IN MEMORIAM
SHIELDS—In loving memory of our darling little son (Jackie) John Robert who passed away June 28, 1929, aged 8 years.
If all the world were ours to give,
We'd give it yes and more
To see our darling's face again,
And greet him at the door.
Our lips cannot tell how we miss him,
Our hearts cannot tell what to say;
God alone knows how we miss him
In a home that is lonesome today.
Safe in the arms of Jesus.
—Sadly missed by Mother, Daddy, Sister and Brother.

THE GIGANTIC COST OF WAR

What Would He Say Today?

In 1848 Henry Richard, a Welshman, member of the British House of Commons, wrote the following words:

"Give me the money that has been spent on war and I will purchase every foot of land upon the globe. I WILL CLOTHE every man, woman and child in an attire of which Kings and Queens would be proud. I WILL BUILD a school house on every hillside and in every valley over the whole earth. I WILL BUILD an academy in every town and endow it; and a college in every state and fill it with able professors. I WILL CROWN every hill with a place of worship, consecrated to the promulgation of the Gospel of peace. I WILL SUPPORT in every pulpit an able teacher of righteousness, so that on every Sabbath morning the chime on one hill should answer the chime on another round the earth's wide circumference; and the voice of prayer and the song of praise should ascend like a universal hosanna to Heaven."

SHORT EDITORIALS
All nations smile in the same language. Anyone who stops learning is old, whether that happens at eighteen or at eighty. Almost all men are intelligent; it is method that most of them lack. It is not who is right, but what is right that is the important thing in this life. Everything that is worth while has a fence around it — but there are always a gate and a key. More minerals have been taken out of the earth since 1900 than in all previous history, by conservative estimate. Old maids know best how to raise children, and professional politicians know best how to run other people's business.—Provincial Paper.
