Social and Personal

Tag Day for the Blind will be held in Richmond Hill on Saturday, May 4th.

The Presbyterian W.M.S. met today at the home of Mrs. R. Boyington, Buttonville.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chadwick returned last week from Florida where they spent the winter months.

Rev. C. W. Follett of Richmond Hill and Rev. E. B. Cooke of Thornhill are exchanging pulpits on Sunday morning next.

With a view to securing funds the Girl Guides of North York are holding a Doughnut Drive on Saturday, May 18th. Further announcement later.

The local Tennis Club plans to reopen this Saturday, May 4th at 2 p.m. All members and those interested are invited to be present as promptly as possible.

The Women's Association of Carrville held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Cook on Church St. on Wednesday afternoon. A most enjoyable program was presented and Miss Evelyn Follett addressed the gathering on Camp Life at Lake Scugog, under the auspices of the United Church.

A marriage of local interest is that of Mary Johns, daughter of Mrs. and the late Dr. Johns of Thornhill, to Robert E. Little of Weston, which will take place at the Thornhill United Church on Saturday, May 11th at 8 p.m. Both are graduates of the Richmond Hill High School.

Among the visitors in town last week from Toronto were the Misses Kate, Bertha and Elinor Archibald; also Mr. Ross Dunford and Co. Sergt. Major Robertson of the Royal Regiment. They were accompanied by Mrs. Herb Hembuff, whose husband is now en route to England as a Y.M.C.A. officer with the troops. All were guests at the United Church Parsonage.

Prize winners at the successful euchre held in St. Mary's R. C. Church Parish Hall on Friday evening of last week were: Ladies, Mrs. Munroe, Mrs. Dewsbury, Mrs. T. W. Allison; gentlemen, Messrs. Stuart Kidd, W. Bone and W. Horner.

Another euchre will be held in the Parish Hall on Wednesday evening, May 8th. Good prizes. Everybody welcome.

Twenty-one young women, members of the Women's Auxiliary Motor Service, have been busy these past six weeks studying mechanics and car operation under the guidance of Cyril Brillinger at Little Brothers' Showrooms. The course consists of eight lessons, two hours per week for eight weeks, and is sponsored by the Ford Motor Company, whom we understand will entertain the girls and present them with pins on the completion of the course, which includes, among other innovations, driving a truck and a tractor. Those taking the course are: Miss Eileen Broad, Miss Ruth Reaman, Miss Margaret Trench, Miss Jean Smith, Miss Edna Izzard, Miss Barbara Shoebottom, Mrs. W. J. Taylor, Miss May Plewman, Misses Irene and Lillian Anderson, Mrs. R. D. Little, Mrs. C. Brillinger, Mrs. Norman Cook, Mrs. Dorothy Reaman, Miss Clara Mason, and Miss Jean Topper of Richmond Hill; Mrs. Edith Luesby of Thornhill, Mrs. Phipps and Miss Bentley of Willowdale, Miss M. Whitney, Concord, and Miss Baker of Toronto.

LIONS MEET TONIGHT

The regular meeting of the Richmond Hill Lions Club will be held at the Rustic Inn tonight (Thursday) at 6.30 o'clock. The main item of business will be picking flaws in The Lions Liberal. It promises to be a busy meeting.

ONLY THREE VILLAGE HOMES MINUS RADIO SET

James Butler, local Radio inspector, after an almost complete coverage of the village, reports that in Richmond Hill every family except three has at least one radio receiving set.

Red Cross Notes

At the Red Cross District Meeting for York County held in Newmarket on Monday, April 29th the Richmond Hill Red Cross boundary was moved one and one quarter miles north of Elgin Mills. It is understood that families who may be within this area will continue to work with the Red Cross with which they have already affiliated.

The Red Cross Room will remain closed on Friday afternoons until further notice. Sewing will continue on Wednesday afternoons as usual, and wool will be available on Wednesdays.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. W. Elliott, Markham Road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nora Isabelle, to Mr. Gervase S. Huestis, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Huestis, Richvale. Marriage to take place May 20 at 7.30 p.m.

BUILDING ACTIVITY

Richmond Hill is experiencing a building boom, "Baker Built" houses springing up all over town. One is now under construction for Art Leach on Richmond St., two on Roseview are nearing completion, and one is under way on Centre St. West.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. J. W. Hall and family wish to thank their many friends for their thoughtful interest and sympathy, also the kind neighbours who assisted at the time of the recent loss of her husband and their father.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. C. P. Wiley and his daughter Mrs. A. E. Wall wish to express their heartfelt appreciation and sincere thanks to their many friends for their kind expressions of sympathy during their recent bereavement.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Richard Hall desires to express her heartfelt thanks to her many friends who gave their assistance at the time of the fire and to the Maple Fire Brigade, the Red Cross and all others who so generously contributed necessary articles of bedding, clothing and food supplies in the time of need.

DIED
