THORNHILL UNITED CHURCH AUTUMN WEDDING SCENE Doris Farr and John Hart Pledge Troth Before Rev. E. B. Cooke

A pretty autumn wedding had its setting in Thornhill United Church on Saturday evening when Doris May, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Farr, of Thornhill, became the bride of Mr. John T. Hart, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hart of Richmond Hill.

Roses, gladioli, palms and ferns were used to decorate the church, while tall flickering tapers cast a soft glow over the bridal party as they pledged their vows before Rev. E. B. Cooke. Mr. S. Floyd Davies, church organist, played the wedding music.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, wore a gown of sapphire blue chiffon velvet, fashioned in the new draped bustle-back style. The bodice was made with a sweetheart neckline and short puff sleeves. Her halo hat was of the same material as her gown, and her matching veil of tulle was shoulder length. Silver slippers and white gloves completed her costume and she carried a formal arrangement of Rapture roses and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Gilbert Jack was matron of honor for her sister. Her gown was made the same as that of the bride's in ruby wine chiffon velvet. Her matching turban was of the same material with long streamers at the back. She carried an arm bouquet of Token roses.

Little Miss Patsy May Yuronis, the bride's niece, made a pretty little flower girl in her floor length frock of pink net with a pink ribbon in her hair. She carried a nosegay of roses.

Mr. Reynold Brown was best man and the ushers were Mr. LeRoy Farr, brother of the bride, and Mr. Robert Hillaby.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Centre St. Here Mrs. Farr received her guests in a gown of navy blue crepe, relieved with powder blue, and a small navy blue hat of felt. She wore a corsage of Briarcliff roses. Miss Daisy Hart, sister of the groom, who assisted, chose leaf green crepe with matching felt hat. Her corsage was of Talisman roses.

Later the happy couple left by motor for points in Eastern Ontario. For travelling the bride wore a wool crepe dress of fir tree green, with beige coat, black shoes, hat and bag. On their return they will take up residence in Richmond Hill.

Anniversary services will be held in the United Church on Sunday, October 22nd at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. The guest speaker will be Rev. J. W. McIntosh, M.A., B.D., at 11 a.m. and Rev. R. J. D. Simpson, D.D., at 7 p.m. Special music will be given by the choir.
