TESTON

There was a very good attendance at Y.P.U. last Sunday evening. The meeting opened with Hazel Carson presiding for the first ten minutes after which Eddy James, the convenor for the evening, took charge. Opening hymn 164, prayer read by Eddy James followed, Scripture lesson Matt. 11-13-20, a reading "Meditation" was given by Eddy James. This was followed by the feature of the evening, lantern slides on "Mr. Murray at Labrador" which were enjoyed by all.

On Saturday at noon Mrs. Hall discovered her home was on fire caused by an overheated stovepipe. The alarm was given and neighbors and Maple Fire Brigade tried to get the fire under control but only a few effects were saved. The loss is covered by insurance. Mrs. Hall and family have since leased the house belonging to Harold Bowen and have the assistance and sympathy of the neighborhood in their misfortune.

Roy Bowen has purchased the Wells farm 1 1/4 miles east of King Village and will take possession after the sale there on April 26th. Friends wish him success in his new home.

Alex. MacDonald has leased the farm formerly occupied by E. Castator, from the present owner Sid. Bowers, Fairbank, and has moved over from Lot 25.

Miss Lorna Henderson, Toronto, visited with her friend Miss Jean Robson for the week-end.

Messrs. Frank Piercey and E. J. Hitchcock were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lightbody, Toronto, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Ben Corfield, Carrville, was a visitor with Mrs. George Taggart last Tuesday.

At the W.A. Entertainment on Monday evening, April 22, the Young People of Rev. Garnet Lynd's church at Downsview presented their play "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works". There was a fair attendance to hear his very bright and attractive play which was nicely staged and the characters gave a good account of themselves in their presentation of characters. There were many shocks, thrills and blackouts which gave very weird feelings to the audience. The director Mrs. Harold Dickin is to be congratulated on the success of her effort and the young people on the good work in staging and costuming. At the close the ladies served lunch. The cast included: Joy Herbert, Ilse Lubbers; Scarlet Deane, Mildred Shore; Aunt Susie, Mrs. A. Phillips; Madame Zola, Adele Carruthers; Johnny Rogers, George Brooks; Laura Dawson, Mildred Young; Portia Lark, Doris Wilson; La Salle Johnson, Chas. Gordon; Omar Graves, Eryslle Phillips; Cynthia Dunning, Winnifred Dickin; Slick Conway, Wesley Lynd.
