The Young People's Union was in charge of Eleanor Oliver. The special feature of the evening was a radio drama, "Let's go to Church in India", with Geo. Carley, Peter Rogers, Harold Goss and Eleanor Oliver taking part. There was also a song service with Ruth Oliver at the piano. Members had an opportunity to sing their favorite hymns. A very interesting and profitable evening was enjoyed.

There was a good attendance at S.S. last Sunday. At the close of the meeting the superintendent called on Rev. D. Davis to make a short address. He spoke of the good attendance at the convention held in King and made special mention of the oratorical contest in which 18 contestants entered. Evelyn Hare was the representative of Teston S. S. and the speaker complimented her on her excellent effort and in appreciation of this on behalf of the school supt. Mr. Bowen presented Evelyn with a handsome book, "The Merriweather Girls of Camper's Trail." Evelyn thanked the school for their present.
