

Unionville United Church Marks Sixtieth Anniversary

The sixtieth anniversary of the United Church, Unionville, was observed on Sunday, October 22nd and will be on the following Sunday, October 29. On October 22 Rev. N. A. McMurray, Danforth United Church, Toronto, conducted the morning service, when the dedication of the new addition was observed. In the evening Rev. C. E. Kenny, of Guelph, a former pastor, had charge of the service. Next Sunday, Rev. A. M. Dallas, chairman of the Toronto East Presbytery, will minister in the morning, and the Rev. R. N. Morton, Newcastle, in the evening. After the evening service, a fireside meeting will be held to which Rev. Frank Rae, Willowdale, a former pastor, has been invited. The church choir will conduct the musical part of these services and will be assisted by outside talent. On Monday, October 23 a rally of young people was held with the president of Toronto Conference Y.P. work addressing the meeting. A grand concert will be held the following Monday evening under the auspices of the church choir, when guest artists from outside points will assist in a varied program. On Wednesday evening, October 25th the new addition was used for the first time when a turkey supper was served, followed by a concert in the Township Hall.

on in the new church till union. The church then became the property of the continuing Presbyterians and was later sold to the Township for a municipal hall. Outstanding Presbyterian ministers who, as was the custom, remained for long periods, were Mr. MacIntosh, twenty years; Mr. Peter Duncan, nine years; Mr. Frank Rae, twenty years. The late Dr. Eckardt, father of Mrs. G. R. Whaley was closely connected with the Congregational church and largely responsible for the beautiful edifice now known as the Township Hall. Ministers of the Methodist church whose names are yet familiar to most of the older members were, Harris, Chapman, Rankin, Real, Follis, Stephenson, Walker, Lee, Powers, Waugh, Ferguson, Humphreys, Wilkinson, Eaton, MacKeracher, last followed by the present incumbent, Rev. A. E. Owen. Assistants were Fralick, Garbut, Bunner, Paul, Kenny and Morton. The presence of Mrs. R. A. Stiver (Ella Mustard), a prominent church worker in the Presbyterian and United churches will be sadly missed owing to her ill health. Mrs. G. R. Whaley (Hattie Eckardt) a devoted worker in all its unions will also be absent from the same cause. Rev. A. E. Owen has been indefatigable in his efforts in the planning and construction of the new addition, (much of the labor being voluntary) much needed in a church where youth training is regarded as of paramount importance.

A good program in Central United Church next Monday night at 8 o'clock under the auspices of the choir. Program will consist of musical numbers and readings by a very clever little girl.

The Wesleyan branch of Methodism was the first to establish a footing in the village in 1840 and constructed a frame building on a lot just north of where the public school now stands, which was vacated in 1884 at the time of union. Unfortunately, the history of the Wesleyan Methodists is obscure, there being no church records available, and there is no one in the village who can remember it. The names of some of the original families are, Loundsborough, Chant, Size, Eckardt and Crosby. The names Chant, Size and Eckardt are the only ones remaining in the locality. The late Rev. John Potts came to the Wesleyan church fresh from Ireland, and even at that early age distinguished himself as an outstanding preacher, later occupying prominent pulpits as pastor, among them the Metropolitan church, Toronto. Dr. Burns was another pastor who also distinguished himself in later years as a preacher.

The Presbyterian church which here entered union had its nucleus as an offspring from the church at Cashel and owed its existence largely to the efforts of Mrs. Mustard, mother of Mrs. R. A. Stiver. She was a member of Cashel Presbyterian church under the pastorate of Rev. Mr. MacIntosh. On the death of her husband Mrs. Mustard moved to Unionville and missed the communion of the church to which she was accustomed. Wishing her family educated in the Presbyterian faith, she arranged with her former pastor to conduct services at Unionville first in the manse and later in the Methodist church. When the congregational church was superceded by a more modern one the Presbyterians purchased it and worshipped there till the Congregationalists joined with them and carried

Plan to come to the euchre to be held in the basement of the Richvale school Monday, October 30th at 8 p.m. Proceeds in aid of the local Red Cross Branch. DO YOU KNOW HER?
Our neighbour, bright and cheery, Is known to local fame, For anyone in Langstaff Can tell the lady's name.
Just hand to her your teacup, Your fortune she will tell And whom you're going to marry, Perhaps his name she'll spell
A journey you are going, A letter you will get, Telling you of some news Of friends you can't forget.
If joys or worries beckon, She'll tell you just the same— And anyone around here Will know the lady's name.
Langstaff. N. Aston.
