

Victoria Square News

Remember Sunday, November 5th when we will have Rev. Sanderson of St. Cuthbert's Church as minister and Mr. Bob Turp of Aurora as baritone soloist for the day. The services will start at 2.30 p.m. and 7.30 p.m. Come and bring your friends.

We are glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Rumney home again after a nice holiday spent in Western Canada.

Miss June Collard had tea with Master Jimmy Boynton on Sunday evening.

The Mission Circle supper proved to be very appetizing to those who were present. Miss Hunt the speaker of the evening brought out some new thoughts of the work done in Japan, which was very interesting to listen to. Those who were not present missed a good supper, an educational talk and a social evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyndom Knappman and family spent Sunday with their aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sanderson.

Don't forget the fowl supper November 8th. There will be goose, chicken, potatoes, carrots, peas and gravy. All you can eat for first course and all the trimmings you can eat to follow. The price, oh yes we make a charge, but not as high as some fowl suppers we have heard of this season. So crank up the Lincoln, Buick or Ford, fill it up with folk, and come to the Victoria Square fowl supper on Wednesday night.

Congratulations to Messrs. Ian MacDonald and Boyd Mount who were successful in their assignments at the Fall Training School which has been held each Tuesday night for the last five weeks in Newmarket Trinity United Church.

The regular meeting of the J.W.I. and J.F.A. has been postponed from November 7th to November 14th owing to the ladies being busy preparing for the fowl supper.

Mrs. Millicent Avison favoured the ladies of the Melville W.A. with two beautifully rendered solos last Wednesday evening while Miss Mabel Sanderson gave the topic on 'Thanksgiving', this being the topic set aside by the association for the month of October.

Clayton School No. 12 have a paper all their own these days. Anyone wishing a copy may secure one for a small sum which the pupils in return intend to purchase a few carpenter tools to work with in their new basement.

The furnace at the church is sort of on the shelf so to speak these days. The hardware men are hoping to have it completed before Sunday.

Mr. Fred Feigel is busy these days with the help of Mr. Levi Heise, building a garage.

Congratulations to Mr. Harold Hendricks for securing enough votes to come in the money during the good-will contest. We are glad to have Harold able to come to our meetings even though he has to use the crutches. We are sure everyone will be pleased when he can lay them aside.

Mr. Arthur Buchanan is putting a cement floor in his little barn, also raising it up a foot which will be a great help when it comes chore time.

All one needs to do is to drive along the roads to see everyone is thinking of old Jack Frost. You see turnips being harvested, fall plowing done with the water furrows all ready for the rains, flower beds being cleaned up, leaves in piles and bon fires here and there. These all lead to fall weather, Hallowe'en included. Next thing we know it will be Christmas programs to work on instead of the fields and lawns.

Marjorie and Gordon Sanderson are both doing as well as can be expected following their operations.

We are pleased to hear Mrs. McKay is well enough to leave the hospital, but is spending a few days with friends in Toronto before coming home.

Those who go driving on the Elgin sideroad under the rain need to watch their step on those curved shoulders when turning out to meet some one. Thanks to the smiling H.E.P.C. truck driver that one car load were not delayed longer than they were. It might be a good thing to start carrying a chain or rope for a tow.

The concert at the fowl supper will be given by the Bethesda Concert Co. The main item will be a play entitled "The Last Rehearsal."

If there are any ladies in the community who would like to knit for the Red Cross work, if they would speak to any of the committee, namely Misses Gwen Smith, Mabel Sanderson or Mrs. Doug's Gee they will try and provide the yarn. The instructions sent out for knitting include socks, mitts and sleeveless sweaters.

Newsy Notes

Here we are again this week with our Newsy Notes of our school.

We were greatly honoured this week in having Mr. Partridge, the inspector of New Zealand schools, choose our school as one of the schools he will visit while in Canada. He enjoyed seeing our school, especially the castle and in return told us many interesting things. He had seen the King and Queen in England before they left for Canada. He told us of the Maoris who are the natives of New Zealand just as the Red Indians are the natives of Canada. He said that they are very intelligent people who are very fond of music, and are wonderful singers. Our inspector, Mr. Mooney accompanied him.

At school, as most of you know, we are starting a newspaper. We have already received advertisements and we thank those who have contributed very kindly. If you wish your advertisement put in our paper be sure to let one of the pupils know by November 10th. We will be delighted to have them in.

Owing to the changeable weather many of the children have colds, but we are trying to get rid of them as soon as possible.

Our little artist, Margaret Morton, is taking charge of the front page of our newspaper and is doing very nicely at it.

As cold weather is here we have been playing a game with lots of pep, it is jumping. Each one of us take turns in holding the ends of the pole, and then jump over it. We enjoy it very much.

Our school was closed on Friday, October 27th, because of Teachers' Convention in the Royal York Hotel, Toronto.

As Hallowe'en was a special day last month we thought we would like to learn a Hallowe'en song. Here it is:

In the moonlight glowing,
Jack-o-Lanterns sit,
Eric shadows throwing
As the moonbeams flit.
Ca's upon the fences
Howl their ditties too,
Witches on their broomsticks
Ride against the blue.

The regular meeting of the St. Mary's Anglican W.A. will be held at the home of Mrs. Donaldson Tuesday afternoon at 2.45 o'clock. Coppers from the cent-a-meal will be received.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baker spent Monday evening in Clarkson with Mr. Baker's sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Richards, whose companion, Mrs. Gable, passed away last Monday morning.

Mr. John Anning, Kettleby, visited last week with his son, Edgar Anning, Richmond Street. Mr. Anning is in his 86th year and although in failing health for the past two years just finished digging by hand his potato crop of fifty bags.

A meeting of the Presbyterian W.M.S. will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at the home of Mrs. Zuefelt, Yonge Street. Mrs. John D. Holman, sister of Mrs. Zuefelt, and secretary of the Young Women's Council will be the speaker of the afternoon.

The carnival spirit reigned supreme at the Hallowe'en Frolic held under the auspices of the Red Cross at the High School last Friday evening. The "Gym" was attractively decorated and the variety of costumes added color to the whole affair. Games, booths and novelties were generously patronized and the Red Cross treasury was enriched by $198.04 as a result of the undertaking. This very gratifying result was obtained through the generous co-operation of many who gave services and donations. The parade of costumes was picturesque and colorful and the judges, Mrs. S. C. Snively, president of Oak Ridges Red Cross and Mrs. McLaren, president of the Thornhill Red Cross made the following prize awards: Girls, Lola Sanders, Shirley Mylks and Nancy Donaldson; boys, James Mansbridge, Bruce Chamney and "Mac" Clement; lady's representative costume, Miss Anna Phipps; lady's comic, Mrs. K. Shields; gentleman's representative, Mr. Rand Phipps; gentleman's comic, Mr. Dean Wellman. Lucky number prize winners were Mr. Joe Morris and Dr. W. Mason and Tom McLeod. Ticket selling prizes were awarded to Dick Baker and Helen Ransom. Dancing to music by Max Boag's orchestra concluded a delightful and successful evening.

CORRECTION

In last week's issue reporting the presentation of prizes at the W.C. T.U. meeting to Tom McLeod and Lorna Baker we stated in error that both these pupils are students in Mr. Scott's room at the public school. We should have said "both pupils are in Mr. Caldwell's room".

Red Cross Notes

Will the holder of ticket 487 please communicate with Mrs. P. C. Hill and claim the fine chicken which was the third prize in the lucky ticket draw at the Hallowe'en frolic.

The Richmond Hill Red Cross Society desires to thank the many friends of the Society who, by money or personal service, so generously gave their support to the Hallowe'en Frolic. The Society also thanks the various organizations who kindly loaned their equipment for the project. Only by this united effort was such a successful evening made possible.

The Society is anxious to obtain the name of any boy in the Richmond Hill Red Cross area who is overseas, as Christmas boxes will be packed during this first two weeks of November.

The regular meeting of the Society will be held on Friday afternoon at 3 p.m. at Mrs. Plewman's home, North Yonge Street. Mrs. Plewman has generously opened her home for the meeting and will give a demonstration on the making of home-made bread and rolls. Afternoon tea will be served and a silver collection in aid of the Red Cross will be taken. All ladies interested in Red Cross work are invited. Cars will leave the Municipal Hall at 2.30 p.m.

POPPY SALES HELP VETERANS

Citizens are urged to generously respond to the annual appeal made through the sale of poppies. Receipts from the sale of poppies aid in War Veterans work.

Euchre and chinese checkers for non-bridge players. Many good prizes will be on display and winners make their selection. An unusually good time is assured. Admission 50 cents.

BADMINTON NOTES

The Badminton Club having been interrupted for two weeks by other activities in the gym, will be resumed on Thursday next, November 9th. There are projects to be undertaken and business matters to settle, so come early in order to have more games. New members will be made very welcome, and old members who have not yet come back to the fold are urged to tarry no longer.

VICTORIA SQUARE FOWL SUPPER NOVEMBER 8TH

The annual Victoria Square Fowl Supper will be held Wednesday, November 8th. This is an event awaited each year with anxious anticipation by hundreds throughout the district. Supper will be served from five to eight o'clock and after the supper there will be a fine program featured by the presentation by the Bethesda Concert Co. of Uxbridge of "The Last Rehearsal". This is a splendid play and is sure to prove enjoyable. Admission: Adults 50c., children 25c.

EXPRESS THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harding wish to express their thanks to their many friends and well-wishers for help in recent Liberal Good-Will Campaign, and extend congratulations to other prize winners.

The regular meeting of the Kleinburg Y.P.U. was held in the basement of the church on Monday evening with the president, Mr. N. Watson in the chair. Plans were made for a Hallowe'en Social after which Mrs. W. Benstead, the missionary convener, took charge of the meeting. The program opened by singing a hymn after which Mrs. Benstead read the scripture lesson, Mrs. G. Taylor then read the story "A Light in the Kitchen Window" which was followed by a solo by Alma Kerr, "Let Your Lower Lights Be Burning". Keith Wardlaw read a poem entitled "God is working His Purpose". Mrs. W. Benstead then read a splendid paper on "Canadians in Korea", which told of the work of the first missionaries and of their achievements to-day. A reading, "The Duties of Stewardship", was read by Miss Helen Campbell. An Intelligence Test contest brought the meeting to a close.
