Grow Emergency Hay And Pasture Crops

Ontario Feed Board gives list of recommendations that will save farmer feed bills later on.

Every good farmer is a strong believer in emergency hay and pasture crops. When it comes to growing feed for his stock he naturally believes it is better to have too much than too little. He hates to spend out good money to buy hay and rightly so.

Here are some emergency hay and pasture crops recommended by the Ontario Feed Board of the Ontario Dept. of Agriculture:

PEAS AND OATS

Two bushels oats with one bushel peas per acre make a good emergency hay crop. This mixture, which is sown early in the spring, is ready to cut for hay when the pea pods are about half developed and is cured and handled like any other hay crop.

SOYBEANS

O.A.C. No. 211, Marchu and Mandarin soybeans, if sown early in May, at the rate of 1 1/2 bus. of seed per acre, produce high quality, protein hay, which is usually harvested in August. Soybeans should be cut for hay when the pods are half developed.

MILLET

Foxtail, Barnyard and Panic millet can all be grown successfully in Ontario for annual hay purposes. Millet should be sown early in June, the Foxtail and Panic types at the rate of about 30 lbs. of seed and the Barnyard at the rate of about 20 lbs. of seed per acre. Millets, which have a feeding value about the same as Timothy, should be cut for hay when the plants are fully in head.

OATS AND SWEET CLOVER

One of the most widely grown emergency crops in Ontario is a mixture of 2 1/2 bus. of oats and 20 lbs. of scarified sweet clover seed per acre. The mixture, which is ready to pasture six weeks after seeding, should be pastured sufficiently heavy to keep the oats from coming into head. The combination is largely made up of oats in the late spring and early summer and sweet clover in the late summer and autumn. This sweet clover and oats combination has the added advantage that the sweet clover can be used the following year for pasture, hay or silage.

SUDAN GRASS

This member of the sorghum family, which is noted for its ability to stand dry weather, is seeded in the latter part of May at the rate of 25 to 30 lbs. of seed per acre. In addition to being a good pasture crop, it can also be grown for annual hay and for this latter purpose should be cut when in full bloom. Two bushels of oats added to the Sudan Grass make a good pasture mixture.

EARLY AMBER SUGAR SORGHUM

This crop is grown in Western Ontario for both annual pasture and as a soiling crop. When grown for pasture it is usually sown in a mixture with oats. For soiling purposes it is sown at the rate of 6 to 10 lbs. of seed per acre in rows about 30 inches apart with the individual hills in the rows about 18 inches apart. The plants, when grown for soiling purposes, should be about twice as thick as the plants in the average corn field.

F. H. APPERLY

Funeral services were held Wednesday, May 8 for Francis Hutton Apperly, 88, of Cookstown, who died at the Downsview home of his son, following a short illness. Of English pioneer parentage, Mr. Apperly was born near Maple, Vaughan township. In later life he moved to Alliston, where he carried on a livery business. He married Mary Elizabeth Bowerman some 60 years ago. Mrs. Apperly predeceased him two years ago.

He is survived by three sons and three daughters: Gordon S., Downsview; Harry, Toronto; William A., Cookstown; Mrs. Wallace Eason, Saskatoon; Mabel and Cora, Cookstown.

Rev. John Kell, Fairbanks, a lifelong friend, and Rev. G. W. Lynd conducted services at the Downsview home. Interment was in Cookstown cemetery.

Woodbridge Fire Brigade have just experienced one of their busiest periods in history. Several alarms were answered last week and these were followed by 4 more during the week-end, 2 on Saturday, one on Sunday and another Monday. All were dangerous brush and grass fires in the village that had got out of control. Their locations were at the hill side, near the Waterworks reservoir; at Mr. D. Longhouse's property, 8th Ave.; at the old Methodist cemetery, and in vacant land near Abel Ave.

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

(Held over from last week)

Satisfactory reports of activities within the organization were heard at the annual meeting of the local branch of the Women's Institute held at the home of Mrs. R. A. Sabiston on Thursday afternoon last. Mrs. G. R. Whaley presided. The splendid program included practical talk on "Home Economics" ably given by Mrs. S. Bell, who demonstrated a combination footstool and work box, easily made by members. The inside of the handsome velvet stool revealed splendid accommodation for sewing and sewing equipment. Special music was supplied by Mrs. E. Dixon, the splendid guitar selections being highly pleasing to the ladies.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Mrs. G. R. Whaley; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. W. Young; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. J. Brown; 3rd Vice-President, Mrs. E. E. Braithwaite; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. A. E. Milner; District Representative, Mrs. R. L. Stiver; Pianist, Mrs. E. Dixon; Directors, Mrs. T. Burnett, Mrs. F. Pollard, Mrs. Dymond; Sick and Visiting Committee, Mrs. C. H. Stiver, Mrs. C. E. Stiver, Mrs. H. H. Powers, Mrs. S. Weatherill; Convenors of standing committees: Historical Research, Mrs. G. R. Whaley; Education, Mrs. Adamson; Canadianization, Mrs. M. H. Thomson; Legislation, Mrs. F. Frisby; Peace, Mrs. W. Young; Health and Child Welfare, Mrs. H. Brookfield; Agriculture, Mrs. R. A. Sabiston; Home Economics, Mrs. S. Bell; Community Activities and Relief, Mrs. E. Dixon.

Lunch was served following the program by the hostesses for the afternoon, Mrs. H. H. Powers, Mrs. T. Burnett, Mrs. A. E. Milner.

The current project sponsored by the Department for Girls' training got away to a good start at the May meeting of the Homemakers Club of the Junior Farmers organization held on Monday evening last. Marjory Thomson and Phyllis Tapscott supplied the highlights on "Party Planning" which was interspersed with demonstrations of decorative table centres for special occasions given by Margaret Hood, "Easter"; Ruby Reesor, "Thanksgiving"; Eva Hunter, patriotic centre for May 24th party; Ruth Yeamans, birthday party; Mildred Pooler, St. Patrick Day. For the success of the party be sincere, be friendly, be cheerful, enjoy entertainment provided, willing to enter in all party activities, assist hostess by pleasing conversation with partner, cultivate new comer or shy girl, be considerate of others, leave worries at home, be a good sport, sincere to hostess. Be attractively and suitably dressed, better too simply than too elaborately. Simple party menus easily prepared and good to eat were given for various occasions. Unwise to spend too much time on preparation of food. Be ready when the guests arrive.

A display of place cards and party favors was also given.

The Junior Farmers were honored by a visit from Don Fairburn of the C.B.C. who spoke on the splendid co-operation between agriculturists and the broadcasting system and spoke generally on the Farmers' Market, butter, eggs, etc. Also told of the Craig Family, a favorite radio feature following the farm broadcast.

At the joint meeting thrills were aplenty, when four young stalwarts from O.A.C. staged a wrestling match. Judging from the applause from the boys and the squeals from the girls, the bouts were fast and furious, creating popular entertainment. The boys were given a hearty vote of appreciation along with the good wishes for satisfactory exam results, which are the order of the present day. A short but spicy edition of "The Newscaster", edited by Clarence Wallace and read by Elliot Harrington, the announcement of the May dance and June picnic, brought the meeting to a close. Refreshments and dancing concluded this very enjoyable and profitable evening.

Congratulations to Mrs. Susan Gibson who on Wednesday celebrated her 92nd birthday at her home near Milliken. Although a semi-invalid for many years, Mrs. Gibson has retained her interest in all worthwhile things and always had a hearty welcome for the host of friends who came often to her home. A daughter, Margaret and a son, John join with their mother in this celebration. During the afternoon and evening many callers brought greetings to this estimable lady and numerous letters, cards and gifts signified remembrance by far away friends. The tea table was lovely, centred with the gorgeous birthday cake made under Mrs. Gibson's direction and resplendent with its decoration including the 92 candles. The Liberal joins in expressing good wishes to this splendid lady on this happy event.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Markham congregation plan to celebrate the 100th anniversary on May 26th and June 2nd with appropriate services. Full announcement of the program will be made later. Many former members will be in attendance and will have the privilege of meeting former pastors who had charge in the days gone by. This promises to be a memorable event in the life of this congregation and a cordial invitation is given all to come and participate in the services.

Notice to Creditors AND OTHERS
