

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

Mrs. D. Casely, a highly respected citizen of Unionville, passed away on Sunday evening last following an illness of a few weeks duration.

Mr. and Mrs. Casely lived the early part of their married life on a farm at Milliken coming to Unionville thirty-five years ago.

Mrs. Casely was predeceased by her husband 23 years ago and is now survived by one brother, William Pearson, Brown's Corners, a sister, Mrs. Ormerod of East Toronto and several nephews and nieces.

The funeral service was held at Wright & Taylor's Funeral Home, Richmond Hill, on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. A. E. Owen officiating. Many floral tributes expressed the respect of many friends.

Congratulations to the Unionville Junior Farmers Dramatic Club on winning championship honors at the annual Drama Festival staged by Junior Farmers from York County at Newmarket.

The marriage of Miss Alice French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. French to Adam Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Brown, Buttonville, was solemnized at the Manse, Toronto, at 8 o'clock Saturday evening last.

Mrs. Donald McConnell, Milliken, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. Harrington.

Mrs. W. J. Marrow who has been spending the winter with Miss M. Somerville left on Sunday for Elmira, New York.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. D. Harrington who celebrated their 44th wedding anniversary on Monday last by entertaining friends at euchre.

Harrington, William Milliken, K.C., of Toronto and Mr. G. I. Hambly of Maple were out of town guests.

"Home Economics" will be the interesting topic presented by Mrs. S. Bell at the May meeting of the local branch of Womep's Institute that will convene at the home of Mrs. R. A. Sabiston on Thursday next.

A delightful euchre sponsored by the St. Philip's A.Y.P.A. was held at the home of Mrs. G. A. M. Davison on Monday evening.

Miss Mary Gibson was the guest of her aunt Mrs. J. A. Gibson on Sunday.

At a meeting held Thursday last in Newmarket at the home of Mrs. McCaffrey, the divisional commissioner for the Girl Guides, Miss Connor, president of the local association was informed that Richmond Hill Girl Guides stood 8th for a shield given for the best knitted articles.

PLANNING ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

Next month the Richmond Hill United Church will celebrate the sixtieth anniversary of the erection of the present building, the corner stone of which was laid on May 24th, 1880.

The first services held by Methodist preachers in Richmond Hill were in the year 1805, and were held in the log school house until the first church was built some years later.

It is expected that many former members and friends will be in attendance at the special anniversary services which are being planned for the month of May.

WEDDING

CORNER-RUMBLE
A pretty April wedding took place at the Presbyterian Manse, Richmond Hill, on Wednesday, April 17, when Beatrice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rumble, became the bride of Harry Corner, son of Mr. and Mrs. George William Corner.

WEAVERS-TAYLOR

Langstaff Baptist Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon, April 20, when Gertrude Evelyn (Gerty) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Taylor of Richmond Hill became the bride of Leonard Charles, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Weavers of Thornhill.

Woman was created from man's rib, but ever since then the average woman has given man plenty of ribbing.

Red Cross Notes

The regular monthly business meeting of the Richmond Hill Red Cross Society will be held in the Red Cross Work Room on Wednesday afternoon, May 1st at 3 p.m.

As the Richmond Hill Red Cross Society plans to send, at regular intervals, remembrances to boys from the Richmond Hill Red Cross area who are at sea, overseas, or leaving immediately for overseas, it is particularly anxious that no boy shall be missed and would very much appreciate names and addresses being given to the secretary, Mrs. James Langstaff, Richmond Hill 100.

YOUNG PEOPLE CONDUCT SERVICE

Richmond Hill Presbyterian Young People's Society conducted the evening service last Sunday. The president, Miss Eleanor Barker, presided and was assisted by Gordon Cunningham. The speaker was Bill Pollard who took as his subject "Preaching Christ".

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. George Smith and family wish to thank the friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness, expressions of sympathy and condolence at the time of their recent bereavement.

Fourteen tables were in play at the local Orange Euchre held in the Lodge Rooms on Tuesday evening, April 16th, when prizes were won by: Ladies, Mrs. Christopher, Miss G. Lever, Mrs. W. Deadman; gentlemen, A. Burgess, S. Dewes, A. E. Glass.

Another Euchre will be held in the Lodge Rooms, Masonic Hall, on Tuesday, April 30th. A hearty welcome to all.

IN MEMORIAM

NICHOLS—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, W. F. Nichols, who passed away April 22, 1936 and our dear Anson who departed this life Oct. 7th, 1932.

Many a day your names are spoken, Many an hour you are in our thoughts, A link in our family chain is broken, You have gone from our homes, but not from our thoughts.

Surrounded by friends we are lonesome, In the midst of our joys we are blue, With a smile on our lips there's a heartache And a longing dear ones for you. —Ever remembered by wife and family.
