Cars Wanted For Wrecking — Safety Glass Installed

Letters From The People

THE CORRECT FACTS

Dear Mr. Editor:

I believe the thinking public of Richmond Hill will appreciate a correct statement of facts in regard to the car wrecking by-law which seems to have caused so much controversy.
They are as follows:

On January 9, 1939, the Richmond Hill Council received a letter from the County Clerk's office, suggesting that all such public bodies be aware of the menace of wrecking concerns being established in such municipalities. Following on this communication, the local Council discussed the matter and a motion was made and passed unanimously, by a full Council, that the Clerk be instructed to prepare a By-law prohibiting the wrecking of cars within the Corporation of Richmond Hill.

During the month of March, Mr.
Parisi came to Mr. Hume's office to seek information regarding automobile wrecking. The Clerk, according to Mr. Parisi's affidavit taken in Court, informed him that there were no restrictions or regulations and no license fee was required—and, according to facts set out in the affidavit of the Clerk, Mr. Parisi was advised by him of the Resolution and of the By-law to be passed by the Council. The same By-law was ratified and became a village law April 3rd.

Mr. Parisi, in the meantime, had obtained a Government application for a garage license, but in so doing had not answered the question written thereon, "Are you going to wreck or dismantle cars." Had this question been answered in the affirmative no license would have been granted by the Government until approval was obtained from the mun-cipality concerned. Hence, since April third, the car wrecking business has been carried on contrary to the law of the village. On this account, a summons was issued to Mr. Parisi out of the Police Court—Mr. Parisi immediately made application to the Supreme Court to have the By-law quashed, but the Supreme Court decided that the By-law should be sustained.

This, Mr. Editor, is the reason why I believe that even in view of an appeal, a By-law which has been carefully discussed and passed by a full Council as conducive to the best interests of our village, and again sustained by a higher Court, has every right to be adhered to and supported by a progressive and proper thinking public.

Absolutely nothing personal has influenced my view in this regard, and I would be glad to see Mr. Parisi remain a business citizen in our village, providing the wrecking part could be eliminated.

I regret, that owing to personal reasons, I cannot take part in the coming election, but I hope that the personnel of the new Council will be such that the constructive work already started by the old Council will be continued with only one thought, viz.: the welfare of the present and future of Richmond Hill.

NEWTONBROOK

The annual Sunday School Christmas entertainment of Newtonbrook United Church was held Tuesday evening and despite the inclement weather the Sunday School hall was well filled and a very enjoyable evening was spent by all. The Sunday School Supt., Mr. Leslie Grisdale, was chairman. Each class contributed a number to the program and the teachers and pupils are to be commended on their efforts as each one took their part very creditably indeed.

A "Welcome" exercise was given by Miss Irene Smith's class of little tots in Primary Dept. Short plays were given by several classes, "The Christmas Basket Club" by Mrs.
Grisdale's class of girls, "Grandma Takes Hold" by Mr. Raymond Round's class who were all dressed in old time costume and looked very matronly in long skirts, bonnets, etc.
Miss Norma Anderson's class presented "Molly's Merry Christmas".
A humorous play, "Renting Jimmy", was given by Miss Mary Douglas's class. Mrs. Elmer Pearson's class demonstrated an "Old Time Ladies' Aid Meeting" and Miss Doris Van-Luven's class presented a short play, "The Half Christmas" which showed the real Christmas spirit. A chorus by Miss Dodds' and Mrs. Newson's classes, "Who do the Christmas bells ring?" was well rendered. A piano duet by Margaret and Wilma Adair was heartily enjoyed, also a piano solo by Elise Wells. Jean Taylor played the accompaniment for her little sister Sylvia in a Christmas carol. Recitations were given by Shirley Pope, Joan Hewitt, Jean Tough and Bobby Johnston. A Christmas pageant written by Mr. C.
Skeel was presented at the close of the program by the members of Mrs.
Halbert's class of young ladies and Mr. Wells' class of young men with five tableaux, namely: "The Watching Shepherds", "The Shepherds and the Angel", "The Angels Song", "The Manger Scene", and during this tableaux David and Dianne Brett sang "Away in a Manger". The closing tableau, "To Him every knee shall bow" included the Angels, Mary, the shepherds and wise men. A hidden choir sang Christmas carols during the tableaux and Rev. A. H. Hal-bert read the scripture passages.

The farewell number was by Mr.
Roy Gurney's class. The distribution of gifts followed. Over 300 bags of candy, nuts, apples, etc. were made up by the Sunday School for the occasion. The S.S. Supt., Mr. Grisdale and the pastor, Rev.
A. H. Halbert, received a goose each from the Sunday School Christmas Tree.

The anniversary services of New-tonbrook United Church Sunday School which were held last Sunday were largely attended. The pastor was in charge and the special speaker was Mr. F. C. Cook, president of the Ontario S.S. Association. His address was very helpful and practical. There was a very gratifying response to the White Gift Service.
The gifts were placed around the altar and many children were very happy in presenting something to make Christmas happier for others.

Everyone should attend worship service next Sunday to celebrate the birth of the King of Kings. Special services will be held in the various churches with special messages and music.

Mrs. Stuart Saver was rushed to the General Hospital last week for an emergency operation for appendicitis. She is making a good recovery and hopes to spend Christmas with her family at home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Cook and Mrs.
Bentum were guests last Sunday at dinner with Rev. and Mrs. Halbert.

Mr. Rice and Mr. William Mollison left last Saturday night for overseas. We wish them bon voyage.

An American was touring Wales, and on entering a hotel in one town noticed the words "Tam Htab" written on the mat.

"Ah!" he said, "I suppose that's Welsh for Welcome."

"No, sir," replied the doorman.
"That's the bath mat upside down."

'CAP A CLIMAX WITH A YAWN' ORATORS LIKE IT, LIONS TOLD

Don't Laugh Even If Speaker Is Funny, Editor Advises

ARE THEY HUMAN?

"Never laugh at a speaker's jokes if you can help it," satirically advises the editor of the Lion, bulletin of Toronto Lions club, in "Are Speakers Human?" The advice continues, "Appreciative laughter has a tendency to put him too much at ease. Keep him guessing and make him work for anything he gets from you."

"Just before the speaker is introduced, about one-tenth of the audience, preferably scattered in various parts of the room, should rise and make a hasty exit. This will impress upon the speaker that his message is not so important after all. Several times during the talk, you should lean across the table and discuss the weather or the stock market with your companions. A good loud whisper is best for this.

"Rare diversissements added if you can manage to rattle a cup and saucer occasionally. The crowning touch is attained when you contrive to drop a spoon to the floor. Speakers should be encouraged to greater vocal efforts. Nothing accomplishes this as effectively as a few waiters removing dishes. Speakers always appreciate this help.

"If seated near a window, confine your attention to happenings in the street. Nothing disconcerts a speaker so much as having you watch him —then he gets the impression that you are interested in him and his message. Should the speaker look your way, nonchalantly consult your watch. Should he look a second time, hold your watch to your ear and register surprise that it is still running. It is even better to consult the calendar.

"Yawn ostentatiously about the time the speaker approaches the climax. This is calculated to spur him on to greater efforts. If possible, never let him know that you have enjoyed his talk. Above all things, never go up and thank him for it.
If caught in a position where you must go up and shake hands, squeeze his hand so hard it hurts. After 10 or 12 have done this, he will completely forget all previous insults."
