King City District News

Already we are treading along the path of a New Year. According to our conscience we have come through the past year stronger or weaker because of its varied experiences of joy or sorrow, pleasure or pain. Whether or not we made systematic reckonings from time to time the sum total of our year has gone into the making of our character. Another year of character-building added to our life, affecting the lives of all about us. Many have used substantial and permanent building material, putting it securely and firmly into its required place at the required time. It took courage, faith and sacrifice and sane thinking to build this way. Others of us have used a flimsier, less durable type of material, setting it in when the time was most convenient, and when the least effort was necessary. Anyway, the character year is built of whichever type. Those who built for eternity are able to strengthen and beautify the structure while the less capable are not quite certain if their structure will even hold up for the coming year. Of one thing we are assured that the New Year lies before us, expecting us to use all that is noblest and finest, within our power, that power coming from our Heavenly Father.

The week of Universal Prayer will be observed by the Anglican, United, Presbyterian and Baptist congregations on January 8, 9, 10 and 11 in the four churches, as in above order. Special music will be used in the worship.

Schomberg will also enter upon this season of worship in much the same manner.

Probably rather unusual in these parts was the house-to-house Xmas carol singing by the Schomberg United choir on Christmas Eve. Their reception was one of delight in some fourteen homes, the last hostess serving a hot lunch to the singers. In England, the matter of outdoor carol singing is a traditional rite and none the less pleasing in Canada.

Only a small gathering went forth into the storm and cold on New Year's Eve to attend the watch-night service at All Saints Anglican church. They were well repaid for their effort, for in the quiet stillness of that beautiful sanctuary, symbolic of Christmas atmosphere, one felt that the time-honored bell did well to slowly toll out the old year and briskly ring in the new. The lessons and the hymns, the Rector's message and the organ music made one feel it was well to have been there for meditation and worship.

The Young Peoples' Unions of the United Church Presbytery will be interested to attend or follow up the Young Peoples' Congress to be held in Wesley United Church, Vandorf, on Wednesday, January 10, 8 p.m. Schomberg Y.P.U. will lead in the worship service. Vera Hunter, Presbytery president, will preside. Presbytery officers will be in charge of discussion groups. Refreshments will be served. Remember the date, January 10th at Vandorf.

Laskay Y.P.U. enjoyed a skating party on Baldwin's lake last Thursday, more than thirty being present. The Baldwin family spent New Year's with Dr. W. W. Baldwin at Brooklin.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Langdon entertained Mr. and Mrs. Morrison and family of Toronto on New Year's. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Smeltzer entertained the Scott families on New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bovair and family spent New Year's with Mrs. Duncan McDonald of Aurora, the family gathering of twenty-eight. Miss Blanche Wellesley visited her brother in Toronto during the holidays.

The Glenville hills were alive with out-of-town skiing parties. About 100 played around during the weekend, 21 guests remaining at the hostel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Whitney and daughter Frances motored from Fitz Roy Harbour, spending several days with the latter's mother, Mrs. Geo. H. Stone. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Proctor joined them for New Year's at Mrs. Stone's.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hunter and family visited Mr. James Watson's, Vaughan, for New Year's.

Mrs. R. Gellatly entertained the family on New Year's.

One of Schomberg's oldest residents, Joseph Butler, passed away at Barrie on Sunday, December 31, where he has resided for about a year. It is only a few weeks ago since Mr. Butler was in Schomberg, but failing in health, he passed away at the age of 84 years. Deceased was the son of Joseph Butler of fifth line, King, where he was born.

In January 1881 he came to Schomberg following the profession of his father, a watchmaker for many years. His record in church work was unique, having been Sunday School Superintendent of the Methodist and later the United Church for forty years. During that time he is said to have missed only a couple of Sundays, one of them when his wife, the former June Winter of King, passed away about 14 years ago. For more than 40 years he served on the Church Quarterly Board and on the Trustee Board. Of late years he acted as church caretaker. Mr. Butler has witnessed many changes in the life of the village and always kept abreast of the times. The Butler property was still owned by Mr. Butler.

The funeral service was held on Wednesday from Schomberg United Church with interment in Schomberg Memorial Cemetery.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. M. L. Chantler of Barrie; Mrs. Thos. Lyall of Winnipeg. Another daughter, Mrs. W. P. Patton of Toronto has passed on.

The New Year's night dances held at King and Nobleton Halls and sponsored by the Women's Institutes of these places, were well patronized. King uses the dance proceeds for Red Cross purposes.

Oak Ridges Red Cross Unit will meet at Mrs. Ben Langley's, 3rd of Whitechurch, on January 4th, afternoon.

A Russian wolf hound living on the third concession line, goes out and finds things, namely an ice cream freezer with plenty of ice cream in it. He carried it for some distance expecting his master to serve the contents for dessert. He had licked in as far as his head would go and there was still plenty left for the rest of the family. In the meantime neighbors were waiting patiently for the delicacy which they had to feast on in imagination. Tell the dog what you want and he will go and get it for you.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Boyd and family spent New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. F. Harper.

The King United Farmers' club will meet at the home of Mr. Nelson Thompson on Tuesday evening, January 9th at 8 p.m. The ladies' program will deal with "Health" taken by Miss Millie Umehara, who will also lead in its discussion. It is the hope of the club women to organize a United Farm Women's Club to embrace, eventually, a wide section of this part of the township. From inspiration of the silver jubilee of the Ontario United Farm Women's Organization the desire to form locally is taking shape, a desire well worth stimulating.

We find that the Short Course beginning on Tuesday, January 2nd at Schomberg has got away to a good start but at present we have not the complete set-up.

KLEINBURG & NASHVILLE W.I.

The annual evening meeting of the Kleinburg and Nashville Women's Institute was held December 13th in the Institute Hall, Kleinburg, with about sixty-five present. The roll call was answered by each member bringing forward a white gift for the Children's Shelter.

As is customary at our evening meeting the men supplied the programme with Mr. Ed. Miller as convener. An opening chorus was sung by Mr. E. Foster, Mr. W. Benstead, Mr. N. Watson, Mr. G. Agar and Mr. G. Taylor, "Silent Night, Holy Night". As an encore they sang a welcoming song, improvised by Miss Margaret Watson. This was followed by a reading, "Keep Whistling" by Mr. A. Agar.

Mr. C. Hewitt and Mr. McManan played a duet. A song was rendered by the school boys entitled "Good Evening", followed by "When Pa was Courting Ma" as an encore. Mr. Ed. Miller gave a reading, "Just a Kindly Christmas Greeting". Mr. G. McGilivray sang "Floral Dance" followed by an encore "O'er the Billowy Sea". "South of the Border" was sung by the five men. The last item on the program was a contest conducted by Mr. Miller. Lunch was served at the conclusion of the meeting and all reported a good time.
