VICTORIA SQUARE NEWSY NOTES

Once more wedding bells are ringing in the Square. Eh, what Mart?
On Tuesday evening the Jr. W. I. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gee to hold their meeting. The motto "He is a wise man who does not grieve for the things he has not but rejoices for those which he has," was ably taken by Mrs. P. W. Willows in the form of a discussion. Mrs. Harry Barber gave a very interesting paper on "Preparation for the new career of wife and some secrets of success." A demonstration on different uses of bread was given by Mrs. Marcus Jarvis and the different dishes made were certainly appetizing. At the close of the meeting the boys joined the girls after making a tour of the mangel plots and all were served ice cream and cake by the committee in charge.
Master Bobby Haydon has returned to his home in Hamilton after spending the month of July with his cousins, John and Ike Williamson.
Mrs. Farquhar McLeod and her little daughter Sylvia are spending a week with their aunt, Mrs. Annie Mortson.
Misses Patsy and Beverley Watson are spending their vacation with their grandmother, Mrs. Byron Robertson.
We regret that Mr. Thos. Frisby is still ill and requires the attendance of a nurse.
Mrs. Fred Fiegel and little Marlene and her cousin, Mrs. Walter Ridley spent Wednesday in Uxbridge.
Mission Band will be held at the home of Miss Marion Boynton on Saturday afternoon at 2.30. All little folks are invited to be present.
The Young People's Union was held at the home of Miss Marion Smith last Sunday evening. A splendid attendance was noted.
We are glad to learn that Mr. Harold Henrick is on the road to recovery. He manages fairly well with his crutches and is a welcome figure at the different gatherings.
Miss Ruby Avison is recovering slowly but surely from her tonsil operation.

Rev. J. A. Macdonald and family returned from the north on Wednesday where they have been spending the last few weeks. We are glad to see them back again.
Mrs. Matilda Perkin has been confined to her bed the last few days with the flu.
A goodly number of young folk gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Snider Wednesday evening to present to Miss Verna De Montmorency and Martin Styromo, who are to be married shortly, a miscellaneous shower. A child's express wagon nicely decorated and laden with parcels was drawn before the honored guests by Miss Connie Rummy and Master Sammy Snider. This same wagon had to be refilled three times in order to dispose of all the parcels and each one contained something pretty and useful. When all were opened by them Mr. Styromo made a neat little speech of appreciation followed by an appropriate one by Miss De Montmorency. The crowd then sang "For They are Jolly Good Fellows." A dainty lunch was served by the ladies.
Mr. Roger Britnell was the guest of Miss Mable Sanderson at tea on Sunday evening.

NEW STOREKEEPER AT ELGIN MILLS

Mr. Joe Weber formerly of Toronto this week took over the general store business of W. H. Espey at Elgin Mills. Mr. Weber has on his shelves an excellent stock and invites the patronage of the people of the district.
EASILY SETELED
The farmer was in an unusually pensive mood, and his wife offered him a penny for his thoughts. "I was wondering, my dear," he said, "what epitaph I should put on your tombstone."
As his wife was in excellent health she naturally resented the undue thoughtfulness. "Oh, that's easy," she replied. "Simply put 'Wife of the Above!'"

TRY IT THE "SALADA" WAY

Infuse 6 heaping teaspoons of Salada Black Tea in a pint of fresh, boiling water. After 6 minutes strain liquid into 2-quart container; while hot, add 1 to 1½ cups of sugar and juice of 2 lemons, strained; stir until sugar is dissolved; fill container with cold water. Do not allow tea to cool before adding cold water or liquid will become cloudy. Serve with chipped ice. The above makes 7 tall glasses.
