WAY BACK IN LIBERAL FILES

FORTY YEARS AGO

From our Issue of May 17th, 1900
The Board of Education are erecting a flag-staff over the Public School building, and Union Jacks will on Empire Day, float over both High and Public Schools.

A fire was started in Oliver's bush north of Maple the latter part of the week and before long it had spread rapidly to surrounding woods, doing considerable damage. It is said that on Sunday last the fire covered about 10 acres.

The plant of the Welland Vale Company's works, and the Canada Cycle and Motor Company's work at St. Catharines, were destroyed by fire early Wednesday morning. Loss nearly half a million.

The brick residence of Mr. George Baker, near Victoria Square, was burned on Saturday morning between three and four o'clock. Part of the furniture was saved, though the loss will be quite heavy. The proprietor does not think of building again, but with his wife will probably remove to this village.

A gentleman was in the Village a few days ago looking at the Falconbridge property, with the object of opening out a general store.

When the sad news reached this place Friday evening about 8 o'clock that King Edward was dead the bell in the Methodist Church was tolled for about 15 minutes, and everybody understood that the Peacemaker was no more. Next morning the flags on the High and Public Schools were run up at half mast.

The proprietors of the Bales property, Lansing, comprising 300 acres, recently had an offer of $300 an acre for the farm, but they do not feel inclined to part with the homesteads.

Richmond Hill Fair 1910

The annual Spring Exhibition of the Richmond Hill Agricultural Society will be held in the Driving Park on Victoria Day, May 24th. Prizes to the amount of $1266.38 will be awarded to successful competitors in classes for horses, cattle, sheep, swine, fine arts and ladies' work, dairy produce, roots, racing, etc. There will be a speeding contest for farmers, purse $60, and a Gentlemen's speeding contest, also for a purse of $60. The football competition for a prize of $25 will commence at 11 o'clock. Music will be furnished during the day by the Richmond Hill band.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

From our Issue of May 14th, 1925

Last Friday was a busy morning at the waterworks pond. The 1500 trees comprising Pines, Scotch and Jack, Willows, Elms, Larches, had arrived from the Forestry Department of the Province and were being planted. In response to the call of the Horticultural president, Mr. Gee, twelve or more of our worthy citizens, volunteers in this service, were on the ground to help in the planting under the supervision of the department of forestry. And they filled the waste land lying east contiguous to the pond, also planted trees south of the dump on the waterworks lot, and had fifty left for the end of the park. Our village is to be congratulated upon obtaining these trees. As well as to Mr. Gee and the helpers, thanks are due to Mr. Henry Davis for having prepared the ground for the trees.

The Hamilton property at Elgin Mills has changed hands, and Mr. George Hamilton, who has lived in the old home for a number of years, is leaving to make his home in Delhi, Ontario, with his daughter, Mrs. Manthe.

The re-opening of the Richmond Hill Lawn Bowling Club for 1915 will be held on Wednesday, May 27, by a mixed tournament in the afternoon. Our greens are in perfect condition this spring, and therefore we wish to get away to an early start for the longest and we hope the best season we have ever had. We are looking for a very large membership, so get your tickets and get away at the start. N. J. Glass, President, W. H. Pugsley, Secretary.

When kicked by a horse last week, William Hillock, Caledon, had two bones in his hand fractured.

May 24th in the Old Days

I remember of attending Richmond Hill Fair on May 24 many years ago. Along with a number of other school children, we arose early and walked the seven miles to see the "Great Fair". We were equipped with dinners in pockets and 50c. for expenses. The exhibits were horses and some other stock, together with implements from the nearby foundries of Patterson's and others and the Wilson Fanning Mill.

There were no binders or self rake reapers in those days, probably they were not thought of. The only indication of a change was to be found in the form of a velocipede, the forerunner of the bicycle. There was an exhibit of horses which would please all horse admirers, Clydesdale of fine formation, perhaps unequalled in the present day, as well as carriage horses.

In a small field on the Vaughan side the speeding of carriage horses and drivers took place, where an amusing event occurred, and nobody hurt. Among the competitors was a handsome pair of carriage horses driven by a city man who had tarried too long at the hotels on the way. As he sped around the ring, he sat upright, with the result that his outfit was upturned; he alighted on his head. The only injury was a flattened beaver hat. He had the intoxicated man's good luck.

There were the usual number of fakers present, one of whom sold a $5.00 bill for 25c. He put it in an envelope which the purchaser nearly always found empty. He did a flourishing business for a time.

Then there was the patent medicine man, selling many preparations of marvellous curative powers. The ditty he sang, "Beeswax and taller, Aunt Jemima plaster, the more you try to pull it off, the faster sticks the plaster," reminds me of one of his best sellers. I remember his song but forget the virtues of the preparation.

Then there was the lifting machine, 2c. a lift or 3 lifts for a nickel. The scale was set to please, for with difficulty I could lift 30 lbs. of clover seed, but on the machine I lifted 325 lbs. I was pleased with my lift and had dreams of being a future Sampson. His profits for the day were cut short when Mr. Solomon Oster, Vaughan's strong man, came that way. Mr. Oster did not wish to lift, as he was quite modest in his way of exhibiting his strength. The owner of the lifting machine bantered Mr. Oster too much. At last being annoyed, he took hold of the handles of the contrivance, and with a powerful lift, squarely given, he literally tore the machine to pieces, to the great amusement of the crowd. The day wore on and evening came at last, and we wended our way homewards, and for days we could hardly think of anything but the 24th of May and wishing the time and the fair would come round again.

AN OLD TIMER,
Thos. F. Burrows, Stayner,
Veteran Clerk of Sunnidale
Township.
