

TESTON

Pheasant shooting was the sport for hunters on Friday and Saturday, October 20th and 21st and the nimrods were all out fully armed and truly it was a mechanized war on the birds. Oh yes, and thereby hangs a tale for the wily and elusive pheasants often escaped and hid from their pursuers. However many were successful in bagging their number and will feast on their game while the losers will have to be content with ordinary fare until Saturday, October 28th when hostilities will be renewed.

And now get out your notebooks and when jotting down dates just don't forget to reserve Sunday, November 12th when Teston United Church will hold its anniversary services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Rev. J. C. Bailey of Kleinburg will be guest speaker at both services. In the morning the local choir will be assisted by Maple quartette and in the evening the choir of Wesley United Church will lead the service of song. Then on Wednesday, November 15th the Fowl Supper will be served from 5 to 8 after which the entertainment by King players will be held in the Community Hall, Maple, the same as last year. So govern yourselves accordingly and attend this supper. There will be further poster notice.

Last Sunday Rev. A. F. Bamford of Birch Cliff had charge of the morning service as Rev. D. Davis the pastor was preaching the anniversary services in the Birch Cliff church which was celebrating its 21st anniversary.

Music and literary night was in charge of Jean Robson Sunday evening last. The topic for the evening was "Strength for Climbing", and was taken by Mr. C. Robson. Other items on the program were a poem, "Wishing", and a reading, "Pleasure and Happiness", and were ably given by the convener, Miss Robson. Now that the season for Y.P.U. activities has commenced it is up to the members to come out and make the meetings a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Julian of Vellore were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Kerr Sunday evening.

Mrs. Beard, Alliston, visited at Frank Piercey's last week returning home Sunday.

Mr. Ben Hollingshead, Hamilton, is paying a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Taggart.

Miss Smith, Toronto, visited with her friend Miss Hazel Carson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson, Beth and Billy and other friends motored to Peterborough Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ireland have moved from Brampton and will take up residence here.

NEWTONBROOK

Large congregations attended both services last Sunday at the 99th anniversary of Newtonbrook United Church. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with yellow chrysanthemums. Rev. Ernest Harston of Yonge St. United Church conducted the morning service and brought a timely and encouraging message and stressed the need of each church member taking their share of responsibility in the church where they are identified as a member. Christ gave His life. What are you giving in time and talents to your church? At the evening service Rev. H. J. MacKay of Toronto spoke on the "Romance of Religion" and gave a very inspiring and helpful message. He congratulated the congregation on reaching the 99th milestone of their church's history. No one can estimate the good work that has been accomplished throughout the years. It is a challenge for the younger generation to take up the work that others have laid down and with God's help greater work can be accomplished. The choir under the leadership of Miss Bertha Smith rendered special music for the occasion and are to be highly commended on their efforts. Miss Helen Bruce sang two solos very acceptably and a trio composed of Miss Helen Tranter, Mrs. Harold Moore and Mr. Jack Duggan sang at the evening service.

On Tuesday evening the Woman's Association served a hot dinner and was largely attended, a number coming up from the city for the occasion among whom was Mr. Charles Lee who was baptized in Newtonbrook Methodist Church 82 years ago. He hopes to attend the centenary next year. The entertainment which followed was exceptionally fine. Miss Betty Bone, elocutionist was heartily encored each time. Mr. W. C. Robinson, baritone was well received, also Miss Davis, pianist. Joe Pach and his two sisters Barbara and Helen, dressed in elaborate Czecho-Slovakian costume received hearty applause each time they appeared. Joe is only 11 years old but is an outstanding violinist and the winner of seven gold medals. Among his numbers were "Ava Maria" and "Berceuse". His sisters play the mandolin and piano. A very hearty vote of thanks was extended to the artists of the evening for their excellent entertainment.

The marriage of Diana Jean, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mowat of John St., Thornhill, took place last Saturday evening at Newtonbrook United Church Parsonage to William Edward, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Chard of Watson Drive, Islington. Rev. A. H. Halbert performed the ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a grey suit with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses and fern. She was attended by Vera Chard, sister of the groom who wore a grey suit with wine accessories and wore a corsage of Talisman roses and fern. Donald Mowat, brother of the bride was best man.

VICTORIA SQUARE FOWL SUPPER NOVEMBER 8TH
Victoria Square's annual Fowl Supper will be held Wednesday evening, November 8th. Reserve the date now.

Big business doesn't get big for the fun of it. The little fellow can't spend millions developing a product before going after profits.

The ignorant and lazy don't deserve wealth, but what of it? Are you content with bad health because you didn't deserve any better?

It is well that people can't read our minds. So many kind and generous acts represent duty done with a secret frown.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home. The young couple left later on a motor trip to western points and on their return will reside at Islington, Ont.

Miss Mary Carson of Maple was the guest last Sunday of her cousin Miss Irene Smith.

Rev. H. J. MacKay and Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Crowder and son Jerry of Toronto were guests at the parsonage last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Street of Richmond Hill and Miss Valliere of Toronto attended the anniversary at Newtonbrook United Church last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry MacDonald of Maple and Mrs. W. Neill of Richmond Hill were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Carson last Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Brumwell of Milliken and Mrs. Muirhead of Leaside entertained for Miss Jean Mowat last week at miscellaneous showers.

Miss Jessie Murray was special speaker at the Autumn Thank-Offering meeting of the Girls' Mission, Circle last week. She gave a most interesting illustrated address on the new study book, "Moving Millions". Miss Lorene Brown presided and Miss Helen Tranter conducted the service of thanksgiving.

LASKAY

Mrs. Elizabeth Keffer of Laskay celebrated her eighty-seventh birthday on October 13th, visiting with friends in Toronto. Mrs. Keffer is enjoying her usual good health, and busily engaged in a pastime of tating and quilt-making. She rises early, breakfasting with the Smeltzer family, and shows a lively interest in all about her. She has a radio and rarely misses the newscast and "weather report". When the late Mrs. Annie Hamilton was ill, Mrs. Keffer walked from Mr. Smeltzer's to visit her, no mean trip over grade and hill. There were no complaints after the climb up Laskay's big hill. She has the distinction of being the oldest member at the Keffer reunion two years ago. As a young bride, she came to the Jacob Keffer homestead at Sherwood, in Vaughan Township. She was formerly Elizabeth Scott, born at Bale's Lake, now Mary Lake, of King Township.

CONCORD

There were sixteen present at the October 11th meeting of the Concord Young People's Society. Following the devotional exercises Miss Mary Reaman had a very enjoyable program, the speaker being Miss D. Bentley on the subject "Thanksgiving". For the meeting on October 18th Miss Myrtle Baker was convener for the evening when Mrs. B. Witty was the speaker on a missionary topic. Mr. Witty is president of the Society and Miss May Evans the vice-president and the members are looking forward to a very enjoyable and beneficial season.
