DOUBLE VOTES BEGIN SATURDAY CONTINUE TILL CLOSE OF CONTEST

Both Store Coupons And Subscription Votes Will Be Doubled For Final Week — Many Contestants Still In Position To Win First Prize — Plenty Of Activity Is Evidenced

This week shows many changes in the vote standing and big increases in totals by the leading contestants. The public are now becoming more active in supporting their favourite contestants and securing for them vote credits by cash purchases in the stores as well as payment of subscriptions.

With the increased vote schedules as announced for the final week, it would be quite possible for the contestants who are now down near the bottom of the list to jump into a leading position. This develops a keen rivalry which, no doubt, will continue till the closing hours of the contest.

Weekly Prize Winners

Chester Unger and Charles Harding won last week's special prizes. The same prizes will be given again this week, but all coupons must be deposited at The Liberal Office not later than 9 p.m. Saturday evening.

This will be the last special weekly prize.

Subscribers are once more reminded that subscription payments

WEDDING

ARMSTRONG-GRAHAM

Riverdale United Church Parsonage, Toronto, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding when Emma Graham of Toronto became the bride of Robert Bruce Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Armstrong, formerly of Richmond Hill, Rev. G. E. Coulter officiating. The bride was becomingly gowned in crushed strawberry wool faille with black accessories and wore a corsage of Talisman roses. She was attended by her sister, June Graham, attired in navy sheer with black accessories and wore a corsage of roses. Jack Craig acted as groomsmen. The happy couple left on a trip to southern points. On their return they will reside in Toronto.

JEFFREY FAMILY RE-UNION

A few of the descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Jeffrey of Vaughan Township who migrated from Scotland about the year 1820 held a re-union at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Sloan, Aurora, recently. A very pleasing time was spent in old time reminiscences and friendships. Those who attended were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. M. Stiles, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Glass, Aurora; Mrs. J. McInnis, Mr. and Mrs. P. McMillan, Lucknow; Mrs. J. Ferguson, Aurora; Mr. and Mrs. Lawson, King; Mrs. R. Lloyd and Miss Lloyd, Toronto, and Mr. P. McMillan, Jr., Lucknow. The next re-union will be held at Lucknow in May 1940.

TO TELL OF EXPERIENCES ABOARD THE ATHENIA

The Richmond Hill Red Cross is pleased to announce that Mrs. William Sayers has kindly consented to give a five minute talk on her experience aboard the Athenia, at the nine o'clock showing of the Royal Tour Photos at the High School Saturday night. Everyone will wish to hear this dramatic story as related by a citizen of our village.

OBITUARY

LATE G. H. GLENN

Richmond Hill lost one of its most popular business men and the community one of its most highly esteemed citizens in the passing last Friday, October 6th of George H. Glenn who for the past twenty-two years has been a resident of the village. Born at Listowell, Ontario he was a graduate of the Toronto School of Pharmacy and as proprietor of the Glenn Drug Store here was widely known throughout the entire district and highly regarded by all who knew him. He was ill for a time during the summer but had recovered and was able to be at business until he was again stricken with a heart attack about a week before his passing. He will be greatly missed from the business section and by a wide circle of friends who deeply mourn his death and join with this paper in extending sincerest sympathy to the bereaved family.

The funeral was held from the family residence, Centre Street Monday afternoon and the large attendance of friends and the many beautiful floral tributes were evidence of the regret occasioned by his passing and the sympathy of the community for the members of his family. The service was conducted by Rev. C. W. Follett of Richmond Hill United Church assisted by Rev. A. F. Binnington of Caledon East. Interment took place in Richmond Hill cemetery, the pall bearers being G. Moodie, P. C. Hill, F. Schisler, A. E. Glass, J. R. Herrington, and A. G. Savage. Members of the bereaved family include his wife Mrs. Catherine Glenn and three sons Jack, Bill and Don.

LATE JAMES BELL

James Bell, one of Vaughan Township's oldest and most highly respected citizens passed away at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, on Sunday, October 1st in his 87th year. Mr. Bell was born in Scotland and came to Canada with his parents when three years of age, living in Vaughan Township practically ever since. He was a staunch Liberal in politics, a member of Woodbridge Presbyterian Church, and a good friend and neighbor to all who knew him. He enjoyed exceptionally good health until about a year ago. Surviving are his widow, formerly Margaret Gibson, one daughter Lillie and one son Gordon at home, two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Lawrie at Elders Mills, Mrs. C. Beaton, Agincourt, and one brother Thomas of Vancouver.

The funeral was held from his late residence on Wednesday afternoon. Rev. J. S. Roe officiated. Pallbearers were all nephews of deceased. Interment followed in St. Paul's Cemetery, Vaughan Township.

UNITED CHURCH Y.P.S.

Monday evening, Oct. 16th Young People's Unions of the Toronto suburban area will meet in Richmond Hill United Church in a joint rally. The speaker will be Quentin, recently returned from China. His subject will be "Seeing Buddhism". All are cordially invited.
