Victoria Square

A surprise party took place recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Styromo when the milk producers from Headford, Dollar and German Mills met to wish them well in their new life together. After a short time spent in games, all gathered in the living room and Mrs. J. C. Russell read the address and Mr. Robert Giles presented Mr. and Mrs. Styromo with an electric floor lamp. Mr. Phillip Delf also made a presentation of a beautiful silver casserole from Dr. F. F. Tisdell, Fremar farm and Mr. Gordon Leitch of Leitchcroft. Completely taken by surprise Mr. and Mrs. Styromo replied in a few well chosen words. After singing "For he's a jolly good fellow" refreshments were served when all returned home after an enjoyable evening spent together. Mrs. Martin Styromo was formerly Miss Verna De Montmorency of Markham.

The address read to the honored guests was as follows:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Styromo:
 Your friends along the route have followed with a cordial interest this all important event in your lives. They wish to add best wishes to the many you have already received. We cannot by any means promise you a journey along the matrimonial highway without any obstacles but we wish for you a goodly number of joys along with the sorrows. We pray that your efforts may be crowned with success. We hope that our gift shall shed a warm light in your home for many years. May it convey to you our heartiest good wishes for a long and happy married life.

Phillip Delf,
 Robert Giles,
 J. C. Russell.

Well, autumn seems to be preparing us slowly but surely for the colder season. Here's hoping he delays his coming as long as possible.

Ladies! Kindly bear in mind this date, Sept. 18th, the evening of the meeting of the Woman's Association which will be held in the basement of the church at 8 o'clock E.S.T. Mrs. Meek and her group are in charge and an interesting and helpful meeting is promised. Then, another important date! Sept. 29, one of those suppers for which our W.A. is famous will be served. A good programme which will be presented in more detail later will be presented later in the evening. Come, everybody!

Miss Bonnie Robertson held a miscellaneous shower at her home Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Beatrice Frisby who is being married on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Boynton and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pickering have returned home after attending the World's Fair in New York and visiting other cities and report a splendid time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Agar and Master Raymond took tea at the home of their aunt Mrs. Annie Mortson on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Baker and two daughters of Smith's Falls accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Macdonald spent a few days with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nichols last week.

Attention Jr. Farmers and members of the Jr. Institute. There will be a weiner roast on the twentieth of Sept., Wednesday evening. Stouffville Society will be present and a full attendance is urged.

We are glad to see Mrs. McRoberts out again after being confined to her bed with a very bad attack of lumbago.

Mr. Thos. Frisby's condition is still unchanged. He is still very seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Stoutenburgh are away on their vacation but business is still carried on in his absence by Mr. Jacob Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dennis and their friends Mrs. Arthur Clark and her brother, were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dennis.

Misses Elaine and Irene Beatty and Mr. Trussell motored to Capreol to visit Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Beatty over the week-end. On their way up they stopped in to see the Dionne Quintuplets.

Jones—There isn't a decent shop in this place. I have been into every one and couldn't get what I wanted.

Smith—Well, what did you want?
Jones—Credit.

Thornhill District News

Although the history of the Thornhill United Church is comparatively young, its predecessor, the Thornhill Methodist Church, has history that dates back to 1803, when regular preaching services were held at the home of Mr. Benjamin Hoshel, one and one quarter miles east of Langstaff. In 1811 a frame school house and church was erected at Langstaff on private land and regular preaching services were held here until 1838.

On the 25th day of February, 1837, Mrs. Elizabeth Lyon deeded part of Lot 33, concession one, Markham to trustees of the Canadian Wesleyan Church to be used as a site for a church and the remainder of the property as a burying ground. A few years ago one could see a few grave stones, well marking the old burying ground, but with the passing of time they have been placed flat on the top of the graves, and the building of houses has hidden the tourists' view of the grounds.

The church on this property was opened for service in 1838 and was continued here until 1852. It was in this building, September 1839, that the Methodist Sunday School was organized, with Thomas Harris as Superintendent.

On March 1st, 1846, the British Wesleyan Church opened their new church but in 1847 they united with the Canadian Wesleyan Methodist Church and closed their church which they later sold to the Presbyterian Church of Canada who opened it in 1850 as an afternoon appointment from Richmond Hill and without any exterior alterations, it still serves as the Presbyterian place of worship.

In 1852 the trustees of the Methodist Church purchased a new site in Vaughan, the present church site, and moved the church from its site in Markham to its site in Vaughan. The board in the front gable of the church still carries the words:—"Wesleyan Methodist Church Erected 1852"

It is in this building that has seen numerous changes in its interior; that is to be held the one hundredth anniversary celebrations of the Sunday School on Sunday, September 17. Mr. Neil G. McDonald, the present Superintendent, heads a centennial committee which has arranged the following services: Morning worship at 11 a.m., Rev. W. E. Baker is the guest speaker. At 3 p.m. a Sunday School session with classes for young and old has been arranged and will be presided over by Rev. J. H. Oke. At 7.30 p.m. Rev. C. H. Dickinson will address the congregation. The first two speakers are former ministers of Thornhill church. Following the evening service there is to be a fire-side service and social gathering. All former members and friends are cordially invited to be present to renew old friends and worship once again in the church of their youth. All services are Daylight Saving Time.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Ball of Thornhill spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Brown of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Lambie and Mrs. D. Grubb of Toronto visited Mr. and Mrs. Henderson on Monday evening.

Miss Jean Brillinger of Thornhill entertained a group of friends at her home on Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Joyce Foote of Thornhill who celebrated a birthday.

The Thornhill United Church Y.P.S. held their annual corn roast at the home of Miss Jean Hicks of Thornhill on Wednesday evening.

The opening meeting of the local branch of the Women's Institute will be held on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 21st at 2.30 at the home of Mrs. J. Pearson, Yonge St. Topic, "Home Economics" with Mrs. A. Brillinger, convener. Roll call will be answered by the payment of fees. Reports will be given on the District Convention held in June. Hostesses will be Mrs. G. Allison, Mrs. P. Bone, and Mrs. A. Brillinger. Women of the district are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wesley and baby Lucy of Sudbury paid a flying visit this week with Mr. and Mrs. Murdison and Mrs. J. W. Wesley.

The opening meeting of the Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church was held on Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. George Russell. The president, Mrs. Wesley, presided and Miss Morton took the devotional period. Plans were made for the autumn Thank-offering meeting to be held in the Sunday School room on Tuesday night, October 3rd.

The fourth annual Bland re-union was held at Kettleby on August 26. There were about 100 in attendance. Officers elected were: Hon. Pres., Wm. Bland; Pres., Gordon Bland; 1st Vice-Pres., Wm. Geer; Sec.-Treas., Miss Reva Natress.

KLEINBURG

A large gathering of neighbours and friends attended the party in Kleinburg Hall on Wednesday evening to honour Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dooks, newly-weds. The evening was spent in dancing with music being supplied by Miss M. Watson, Trainor Brothers and Mr. J. O'Neil, with Mr. C. Trainor as floor manager. The young couple were called to the platform and Scott Smeltzer and Lyman Copithorn, on behalf of the charivari party, presented them with a davenport. Bob Watson read the following address:

Dear Ada and Harold:—

It is with great pleasure that we are gathered here tonight to extend to you our best wishes. Your co-operation in our community life has always been greatly appreciated. You have been always willing to lend a hand for any project and that assistance has proven invaluable. Since you have not left our midst we know that your interest and help will continue. You may not have realized that your kindly interest and aid has been an inspiration to others too, in conducting our community activities.

On behalf of all your friends we ask you to accept this gift. May it recall to you all our best wishes for your future success and happiness in your new home.

Harold thanked them in a few well chosen words.

CARRVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. D. Middleton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Barton, David and John attended the Parker-Martin wedding at Uxbridge last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bone and Miss Alexander visited at Allandale Saturday afternoon.

We are sorry to report that Mr. Dave Hyslop is back in the hospital and had to undergo another operation. We hope he will soon be home again.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Reaman and family also to Mr. Denby on the sudden death of Mrs. Denby.

Mr. Walter Baker has returned to his home at Hazenmore, Sask. after spending his holidays with his uncle Mr. W. Reaman.

Maple News

Mr. and Mrs. J. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. George Manning and family spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Manning of Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gaste of Milton, Mrs. Campbell and Miss Clark of Toronto spent the week-end with Mr. Hiram Keffer.

Miss Beatrice Mathewson left on Friday for two weeks vacation to White Plains, New Jersey, and New York World's Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crook spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer, Deseronto.

Mrs. Herbert Jackson entertained a number of young ladies at tea on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Jean Robinson who leaves next week to take a nursing course in the Western Hospital, Toronto.

Footo-McCrimmon

A quiet wedding was held at the Maple United Parsonage on Monday evening, September 11, when Kathleen Isabel, daughter of Rev. J. A. and Mrs. McCrimmon became the bride of Richard Leslie Foote of the 48th Highlanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Foote of Oshawa. The bride's father officiated. The couple were unattended and the bride was gown in Teal blue chiffon velvet, ankle length, with corsage of roses, and for travelling wore a wine coat with black accessories.

The church service and Sunday School in Zion Lutheran Church will meet on Sunday in the afternoon at the usual hours.

BUTTONVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. James Walker received a telegram from Ontario, California, conveying the sad news of the sudden death on Sept. 8th of James Herman Walker at the age of 52 years. Herman was born at Buttonville going west with his parents in 1907. He is survived by his wife and one son in California, a brother Ralph and his aged father in Meota, Sask.
