connected with the Middleton name needs no invitation but bring their basket and enjoy a good time.

Leave For West On Scientific Expedition

Three young men left Richmond Hill Wed, on a scientific faunal expedition to the west. Two of the boys live in this vicinity, Harris Horde, age 20, of Richmond Hill, is going along for the experience he can gain in scientific field work. Farley Mowat, 19; of Elgin Mills is the ornithologist of the expedition and plans to collect birds and live rattlesnakes for museums and zoos The third member of the party. Frank Banfield, 21, of Toronto, i a second year U. of T. student and is the mammalogist of the group. He plans to collect coyotes and other mammals. The party will travel by car and will go as far as Saskatchewan. Their field work will be done in a territory bounded by the border of North Dakota on the south and Montreal Lake on the north. Several canoe trips into the wilds of Saskatchewan have been planned.

When the party reaches Fort Car!ton, Frank Farley a noted western ornithologist will join the party for ten days. Murray Robb, another youth will meet the expedition at Prince Albert and will travel with them as a cook.

Included among the museums that have ordered specimens are the Cleveland Museum of Natural History, the Royal Ontario Museum and the Museum of the University of Michigan. The party plans to be gone about three months and will do most of their taxidermy on the field and will send them to the Universities by train.

On Thursday, June 1st friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mrs. J. Butcher to welcome the bride-to-be, Miss W. Harris, to a kitchen shower. The bride-to-be was taken to the home of Mrs. Butcher by her mother for a casual visit but great was her surprise when she got to the door and all started to sing "Here Comes the Bride". The dining room table looked lovely laid with a lace cloth, tall pink candles in silver holders, and the flowers were white iris and bleeding heart. Streamers of pink and white hung down to the clothes basket to hold the "shower of lovely gifts" for the bride-to-be. Lunch was served, songs were sung and all enjoyed a wonderful evening.
