Insects are the greatest foes man-kind has. They cause half the deaths, and annually destroy food sufficient to feed 200,000,000 people.

King City

Riddell-Thorpe
On Wednesday, December 27th at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Waldruff of Bradford the marriage of Muriel Elaine, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Thorpe to Mr. Robert Randolph Riddell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Riddell of King, was quietly solemnized by the Rev. Douglas Davis.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pretty gown of turquoise blue chiffon, with moulded waistline, shirred bodice and full skirt. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations, baby's breath and fern. The bride was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Margaret Riddell, gowned in pale blue tulle and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations and fern. Orin Thorpe, Kirkland Lake, brother of the bride was best man.

A reception for the immediate families followed the ceremony with the bride's mother wearing dusky pink moss crepe. The groom's mother assisted, wearing midnight blue crepe.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldruff were delighted host and hostess, having recently celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary.

For travelling the bride donned a tailored model dress of hunter's green satin-faced crepe, with white corded silk collar, a wool hunter's green coat with mink trim and matching accessories. After a honeymoon the couple will reside at King.

The bride is well known to a large circle of friends, being active in local and Toronto Presbytery Young People's work of the United Church. She has served enthusiastically in executive circles of more than one community enterprise, and is a valued member of her church choir. Her community hope she finds time to lend her continued support to these interests. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Riddell.

The Christmas concert at Kinghorn School was enjoyed by a large audience. The adult play, "His Uncle's Niece", was well done. The appearance of the four Campbell sisters, Gloria, Clara, Shirley and Earlene, as Scottish dancers in costume delighted the people. Their mother, Mrs. Earl Campbell accompanied them on the mouth organ and Miss McBride on the piano.

Schomberg Fire Brigade received an admirable Christmas present, in the form of a letter of congratulation from the National Fire Protection Association stating that Schomberg brigade received "Honourable Mention" for its endeavours during National Fire Protection week. Reports from 1100 centres examined by a committee entered the campaign. Three prizes were given. Schomberg gave a good account of itself, having only a population of 400. E. G. Lloyd is the chief, 15 being enrolled.

The observance of the annual week of prayer will begin in King on January 8th as follows: Jan. 8, Anglican Church; Jan. 9, United Church; Jan. 10, Eversley Church; Jan. 11, Baptist Church. The choirs from the four churches will all unite for these services.

A Watch Night service in All Saints Church, King, at 11.45 p.m. will be held on New Year's Eve. All are welcome.

The Christmas Candle Light service held in All Saints' Church, King was impressive on Sunday last. The quiet of the church was aglow with the soft light of candles, tall red tapers lighting the chancel. Well known carols were sung with Bobby Walker singing the part of the page boy in Good King Wenceslor and George Haleby the part of the King. The choir rendered the anthem, "How Far Is It To Bethlehem?" Nine lessons were read by A.Y.P.A. members, Bob Walker, Billie Benfield, Ernie Cummins, C. J. Beauchler, Stanley Fletcher, Geo. Hatley, Mr. Bazant.

Temperanceville used the Candle Light Service on Sunday evening, the Y.P.U. in charge. Lighted candles were arranged in red apples against the green of cedar and spruce. The Y.P.U. president was in the chair. Several readings were given including the Christmas story by Millie Umehara. The Young People's choir gave two numbers, "Infant Holy", "Good Christian Men Rejoice."

Temperanceville Mission Band will hold their annual Open House and elections on Saturday, December 30 at the church.

The township was apparently free from week-end accidents. Daylight driving was certainly the safest. East King was enveloped in a fairly heavy coat of snow but roads were good, although careful driving was necessary. The Glenville hills on the farms of J. J. Newton, J. P. Jefferson and Aubrey Doan were enjoyed for skiing by members of the University Athletic Association.

Rev. Frank Wesley and Mrs. Wesley spent a recent week-end at Woodstock visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Thorpe and family spent Christmas at Bradford.

It is some time since Mr. Norman McClure of Toronto has been free from duty on the Can. National on Christmas Day. However, this year he was host to his brothers, Andrew and James McClure and all spent a real day at the Toronto home.

Rev. Harry Bartlett and family of Glen Williams; Mr. Arthur Wellesley and family, Mrs. V. Gates spent Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Archibald.

The family spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Luke Auckland.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Bell and daughter Julia motored to Stratford for the holiday.

Captain Peter Fair whose passenger plane was reported missing over the Mediterranean was rescued but injured. His mother, one of the passengers, was also rescued. Pilot Officer Fair from Kingston is a cousin of Mrs. Cameron Walkington.

Mr. and Mrs. Walkington and family spent Christmas with the Misses Walkington of Maple. Mr. Alex Walkington and his sister from Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Pearce and family of Claremont were also present.

Mr. Orin Thorpe of Kirkland Lake is holidaying with his parents.

The operators at King telephone exchange received the annual Roadhouse turkey and now for the feast.

Plans for formation of a hockey team in King have not as yet been made.

Mr. and Mrs. Galloway, and Miss Betty Galloway of Toronto spent the week-end with Rev. and Mrs. Galloway.

The Red Cross Unit of Vaughan Township has been divided into 8 groups.

The Thompson family joined in a family reunion at the Summit Hotel on Sunday, twenty-four being present.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wideman of Markham and Miss Mabel Jennings of General Hospital, spent Christmas under the parental roof at Mr. John Jennings.

Mr. Kelley Crossley, Sudbury nickel mines, spent Christmas holiday with his mother.

The dance sponsored by the King baseball club in McDonald & Wells' Hall on Christmas night was a grand success. The boys are encouraged in their efforts in the purchase of the baseball field.

The enterprising village of Nobleton contemplates opening a rink this week. The idea is to provide ice for the children with a hockey team in the offing in all probability. No doubt skaters of all ages will find a great deal of pleasure in the bit of rink.

Snowball Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Gellatly of King. Miss Ruth Webb, teacher of Toronto will speak on the public school curriculum. Mrs. Phipps will speak on Temperance.

Nary a one of us will keep all the resolutions we make. If we do it will be because they weren't very many or very good. But by making a few we'll become a little nearer to being fit to live with in 1940 than as though we didn't.

Employer: "Say, boy, these aren't references."
Office Boy (trying for job): "But I thought they would be better. They're copies of my four grandparents' death certificates."
