For the past two weeks we have all been enjoying hot baked potatoes with our lunch. We bake them on top of the furnace, and we have a tempting odour in the school all morning as they are baking.

Barry gave an interesting talk on Fossils to the class one day this week. He illustrated his talk with coloured pictures.

We have been sliding on the ice down at the creek at noon hour and recess but the ice doesn't last very long on these lovely November days.

We are going to publish something a little different for a change. We are writing little stories about prominent people in the world today, "Why" questions are answered, and a puzzle which you are to guess, the answer being given the next week, and another article which we think may be of interest. Our first Why to be answered is:

WHY DOES MUSTARD BURN THE TONGUE?
By Mina Stickley

The mustard acts on the tongue or other sensitive parts as an irritant, causing the blood vessels in that part to swell up. If sufficient be applied this will form a blister. This is what happens in the case of a mustard plaster which is left on too long. A number of other substances besides mustard have the same effect, and some of them are employed by doctors as irritants.

THE MAID WHO LED AN ARMY
By Coral Perkins

There was once a maid who lived in the meadows tending sheep. This maid, often saw lovely visions of good and glorious beings who talked to her and helped her to do right. Her country had been conquered by the foreigner, and she mourned the fate of her dear native land. One day when she was musing in the fields it seemed to her that an angel called to her to arise and save her country. Now she was only a simple maid, yet she wanted to free her country and secure its freedom. She never thought of her own danger, she just wanted to free her country. She stuck so well to her ideal that the enemy could not do anything with her, till at last they burned her at the stake. Who was she? (Answer will be given next week.)

"HITLER"—THE MOST TALKED OF MAN OF THE DAY
By Barry Collard

Hitler was born in Austria in 1889 and became Chancellor of Germany in 1933. Hitler served in the Great World War at the front from 1914 to 1918. In 1923 he tried to overthrow the government in the Munich beer hall. It was the same place where the bombing took place a few weeks ago. The Jews were blamed for trying to hinder the government and so the Nazi party persecuted them.

Hitler, himself, is a slight man. He is a vegetarian and neither smokes nor drinks alcohol so they say. In his rise to power he was helped by his oratorical ability. At Hindenburg's death Hitler became President as well as Chancellor. The Germans call him Fuehrer which means leader.

Hitler is a cruel man who has plunged the world into awful war. We are sure of his downfall when he has aroused the anger of so many strong christian countries.

Mrs. Brodie was becomingly attired in black with cut steele beading and corsage of carnations, bouvardia and fern. Her daughter, Mrs. George Quantz, of Aurora, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Norman Brodie, received with her. The table was centered with a silver basket of Briarcliffe roses, and was presided over, in the afternoon by Mrs. Herbert Smith, and in the evening by Mrs. A. Leek and Mrs. Wm. Wellman. Among many lovely gifts and flowers, she received a gorgeous basket of eighty bronze and yellow chrysanthemums from the Headford community, where she has resided for many years.

Among those who called were her brother, Mr. A. K. Doan and Mrs. Doan, Sheriff W. H. Cane and Mrs. Cane, Rev. Dr. A. P. Brace and Mrs. Brace, all of Toronto, also friends from Newmarket, Aurora, Richmond Hill, Thornhill, Stouffville and Maple. Her friends all wish her many more happy birthdays.
