GOD SAVE THE KING

'IF' CONSIDERED
If you or I so often had but done as others urged—
If we'd gone the way we didn't when two likely paths diverged—
If only we'd done this or that instead of what we did—
But why be tortured with regrets? Life never will be rid
Of that haunting, taunting, tantalizing echo of the past—
Of mistakes, unruly impulse and decisions wrought too fast.
If the nations never argued—if explorers clung to home—
If Columbus hadn't wandered — If Caesar'd stayed in Rome;
If God had not created the stars and moon and sun,
The earth and all its miracles—if time had not begun;
And if it weren't for evolution, gravity and babies
We'd not be here to care about the 'ifs' and 'mights' and 'maybes'.
There's be no matters to debate—no battles to be won—
There'd be no possibility of 'wrong things' being done.
Life itself is propped and balanced on the strength of what 'might' be
And nothing's less dependable than cock-sure 'certainty'.
Oh, it's foolish to regret things and to waste time looking back.
True, it may be sometimes difficult to pick the wisest track;
But if you just stick to level judgment and keep your shoulders stiff
You're bound to land up somewhere—the world goes 'round on 'if'.
I. F. Moore.

SCHOOL CHOIRS BROADCAST NEW WORLD BALLADS

The Canadian Broadcasting Commission is about to enter upon a novel experiment which has as its purpose the interesting of Canadian children in ballads having to do with the history of their own country. This will take the form of a series of five broadcasts based on John Murray Gibbon's recently published book "New World Ballads". The broadcasts will take place on successive Friday evenings beginning January 26 between the hours of 7.00 to 7.30 eastern standard time, and will be heard from eighteen stations covering the entire country.

Three of the programmes will originate in Toronto and the ballads will be illustrated by a group of girl singers picked from Toronto high schools and singing under the direction of Leslie R. Bell, Director of Music, Ontario College of Education, University of Toronto.

The balance of the programme will originate in Montreal with ballads sung by the Westhill High Singers, a group of girls from Westhill High School. This choir is under the direction of Irvin Cooper, Supervisor of Music for the Protestant Board of School Commissioners in the City of Montreal, and lecturer at McGill Conservatory of Music. An interesting feature of the experiment is that school children in Ontario have been instructed to "listen in" as part of their home work, and it is expected that in other provinces the same action may be taken. The attention of the school-children of Quebec Province is also being drawn by Dr. W. P. Percival, Director of Protestant Education to these broadcasts in the interests of school and community singing. Upper picture shows the Montreal choir, and the lower picture the Toronto choir.
