HOW CAN I?

By Anne Ashley

Q.—How can I keep butter sweet for a long time, even in hot weather?

A.—Store in strong salt brine. The brine should be prepared in a stone jar. It should be strong enough to float a potato. Place the butter in this brine, cover the jar, and keep in a cool place.

Q.—How can I whiten a straw hat which is badly sunburned?

A.—Remove the band and fasten the hat to the inside of a wooden box. Then invert the box over a dish of burning sulphur.

Q.—How can I relieve the painful sting of mosquito bites?

A.—Bathe the parts with spirits of camphor or witch hazel.

Q.—How can I clean brass articles effectively?

A.—Mix one gill of paraffin oil, ½-gill of naphtha, and sufficient powdered tripoli to make a paste. Rub with this mixture, wipe off, and polish with a dry soft cloth.

Q.—How can I freshen stale biscuits?

A.—Brush the stale biscuits lightly with cold water, then place in the oven for a few minutes, and it will restore their freshness wonderfully.

Q.—How can I treat ivy or oak poisoning?

A.—A poultice of corn meal and hops, thoroughly soaked, is said to be an excellent remedy.

WEATHER

Weather forecasting from 600-year-old trees is an idea of the Argentine Agricultural Society. Annual concentric rings on tree trunks vary according to the year's rainfall. By examining the trees all over the country the authorities hope to get a line on the weather cycles of the past few hundred years, on which to base their forecasts for future cycles.

Black and White Show Feature of Markham Fair

Friday, October 6th To Be Holstein Day

The York County Holstein Club has completed arrangements with the Markham Agricultural Society to hold a special Holstein or "Black and White Show" on the Friday of Markham Fair, Oct. 6th when it is expected there will be 150 animals of this popular breed on exhibition, no other cattle being shown that day. The club directors are canvassing the breeders and this week an advance prize list was mailed to over 350 members of the Holstein Association in York County and Pickering Township, the latter being included in the York County show on account of their proximity to Markham.

All prizes, of which 167 are offered, are of the same amount, $3.00, so that no exhibitor with a strong show herd can carry off a lion's share of the $501.00 offered. The expense is the same for a sixth or eighth prize animal as for a first or second and the winners get the satisfaction of the popular colored ribbons. The idea was tried out at Port Perry and Rosemeath last year and proved so popular that over a dozen such fairs are being held this year.

With from six to eight prizes offered in each section, the exhibitors should all have a satisfactory day and at the same time, profit from putting their cattle in the Holstein show window of York County. Incidentally, we hear Fieldman Joe Darlington sold twelve head for members to a Pennsylvania buyer last week at satisfactory rates.

As a safeguard to exhibitors and assist in possible sales, only animals from herds negative to a federal blood test for Bang's Disease and 'Abortion are eligible and the barns are being cleaned and disinfected under the supervision of the Federal Health of Animals Branch. The Holstein Club of which Geo. W. Henry, Todmorden, is President and E. F. Ramsay, Sharon, Secretary, urges all breeders to get in touch with the nearest director of the club or apply to W. M. Cockburn Agricultural Representative, Newmarket, for a prize list and entry forms. All entries must be in a week before the Fair as the Club is publishing a catalogue of entries for the information of the spectators.

These many new features coupled with a strong entry promise to make a most profitable day for exhibitor, spectator and prospective buyer. Prof. Geo. E. Raithby of the Animal Husbandry staff of the O.A.C., one of our outstanding dairy judges, will make the awards and the prize money will be paid at the conclusion of the judging.

Don't find fault about business not being good, if you haven't taken steps to make it good by advertising what you have to sell.

The automobile drivers complain about too many traffic rules. This doesn't seem to trouble them greatly when no cops are in sight.

He—My dear, a bad egg is only known when it's broke.

PROSPERITY - TO HAVE AND TO HOLD

It sounds like a wedding, the taking of a bride, and it IS a grand wedding, this Union of Prosperity with Canadians, a Prosperity to have and to hold until death do us part.

There is an old saying that it takes money to make money, but there are a few angles which make it necessary to have more than just the coinage of the realm to multiply dollars.

In the West, God is on the side of the farmers; He has wiped out Seven Lean Years with one of the fattest crops in the history of the West.

Canada from coast to coast will be buying Entertainment. There is Prosperity in our midst and that symbolical horn of plenty will give every exhibitor his chance to "horn in" on profits, little and big in accordance with his particular capacity.

"Little Jack Horner sat in a corner, eating his Xmas pie, he stuck in his thumb and pulled out a plum, and said 'what a good boy am I.'" Such a plum may be another name for a prune. Plumb for Security—use your whole hand to beckon Prosperity; the Thumbing habit has developed a lot of bums.

The influx of European industrialists, few in number, but of that peculiar type which has money and enterprise, will build up in Canada those enterprises which they so successfully managed in their respective countries. Two hundred and thirty odd millions have come into Canada recently from other countries.

Talking of the West at St. Boniface, Manitoba, Swift's Canadian a few months ago opened up a new $2,500,000 plant, which means employment of over 500 men.

You have heard of all the excitement over tobacco crops, and incidentally that the Imperial Tobacco Co. has spent close to one and one-half millions of dollars on a tobacco plant and machinery at Cap de Madeleine, Quebec. Canada Breweries has spent $500,000 on its plant at Toronto.

The spread of money-spending does not appear to be conned to any particular province. Returning to our West, we find that the T. Eaton Co. has opened up a new $800,000 department store at Edmonton, and in the Turner Valley, Alberta, "oil, oil, oil" will make new millionaires.

The country is rived with oil. Imperial Oil has a new enterprise in its $1,780,000 combination unit for refining, with further expansion by this same company of Calgary and Regina enterprises for extending its Turner Valley oil market. In May, the British-American Oil Co.'s new $1,500,000 East Calgary refinery, employing 90 men and with a capacity of producing 5000 barrels of oil a day opened up. Economy Oils is also in this Turner Valley oil picture with a half-million dollar refinery built in Calgary. At Saint John, N.B., International Fertilizers has built an extension to its factory of $400,000.

Coming closer home, Steel of Canada will build at Hamilton a rolling strip mill which is estimated to cost anywhere from ten million dollars to twenty. It sounds like moving picture figures and this is only a fragmentary report of "spending programmes" already in the spending, and for which spending plans are in process; all of this should make exhibitors throughout Canada, and distributors, forget that there was a Depression, for we are to have Prosperity; let's talk about it and enjoy it for a change!—Canadian Moving Picture Digest.

REPARTEE

The two little colored boys had had a falling out, and were saying unkind things to and about each other, their kinfolks, their friends, anything that would leave a sting.

"An' look at yo' Mammy," added Sambo. "She takes in washin', don't she?"

"Sho she do," replied Hambone, defiantly. "You don't think she's lef' this out on de line lessen yo' Pappy wuz in jail, does you?"

Katherine Dawson: "I heard you gave a big dinner at your house Saturday."

Janet Campbell: "Yes. I served soup to nuts."

Kay: "Your relatives showed up, eh?"
