Markham Council
September Meeting

Harry Price, well known resident of Bayview Avenue in Markham Township appealed to Markham Council at the regular monthly meeting held Monday to keep that road open during the coming winter. Reeve Rennie gave assurance that the council hoped to make an improved showing in keeping roads open next winter. He suggested the possibility of procuring more snow fence where it is practical.

Well, and has summer gone? Certainly there has been a change in the weather but the exhibition has been blessed with fine weather, and large crowds have been attending. Quite a good representation from the Square has availed themselves of the opportunity of seeing the wonders presented there.

All the members and their friends are urged to attend. Strangers are particularly welcome.

School re-opens! To many people that means the beginning of a new life because public school days are behind forever and they are entering a larger school of experience. To them we extend our best wishes for success. And then many of our younger ones are entering a new life—beginning public school, and we know that a greater change takes place in the life of the small child who has always had the shelter of its own family circle than in the child who has graduated. In both cases a red letter day is the “Opening Day”.

Miss Bacon, teacher on the third concession, has returned and this year is residing at the home of Mrs. H. D. McCague.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCague congratulate them on the birth of another little daughter.

The Jr. Institute and Jr. Farmers united their forces on Tuesday evening at the meeting and Mr. James Rennie of our County Council addressed the young people. He gave them information regarding affairs of the council in which everyone present could not help being interested. Mr. George Wellman delighted his audience with a guitar solo which was followed with lunch. The gathering enjoyed a dance before leaving for home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Forester and family motored to St. Thomas recently to visit the former's sister, Mrs. Carl Shaw and Mr. Shaw. On their way home they came by way of Niagara Falls.

Misses Bessie and Mable Hagerman have returned to their schools in Toronto and Port Hope, respectively.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goforth of Scarborough were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bennett on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Farquharson and family joined Mr. Farquharson and Donalda in Iowa to spend a week's holidays. Mr. Farquharson has been preaching there since July.
