YORK MARKET

One of the first things to greet the eyes on entering North York Market on Saturday was the Finnish flag. Across the first aisle of the market house it hung, marking the stall upon which the market folk had piled their gifts of varied produce to be sold for the Finnish Relief Fund. There were three stands donated for this purpose.

The market folk themselves gave of their time to wait upon the customers, whose response as indicated by the many who stopped to buy was ready and sympathetic.

From small stands where meagre displays bespoke a hard struggle to make a living, came offerings as generous as from the larger producers. One woman contributed a basket full of home preserves. There were chickens, eggs and butter, vegetables and fruits, home baking and knitted goods. Each gave what he or she could.

The market presented a foresight of spring. The first soft grey pussy willows selling at 10c. and 25c. a bunch made winter seem less real, and the perfume of hyacinths and the first freesia—one pot proudly displayed by its owner—was like the breath of spring. The hens, too, must have sensed the advancing season for there were more eggs and as a result prices were a little lower.

Roasting chickens fetched 25c. lb.; some fine capons from a farm at Kettleby sold at 28c.; boiling fowl was 22c., tender young broilers were 32c., ducks 28c., turkeys 30c. Rabbits were plentiful, 20c. lb.; dressed, 40c. each and 75c. pair. On the fish stand trout commanded top price at 30c. lb., whitefish were 18c. and 20c., fillets 25c., ciscoes and haddock fillets 20c.

Butter was quoted at 29c., 30c. and 31c., and eggs from 18c. to 35c. with the usual quotations 25c. pullets, 28c. medium, 30c. large.

Potatoes of various kinds were 20c. basket, $1.20 bag; Marsh potatoes 25c. basket. Tender small coreless carrots were 15c. for 2 quarts; Savoy's were 5c., 8c. and 10c. each; spinach 10c. basket; salad greens, 3 for 10c.; celery, 10c. and 15c. bunch; tomatoes, 25c. box; mushrooms 28c. lb.; imported broccoli 10c. bunch. All the root vegetables could be bought at 5c. box, 15c. 6 qt. basket. Turnips were 5c. each, 3 for 10c.

Hot house rhubarb 10c. lb. sold readily. 2-qt. boxes of apples were 15c.; 6-qts. spies 30c. Other varieties 25c. The home baking provided all kinds of delicious things to eat. There were honeycrust doughnuts, crullers; rhubarb, mince, apple, pumpkin and raisin pies at 25c. ea.; butterscotch, chocolate, white iced cakes from 15c. to 30c. each; gingerbread or nut and date loaf at 10c. and 15c., and a fine assortment of cookies at 10c., 15c. and 20c. dozen.

Meat prices were the same as last week. Beef ranging from 10c. for brisket to 27c. for porterhouse steak and 28c. for prime rolled rib; leg or loin of lamb was 27c., shoulder 17c.; pork loin was 27c., leg 24c., butt 22c. shoulder 17c. Sausage was 18c. and 25c. lb.; back bacon 45c., side 20c.; Virginia roast ham, boiled ham and roast pork 60c.

Among the cut flowers were wall-flowers, pansies and forget-me-nots 25c. bunch, sweet peas 25c. and 35c.; mixed bouquets of snaps, stocks and other pastel toned flowers from 35c. to $1.; narcissi 50c. bunch; daffodils 75c. dozen; tulips 3 for 25c. Pots of begonias were 25c. to 75c. each, primulas 35c., cyclamen 75c., hyacinths 15c. to 60c. pot, ferns 50c. up.

Farm Paper To Play Important War Time Roll

A progressive policy for 1940, designed to help the farmer adapt himself to changing war-time conditions, has been announced by the Family Herald and Weekly Star.

Throughout 1940, Family Herald articles, written by staff editors in cooperation with leading agricultural experts, will show how the farmer may plan to avoid losses, through changing markets... how he can take advantage of new opportunities that are likely to present themselves as a result of the war.

Because the markets for bacon, wool, and, to some extent, beef, are likely to be profitable ones, the Family Herald will feature practical, specially prepared articles on the raising of hogs, sheep and beef cattle. Articles showing how poultry production may be started, increased and adjusted to war conditions, also will be featured.

Prior to the War, vegetable and root seeds were brought into Canada in considerable quantities. This year the sources of supply are cut off and the Family Herald will show how many Canadian farmers can grow some of these seeds as a cash crop. Apples, grass seed and flax also will be discussed.

It is evident that the progressive, go-ahead policy of the Family Herald noted in 1939, will be maintained throughout 1940. With its coast-to-coast distribution to over 300,000 Canadian farm homes, this influential, seventy year old Farm Weekly will render real service to the Dominion and to the Empire through its praiseworthy efforts in showing farmers how their farm operations may most profitably be conducted during wartime.

Excellent reports of work accomplished were heard when the Woodbridge branch of the Red Cross met in the Library building on Wednesday evening of last week. The group have completed 75 pairs of socks, 31 pillow cases, 1 quilt, 1 pair of pyjamas, and 4 pair of wristlets.

Toronto Gore township hopes to gravel three additional miles of road this year and thus give every single farmer in the municipality a gravel road to his gate. The township now has about 31 miles of gravelled roads.
