

RICHVALE

The Women's Association held their regular meeting in the United Church, Spruce Ave., Richvale, on Wednesday, June 21st, with the president, Mrs. Farrants, in the chair. The meeting was opened in the usual way by singing together "Onward Christian Soldiers", prayer by Mrs. Hall, and the president. Before the business, Mrs. E. Durie of Carrville sang two solos, "The Man of Galilee" and "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer". Mrs. J. Koning was the pianist. After a short business session the guest speaker, Mrs. Morley Andrews of Aurora, Vice-President for the Centre District W.A., spoke, her subject being the practical side of women's work, showing us very clearly that women are really more practical than men. If there is anything special to be done a man will usually think it over before he starts, and very often he really never gets around to it, while a woman would say, well it has to be done, so I might as well start right now and get it done. Everyone present enjoyed the address very much. It was indeed practical, inspiring and encouraging. Mrs. E. Durie sang again in a very beautiful manner two more solos. After the meeting closed the committee in charge, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Calder, Mrs. Donaldson, Mrs. Allison and Mrs. James, served very dainty refreshments. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Baker on Wednesday, July 26th at 2.45 p.m. Sorry to report that Mrs. Leonard Baker has been, and is still very ill.

OBITUARY

J. W. HORSLEY

John Wesley Horsley, mayor of Meaford, dropped dead in his apartment home on Saturday night, June 17th. He had been in poor health for several months and recently had taken a trip down south for his health.

Mr. Horsley had one of the longest municipal careers of any man in Meaford. He had served as mayor on 13 occasions. He was born at Woodbridge, Ont., and came to Meaford in 1891. He was 67 years old. At no time in his eventful career had he occupied the mayor's chair for more than three consecutive years. He had never been defeated at the polls in his life.

In 1917 he sold his harness business after 26 successful years and became a motor agent.

He was one of Meaford's greatest sportsmen; he followed all lines of sport with interest, often took active parts in various clubs. At one time he owned some of the finest horses in the county.

He served as judge on the Con-scription Board in 1916, chairman of the High School Board, member of the Cemetery Board and president and manager of the Meaford Citizens' Band.

In 1908, his first year as mayor, he helped to establish the Seaman-Kent flooring factory, the largest industry the town ever had, and laid the corner stone of Meaford town hall.

It had been his intention to retire from public life at the end of the present year, for he had often said his health would not permit him to carry on.

Flags were flown at half-mast from the town hall, banks and post office.

Mayor Horsley was a member of Meaford United Church, Meaford Pythagoras Lodge, A.F. & A.M., No. 137, and the Oddfellows' Lodge. He was married 39 years ago to Miss Rita Agnew, who survives him, together with one brother, W. A. Horsley, Montreal, and two sisters, Mrs. W. K. Westlake and Mrs. J. H. Westlake, Bolton.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 p.m. from Meaford United Church to Lakeview Cemetery.

Also Mrs. A. Bailey of Spruce Ave. suffering from Arthritis. Mrs. Baker Sr. of Carville Road is also ill.

The Sunday School picnic will be held at Wilcox Lake on Wednesday, July 5th leaving the church about 1.30 p.m. Tea, sugar and milk will be provided free on the grounds. Bring your own basket and cup and saucer.

The matron of honour, Miss Marjory Hart, a sister of the bride, wore pink flowered marquisette over rose taffeta. The three bridesmaids, Miss Marion Dymond, a cousin of the bride, and two friends, Misses Marion Smith and Myrtle Avison, wore mauve flowered marquisette over mauve satin and carried nosegays of sweet peas.
