WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

The regular meeting of the W. M. S. of Central United Church, Unionville, was held Thursday afternoon, Sept. 14th at the home of the president, Mrs. Wm. Young. There was a good attendance of members, visitors from the surrounding neighborhood, the District President, Mrs. Patterson and her friend Miss Patterson, both from Agincourt.

Plans were made for the October 12th Thankoffering meeting where Miss McDougal will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Reesor and Mrs. Russell are to take charge of refreshments.

A short devotional period was conducted by Mrs. Milner. In her address the District President, Mrs. Patterson, gave a practical and helpful talk on Christian Stewardship, stressing the "Stewardship of Self". She also presented a budget for small auxiliaries as an aid to raising the allocation.

Mrs. Russell introduced the new study book, "Moving Millions", and presented the first chapter in a very interesting manner.

Harvest Home Services were celebrated at St. Phillip's Anglican Church on Sunday last with well attended morning and evening services. The chancel, appropriately decorated with colorful fall flowers made an ideal setting for the highly inspirational service. Rev. Dunford brought the message at the morning service at which Holy Communion was dispensed. In the evening Rev. McCallum of York Mills Anglican Church was in charge. The choir, with Mrs. R. B. Rae and Miss Erma Court, soloists, and under the direction of Miss Ila Weighill, A.T. C.M., gave especially fine musical selections including the anthems "Come into His Courts" and "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord". Mrs. Rae sang "How lovely are thy dwellings", at the evening service.

Rev. Herman is the resident pastor and the decorating of the church was in charge of the young women.

The annual Men's Service held at Central United Church Sunday evening was of special interest when the entire service was conducted under the supervision of the Men's Association. An orchestra including John Miller, Robt. Stiver, B. Dyke and Mr. Miller of Whitevale, with Robt. Thompson organist and John Coulson, pianist, assisted in the hymns. The Ensign Male Quartette of Toronto rendered several inspiring selections and Mr. T. G. Gold of Uxbridge, who for the past 32 years has conducted the Business Men's Bible Class in Uxbridge gave a splendid address on the topic "What do I owe to Christ?" and made a personal appeal for deeper consecrated lives in the service of the Master.

Mr. Bert Weatherill was chairman of the evening and Rev. A. E. Owen also assisted in the service.

The annual Church Anniversary will be held in October and elaborate preparations are being made for the week's celebration.

Harvest Home Services in Bethesda Lutheran Church are announced for next Sunday with services at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. The pastor, Rev. Huenergard, will officiate and special music will be given by the Sherwood choir and Miss Burtly, soloist, of Toronto. A cordial invitation is extended to attend these services.

Special attention is asked in regard to the change of date of Red Cross Tag Day which previously was announced for Sept. 29. A decision to make this day a National Tag Day, the date November 24th is being arranged for with a special house to house canvass commencing on November 13th. Watch for further information and lend co-operation to make the day successful.

A visitor welcomed by many old time friends in this vicinity was Mrs. Fred Mason, formerly Miss Blanche Dunne, daughter of the late John Dunne, an old time resident of Unionville. Mrs. Mason now resides in California.

Mr. Thos. Berry of Toronto is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. Harrington.

We are pleased to report Mr. Jack Watson making favorable convalescence following the serious arm accident of some weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hendershot and family visited Mrs. F. B roadway last week.

Unionville friends regret sincerely the death of Mr. Preston of Scarborough Junction, who was accidentally killed by a hit and run driver on Saturday evening last on his way home from a nearby grocery store. The body, hurled into a nearby ditch was not discovered for fully three hours. Penalty for such a crime should be the last degree in severity.

Miss McLean of Toronto was the guest of Mrs. G. C. Murphy on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Russell and children were guests over the weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Gray at Severn River.

Large Crowds At All Services of Century Old Sunday School

Many Former Members Return

Sunday, September 17, 1939 will be a day long remembered by the scholars of the Sunday School of Thornhill United Church, for it was the day marking its one hundredth birthday. Large crowds attended all services and many of the former members returned to renew old friendships.

In the morning Rev. W. E. Baker, pastor in 1932-33, was the guest speaker, while in the afternoon, at a special session of the Sunday School, Rev. J. H. Oke, who was pastor in 1912-1916, gave a very inspiring address to both old and young. Former superintendents who were able to be present also spoke at this service. They included Mr. Albert Stout; Mr. J. Edward Francis, who told the present members of the changes in the interior of the church since he first attended Thornhill Sunday School; Mr. M. James Johnson, who related some experiences of his fifty-three years of Sunday School work, both as Superintendent and teacher; and Mr. A. W. Galbraith, who brought greetings from the Sunday School at Newtonbrook.

Probably the most largely attended service was at 7.30 in the evening. Rev. C. H. Dickinson, Book Steward of the United Church Publishing House, who chose as his subject "Growing Up", was the guest speaker. The choir, under the direction of Mr. Floyd Davies, provided special music at both the morning and evening services.

Many stories of earlier days in Thornhill, particularly of childhood in Sunday School, were heard at the Fireside Service which followed the evening church service. Here friend renewed acquaintances with friends and formed new friends, and enjoyed the singing of old familiar hymns. Miss Gladys Webster and Mr. John Arnott favored the large crowd in attendance with several vocal solos. Among those who spoke at this very informal gathering were Rev. E. B. Cooke, Mr. Neil G. McDonald, who told of Sunday School life since its organization in 1839 until the present time, Mr. F. Carman, Mrs. Ed. Gallanough, Ex-Controller George Ramsden, all of whom are former members, and Mr. N. L. Morton.

Some of the former members who returned are Mrs. R. W. Eaton, Mrs. James Somers, Mr. Wm. Carman, Mrs. Ada Reid Knox, Misses L. and B. Chapman, Mrs. S. E. Anglin, Mr. Wm. Webster, Dr. G. Wiley Carlton, Mary M. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. E. Bell, Mrs. Eleanor Wilson Burbridge, Mrs. Ida Wisner, Mrs. Clara Lowery, Mrs. Les. Valliere, Rev. and Mrs. B. R. Strangways, Rev. and Mrs. E. T. Douglas, Herb and Geo. Luesby, Mr. and Mrs. R. McIntosh, Mr. and Mrs. E. Caseley, Frank Kendall, and many others.

Mr. Neil G. McDonald, the Superintendent, and his staff of teachers and officers are to be congratulated on the success of the affair and every good wish goes to them as the Sunday School starts out on its second century of Christian teachings in this little village.

KAISER STILL BIGGEST LANDOWNER

Strangely enough, the largest German landowner at the outbreak of this war is Wilhelm of Doorn, the man who was Kaiser of Germany when the other war started in 1914.

Wilhelm owns 97,043 acres of land in the Reich. He has been receiving income from these estates during his exile in The Netherlands. As an absentee landlord, the former All Highest has been getting along pretty comfortably. There was a time when he was dispossessed temporarily, but he was given back certain rights of property.

There are 16 great estates in Germany which own about 1,300,000 acres of land. About 900,000 of these acres are in forest and woodlands.

After the German revolution in 1918 there was a move to break up some of the Junkers estates, but these people in Prussia resisted the plan and they succeeded in carrying their point.

And, it is these same persons who are vitally anxious to see Germany rule the world, even if it means the sacrifice of millions of German and other lives to gain their point.

When a man loses all faith in God, he is a wolf with a man's mind. When he gains power, the weak can expect no mercy.

BROWN'S CORNERS

The September W.M.S. meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Norman Reid. Mrs. Douglas Hood had charge of the meeting and conducted the devotional period. Mrs. Stiver gave two very interesting readings describing the work on The Home Mission Field and also the work of Miss McHarries in India with the Baby Band.

Plans were made for Thankoffering meeting in October.

A very cordial welcome was extended to a new member in the community, namely, Mrs. Walter Craig. There was a splendid attendance and plans were made for the autumn work.
