King City District News

The Richmond Hill Lions Extra proved a very interesting issue on May 2nd. Many local readers found it good reading and congratulate the club.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Russell, Miss Kay Clark of Toronto, visited at W. Rollings this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Parker, Miss Louise Follott of Toronto, Miss Florence Follott and Mr. J. Kellam of Weston spent Sunday at Mr. Harvey Follott's, attending church services at King United.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Berger and family of Barrie visited the former's mother, Mrs. Wellesley on Mother's Day.

A meeting of Peel, Simcoe and York Baseball League was held at Schomberg last week. Mr. E. Smith of Schomberg was named president; Mr. Blackmore of Beeton as Secretary-Treasurer. Five teams entered the league, Bolton, King, Schomberg, Beeton, Colgan. Schomberg won the 1939 championship in Intermediate B, Rural Softball.

Goods shipped from Oak Ridges Red Cross branch dating from October 11, 1939 inclusive to May 8th, are as follows: 175 pairs socks, 38 sweaters, 45 pairs pyjamas, 14 scarves, 10 helmets, 43 pillow cases, 15 bed pads, 12 sling bandages, 21 pairs wristlets, 1 dozen pneumonia jackets. King, Gormley and Temperanceville Women's Institutes have contributed goods in part.

King Women's Institute announce motion pictures, "The Cavalcade of Europe", shown and commented upon by Rex Frost, of radio fame, on Thursday, May 16th, in McDonald & Wells' Hall; proceeds for war work and soldiers' comforts.

Schomberg Hall was well filled last week for two sessions of Royal Visit motion pictures, sponsored by Red Cross branch.

On Thursday, May 16th, Nobleton

Community Hall will see the first of the Auditors school to be held in the province directed by E. G. Jermaine, Municipal Department of the Province. Invitations have been issued to councillors, clerks, treasurers, officials of the municipalities of King, Adjala, Albion, Georgina, Gwillimbury East, North and West, Markham, Tecumseth, Toronto Gore, Vaughan, Whitechurch; the villages of Bolton, Markham, Richmond Hill, Stouffville, Sutton, Woodbridge; towns of Newmarket and Aurora.

King Township has the distinction, according to Reeve McMurchy, of serving in this capacity due to its size, its financial position, and the types of problems within its precincts, namely, rural, police villages, the Holland Marsh management. Nobleton W.I. will cater the luncheon.

Schomberg W.I. report an excellent year, very hard working but satisfactory. Assisting the townsmen in Community Christmas Tree; assisting in sponsoring of Short Course; mothering the newly formed Junior Institute; $40 raised for war work; contribution to the library board, and other worthy causes. The Red Cross branch, West King Township, had its beginning from the early efforts of the W.I. Money raised $226; balance $15. Officers in part: President, Mrs. B. Skinner; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. A. F. Kay, Mrs. Geo. Shoults, Mrs. E. Smith; Secretary, Mrs. Clarence Marchant; Asst. Sec., Mrs. A. Forth; Treasurer, Mrs. E. Smith; District Director, Mrs. Geo. Shoults; Chairman of Directors, Mrs. H. Carr.

In honour of her daughter, Miss Ruth Baldwin, Mrs. William Baldwin entertained at a trousseau tea on Saturday afternoon, May 11th.

Mrs. Baldwin and the bride-elect received amid spring flowers. The tea table was centred with lovely snapdragons, tulips, and carnations, white tapers and silver appointments. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Stevenson of Unionville and Mrs. (Dr.) W. W. Baldwin of Brooklin. Assisting were Miss Edith Glass and Miss Margaret McDonald of Aurora, Miss Anah Baldwin and Miss Beth Baldwin. The trousseau rooms resplendent with "nice things", were presided over by Miss Vera Hunter, Mrs. Isobel Forrester, Miss Marjorie McMurchy, Miss Irene Marshall and Miss Helen Hunter. Several guests from Toronto, Aurora and Unionville were present.

Mother's Day services were observed at 11 a.m., Eversley Church, the scholars taking part. Nobleton United Church enjoyed a Mother's choir and Schomberg United Sunday School joined in special service.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Strange, has set June 28th as the date for the annual strawberry festival.

Miss S. Groombridge led in a topic on Our Bible before Pottageville Baptist Y.P.U. last week. We are fortunate in having the Bible as a reliable book since before our eyes is the graphic portrayal of influences in the world of other notable books: Confucius, Carl Marx, Mien Kampf etc.

Rev. J. and Mrs. Galloway attended the Leaders' Conference held at Aurora last week. Rev. Leland Gregory, noted Baptist preacher, was speaker.

One of the most successful of services was observed at King United Church on Sunday, the 69th anniversary. The church was beautiful with colorful snapdragons, a memorial gift of Mrs. Ethel Carson Smart of Edmonton, Alta., in honour of her late mother, Mrs. Samuel Carson, whose demise took place 10 years ago this month. Mrs. Carson was a former member of the church.

The morning speaker, Rev. Captain Norman Rawson of Hamilton was a powerful speaker, giving a stirring message. The local choir merited praise for their anthems and solo work. Alfred Barker and Helen Campbell, in a duet, were well received. Rev. W. Burbridge of Formosa, a distinctly different type of preacher, was appreciated while Mr. Harris' Junior Double Trio rendered excellent vocal music in the Harris style of accomplishment and clarity. Following the worship service the Trio gave a musicale to the delight of a large audience. They have just come fresh from Musical Festival honours and these numbers were distinctly lovely.

"Getting Ira Married" by Donlands group on Monday evening was a good play, report a large audience.

Fifteen years ago, according to church records, the two acres of land, western part of property of St. John's the Baptist, Oak Ridges, was under discussion for disposal. Approaching the Synod, St. John's was refused and wisely enough for today the congregation is proud to possess a Parish Hall and to formally open it on May 21st at 8.30 p.m. D.S.T. Invitations have gone out to a great number of friends, former members and associates, clergy of St. John's, when Mrs. Mussen, aged lady of Toronto whose late husband was the Parish rector in 1882, will declare the Hall open. Captain S. C. Snively is chairman of the building committee, ably assisted by Rev. E. W. G. Worrall, ex-officio Messrs. W. J. Whitten, John Chatterly, Roy Dibbs (carpenter in charge), Don Frisby, Maurice Beynon, Nelson Thompson, Giles Kerswill.

Rev. A. R. Beverley, Suffragan Bishop, will act as chairman.

Holstein Club Picnic Saturday, June 1st

With June fast approaching, the York County Holstein Club directors are completing plans for their annual Picnic which will be held on Saturday, June 1st, at Glenwood Park, Markham, where the members and their families enjoyed themselves so much two years ago. With a screened-in pavilion for lunch, huge shade trees, ball diamonds, barnyard gold and safe swimming facilities, everything is all set for a big time for the young and those who used to be young. The committee is also arranging for a couple of judging classes to keep everyone in training for the Black and White Show in the fall. President Geo. W. Henry is being ably supported by the Club Fieldman, Jos. Darlington, Past Pres. S. B. Watson and Secretary E. F. Ramsay and several sub-committees.

Jos. Darlington of Todmorden, Club salesman, last week sold a very fine lot of Holsteins to go to New Brunswick at prices the owners had thought would hold these outstanding individuals in their herds.

TO A POSTOFFICE INKWELL
How many humble hearts have dipped in you, and scrawled their manuscript
Have shared their secrets, told their cares,
Their curious and quaint affairs!
Your pool of ink, your scratchy pen,
Have moved the lives of unborn men,
And watched young people, breathing hard,
Put Heaven on a postal card.
