BOWLING CLUB AN ASSET TO COMMUNITY

Editor, The Liberal,
 Sir:—

In reply to "Weary Taxpayer", may I first state that it is a well-known maxim that one gets out of life exactly what one puts into it.
 If one cannot adopt a tolerable attitude to situations that call for a remedy, the remedy lies only in the individual himself.

There is no doubt that weary taxpayer needs enlightening. First, the bowling club is not a collection of wealthy men, nor is it a money-making concern. The only aims of a bowling club are to provide some quiet and enjoyable recreation for a person of average means, as well as the value derived from associating one with another in competitive sport.

Next, may I point out that our neighbouring town to the north thinks so well of its bowling club and its service to the community that the club pays neither taxes, light nor water. Surely by no stretch of imagination are they giving the club these privileges if they were not assured that the cause was just and worthy.

Now I wonder honestly if the writer of the letter would be prepared to pay forty-two dollars and some cents taxes on a property with no frontage on any street. The bowling club has done a little research and we have found that our taxes, light and water are all away higher than any club north of Toronto. In fact, they are almost double what other clubs pay. Our club feels that some adjustment is only fair. The only alternative is that we cannot meet this high overhead and pass out of existence.

Finally I must say that the writer goes far afield to bring in the expenses of a lawsuit. I fail to see what that has to do with the bowling club situation. Most certainly I agree that there are two sides to every situation but why not try and go half way toward a reasonable attitude and solution.

Just-as-weary-a-bowler.

 ley of Toronto whose marriage will take place this week.

The one hundred and first anniversary of St. Stephens Church, Maple, will be observed with special services on Sunday, December 10th.
 Plans also are under way for a Candle-light and Communion service at St. Stephen's Christmas eve at 10.30 p.m.

CONCORD

The Concord Young People's Society met last Wednesday with Miss Myrtle Baker as program convenor and Mr. Cook of Thornhill as the guest speaker. His message was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated.
 Miss Mary Reaman was convenor of the previous meeting when a delightful program was enjoyed. The young people have enjoyable and profitable times at these regular meetings and they extend a cordial invitation to people of the community to join in them.

Two friends met in the street.
 One of them remarked on the dirty state of the other's hands.

"Why," he exclaimed, "your hands are covered in soot."

"That's because I was down at the station seeing my wife away," replied his friend.

"But how does that affect your hands?"

"Well, I patted the engine."
