The Hallowe'en Frolic
Friday, Oct. 27th

Come lads and lassies
Both old and young
Come to the High School
And see the fun.
Cats and owls and witches and ghosts
And queer creepy horrors
But honestly folks—
You can find out your fortune,
Or play chancey games
Drink brand new cider
Or dance with the dames.
You can buy week-end cookies
Or if you're born lucky,
You'll maybe go home
With a turkey or duckie.
So come right along
And laugh with us all,
Bring your smile and your guesser
And keep them on call,
Because without doubt,
I'm telling you, folks
You'll certainly enjoy
This night of big jokes.
