TESTON

Geo. Carley was the convener in charge of the Y.P.U. meeting Sunday evening, December 3rd. After the opening exercises a poem "God's Peace" was read by Lorna Henderson. Another selection of poetry, "The Bridge Builder", was read by Hadwen Kyle. The topic, "Steering With the Stars", was taken by E. J. Hitchcock. There was a fair attendance. Next week the speaker will be Mr. Geoffrey Whittle of Laskay. A very cordial invitation is extended to the older people to come out and enjoy the meetings with the young people. As a token of sympathy and regard it was decided to send a present of fruit to Howard Heacock, one of the Y.P.U. officers, who is in Western Hospital.

At a meeting of the executive of the S.S. with the pastor, Mr. Davis, after S.S. last Sunday morning it was decided to give a Xmas supper to the young members of the community. The W.A. were asked to look after the supper. The Y.P.U. are to arrange for decorating the S.S. room and providing the Xmas tree. After the supper there will be games for the children and then a program to which the older members of the community are invited. The date will be published later.

John Grey has purchased the workshop and block of land on which it stands and is busy getting things in better shape around it. With his neat office in the old McLaughlin building and his newly acquired property opposite he will be well equipped as representative of the Case Mfg. Co.

Miss Sadie Windas who was successful in winning the trip to Chicago in the Junior Farmer Contest, is now enjoying this fine outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ireland, Mrs. Alex MacDonald, Mrs. Pearl Windas and daughter Shirley were guests of Mrs. J. Carley Sunday.

J. O. Wice, Stroud, is visiting with his stepdaughter, Mrs. West. Mr. Wice is in his 85th year and is hale and hearty, looking much younger than his 85 years. Mr. Wilson Wice and Miss Jean Wice were also visitors with Mr. and Mrs. West.

Mrs. Addie Bolen, Mr. and Mrs. Will Bolen and son Walter of Flint, Mich. paid a visit to Mr. and Mrs. West last week.

Mrs. Verne Thompson and Miss Muriel Kyle were home over the week-end.

Tilly-West

A very pretty wedding took place Saturday, December 2nd at the home of Rev. Caleb Harris, pastor of Humber'side Baptist Church, when Mabel Elaine West, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. West, Teston, was united in marriage to Kenneth Tilly, fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tilly, Monk, Ont. The bride wore a blue suit with wine accessories and white fox fur and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Almeda West, the bride's sister, was attired in green crepe with hat to match, black accessories and black fox fur. Her bouquet was white roses. The groom was supported by his brother, Arnold Tilly. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to Teston to the home of the bride's parents where a fowl dinner was served, the dining room being decorated tastefully in white and pink and Miss West, assisted by Miss Jean Wice, Stroud, Ont., presided over the table. Afterward the happy couple left for a trip to London, Lambeth and Monk. They will reside in Toronto.

WEDDING

ARGENT-ERWIN

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday afternoon, November 25th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Erwin, Castlemore, when their only daughter, Marion Viola Isabella was united in marriage to John Stuart Argent, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Argent of Bolton. The Rev. J. H. Kidd of Woodbridge officiated and the home was beautifully decorated with ferns, baby mums and evergreens.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Doris Worthy of Toronto, as bridesmaid and Miss Hazel Codlin, of Claireville, as maid of honour. Little Frances Urry of Barrie was flower girl and the groom was supported by his cousin, Robert Roe of Tottenham.

During the signing of the register, Miss Viola Gouland of Weston sang "O Promise Me", accompanied by Miss Dorothy Ferril. At a reception guests were received by Mrs. J. Erwin and Mrs. T. Argent, the happy couple later leaving for a motor trip through the United States. They will live on the groom's farm near Bolton.

OBITUARY

T. F. KEARNS

Timothy Francis Kearns, a former resident of Schomberg, died suddenly at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, on Sunday, November 26. Interment in St. Patrick's Cemetery, Schomberg, followed funeral services at St. Cecilia's Church, Toronto, on Wednesday morning.

MRS. JAMES WATKINS

A resident of Kleinburg for many years, Mrs. James Watkins died in the York Nursing Home, Toronto on Monday, November 27th. Deceased, who was in her 85th year, was born in York county and had lived in this area most of her life. She left Kleinburg about 3 years ago, and had been an invalid for a considerable time. She was predeceased by her husband some years ago. Surviving is a brother, Robert Paul, of Coleraine. She was the former Mary Paul.

Funeral services, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Bailey of Kleinburg, were held Wednesday afternoon from Scott's Woodbridge funeral chapel to Kleinburg United Church. Interment was in Nashville cemetery.

MISS MARY GILCHRIST

A former resident of Tottenham, Miss Mary Gilchrist died in a Toronto nursing home on Friday, November 24th. She was in her 95th year and had served for many years as a deaconess in the Presbyterian church. She was a member of one of the first classes to graduate from the Presbyterian Deaconess Home in Toronto.

Born in Glasgow, Scotland, she came to Canada as a child and the family first settled in Tottenham. As a deaconess she was associated with Davenport Road Presbyterian church, Toronto, later going to Ingersoll and returning to Toronto to serve at St. Paul's until her retirement. She was a sister of the late Rev. J. R. Gilchrist.

There are ten thousand acres under soya bean production in Canada, mostly in Ontario. Ten years ago it was an unknown crop in the Dominion. Its uses are many and the soya bean has become an important raw material in the automobile, electrical appliance, enamel, soap and feed industries, as well as in innumerable industries using plastics. It is anticipated that the war will greatly extend the cultivation and utility of the soya bean.—Marketing.

KLEINBURG

The Kleinburg Y.P.U. held their regular meeting last week in the basement of the church with the president, Mr. Newton Watson, in the chair. After a short business session the meeting was given over to Miss Middlebrook, the citizenship convener who started her program with a hymn. Doris Bell then read the scripture lesson after which Miss Helen Campbell gave current events. Miss Olive Devins then sang a solo. Miss Middlebrook read a story and an article on Health Insurance. A discussion followed, a number of members expressing their opinion of Health Insurance. A contest, "Famous People" followed and was won by Miss H. Campbell and Miss I. McKenzie. A hymn brought the programme to a close.

Thieves reportedly broke into the store of Schaefer and Co. at Bolton and the garage of Berney and Nelson at Caledon East early Thursday morning of last week.

The Best Results in Advertising

All of us, instinctively, go where light is, not where there is darkness.

Advertisements are light and so they attract buyers to those stores and business places which they illumine.

The way to get business is to ask for it. Can the truth of this statement be successfully disputed? The public buys from those who invite its custom.

Tell the people of your trading area of the services you offer.

This newspaper is at your service to carry your business message into the homes of the people of this district.

Consider the advisability now, of investing a small expenditure in advertising. It will pay rich dividends.
