TESTON

The Y.P.U. meeting on Sunday evening, October 29th, was in charge of Hadwen Kyle. There was not a very large attendance but those present enjoyed the meeting. After the opening exercises and the reading of Psalm 104 by Pete Rogers, the address of the evening was given by E. J. Hitchcock. The subjects dealt with were Prayer, Miracles and His Story. Before closing there was a contest, the meeting being divided into two groups and these were given time to answer a set of questions taken from the Bible. Louise Carson's group won out. The meeting closed with hymn 384 and the Mizpah benediction.

There was a good representation from Teston at the plowing match at Strange on Friday afternoon, October 27th.

Mr. Len Scott and little daughter Joan, Aurora, called on Mr. and Mrs. J. Kyle Sunday afternoon.

Keep in mind the anniversary dates November 12th and 15th.

Miss Helen Robson was the guest of her friend Miss R. Kyle Sunday. Drive carefully is a very good motto to follow as a party of motorists found out when driving to Nobleton to attend the evening dance party there last week. The car was stopped just in time to avoid going over into a twenty foot drop.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hollingshead, Woodbridge, were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Taggart.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. McCluskey of Toronto were Teston visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lightbody, Miss Drysdale and Mr. Kelly were guests of Frank Piercey Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilf Williamson, Master Donald and Mr. Ed. Bowen were visitors with Mr. Williamson's father at Newmarket.

DR. JESSIE McBEAN W. M. S. SPEAKER AT BROWN'S CORNERS UNITED CHURCH

The annual Thank-offering meeting was held at the Brown's Corners United Church on October 25th. The devotional period was taken by Mrs. Stiver followed in prayer by Mrs. Russell. Mrs. Norman Reid, secretary, gave a splendid account of the meeting of last year. Mrs. Clayton sang a very appropriate solo.

Dr. Jessie McBean of Agincourt was special speaker. She took as her scripture reading the 23rd Psalm. This was made most impressive by summing it up in four c's. Confidence in the Lord Contentment in the Heart Courage amidst Danger Completeness Here and Hereafter.

With this very splendid introduction she entered upon a subject which is dearest to her heart, China.

By means of a map this was made most interesting indicating China's ports previous to Japan's entry and destruction. Listeners were taken back to China of 1894 and the story of her size, resources and generally leading up to China becoming a Republic in 1928. She stressed particularly the courageous type of these people, daily more and more becoming refugees. A very vivid thought was brought in by her mention of as many refugees in China as the whole population of Canada. Dr. McBean has spent the greater part of her life with this people and realizes as few of us can what present conditions mean to China.

The ladies of W.M.S., Agincourt and Headford were guests at this meeting. Due to date of Unionville Turkey Dinner conflicting with this meeting the ladies from there were unable to attend.

Rev. Rumnev, the pastor, closed the meeting with prayer and then a social hour was spent.

Unionville

The death of John Snowball that occurred suddenly at his home here last Thursday removes one of Markham Township's pioneers. He was born on Con. 7, and along with his father, the late John Snowball Sr., they operated a brick and tile kiln, the only one in this part of the province at that time, and supplying brick to a large area. Mr. Snowball was in his 81st year, coming to Unionville seventeen years ago. He was a staunch Conservative and formerly Methodist, afterward United Church member, and was honoured by many friends for high integrity and sympathetic interest in all worthwhile events. His widow survives along with six sons, John, Arthur and Bert of Markham, Robt. of Stouffville, Harold and Ernest of Unionville; also three daughters, Mrs. R. Shank, Clarence Centre, N. Y.; Mrs. Albert Westland, Toronto; Mrs. Foster Wager, Stouffville. The six sons were pallbearers at the services held on Monday afternoon from his late residence, a large number of friends gathering at Central United Church to pay last respects to a good citizen and friend. Rev. A. E. Owen officiated. Interment was made in Elmwood Cemetery, Markham.

Central United special anniversary services continue following splendid inspirational meetings last Sunday. In the morning Rev. McMurray of Toronto brought a worth while message on efficient service. The choir, assisted by Mr. Walter Kerr, supplied the musical selections, with Mrs. W. J. Russell as leader, and Miss Marion Warne, organist. In the evening Rev. C. E. Kenny, formerly assistant pastor on the Unionville Circuit was the speaker. The local choir again supplied the music with Mrs. R. B. Rae, soloist.

Monday evening the Young People's rally brought representations from neighbouring societies. Nelson Hickson was in charge of the meeting. The singing was both by piano-organ combination in charge of Marion Warne and Evelyn Hurrell. "Shadows", a pleasing vocal duet, was rendered by Melville Young People and the message on the topic, "The Why of Young People's Organizations" was brought the meeting by Mr. Rapson, president of the Young People's Work of East Presbytery, who was introduced by Miss Elsie Spring of Milliken. Rev. A. E. Owen expressed pleasure in seeing so many present and also welcomed Mr. Rapson to the meeting.

The Turkey Supper scheduled for Wednesday was a decided success in spite of the unfavourable weather conditions. Five hundred hungry appetites were satisfied and enough food left for a splendid social the following evening. The showers prevented many from attending the entertainment in the Township Hall which was reported very pleasing.

Two splendid services on Sunday were largely attended. Rev. Dallas, president of Toronto East Presbytery, was the minister at the morning service. Appropriate musical selections by the choir and W. McClyment, soloist of Windsor, combined to make a most inspirational service. Rev. Mortson had charge of the evening service and was especially welcome as he had served at one time as student minister on this circuit. The choir, made up of members of former choirs, with former organists, Mrs. E. Stephenson, Mrs. G. R. Whaley, Mrs. E. E. Braithwaite and Mrs. E. Bewell leading, was a pleasing feature. A ladies' quartette, Mrs. A. K. Harrington, Mrs. W. J. Russell, Mrs. Margaret Reesor, and Mrs. R. B. Rae, solos by Chas. Stephenson, Port Hope, former choir member, and Mrs. R. B. Rae, were enjoyable musical features.

The fireside service at the conclusion of the evening service was a fitting climax for this busy day. Mrs. G. R. Whaley spoke historically of former days in Unionville and an honored visitor was Seneca Baker of Baker's Hill. Mr. Baker is 90 years old. An impressive item in connection with this service was the cutting of the birthday cake with 60 candles. Mrs. G. R. Whaley and Mrs. W. Noble having the honor. A fine musical program included selections by the old time male quartette, A. L. Brown, Harry Flummerfeldt, Archie Emmeringham and E. Stephenson, special solo selections by Mrs. Guthrie (Ruby Stephenson), Charles Stephenson, Mrs. G. A. M. Davison and Mrs. R. B. Rae. Reminiscing over a cup of coffee and birthday cake concluded the service.

The grand finale of the anniversary week was the choir concert on Monday night when a splendid musical program was presented, the following taking part: Mrs. A. K. Harrington, Mrs. W. J. Russell, Mrs. R. B. Rae, Misses Marion Warne and June Warne, Mrs. M. Reesor and Douglas Bilbrough, cornetist, also little Jean Pritchard as reader, gave some splendid additions to the program.

The 60th anniversary can come but once in a lifetime, whether it be to mortals or church organizations, and this anniversary of Central United Church will ever remain a cherished memory in the hearts of those who were privileged to attend the splendid services.

EDGELEY

On Monday evening of this week Mrs. Jas. Hoover kindly opened her home to friends and neighbours of Dr. Harvey and family, who are moving to Toronto. To say farewell was difficult and the occasion was used to extend every good wish to the family in their new place of residence. During the evening presentations of a floor lamp and matching table lamp were made.

The address was as follows: Dear Mrs. Harvey and family:—

We, your neighbours and friends are met here this evening with feelings of regret at bidding you adieu. It is some years now since you first came to our vicinity. You have become part of Edgeley and we realize very fully the loss your removal will be to us. We shall always remember your kindness and your interest and energy and appreciate your ability and willingness to serve in the Church Association and Institute as well as being a faithful friend to your neighbours. We very much regret your departure and trust in your new home in the city it will always be a pleasure to you to remember the days spent among us. As a reminder of our appreciation of your loyalty to the cause of all work which meant the betterment of the community, we ask you to accept these little gifts. We hope you and the Doctor and Bird will be long spared to enjoy our tokens of esteem. May kind providence follow you with rich blessings.

"To meet, to know, to love, to part, is the sad, sad fate of the human heart."
Signed: Mrs. Burdekin,
Lavina Hoover,
