BUTTONVILLE

The regular meeting of the Buttonville W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. C. Burr, the roll call being answered with a donation for the fish pond at the garden party June 26th. There was a good attendance from Wexford W.I. and a good program consisting of readings, piano selections, also a paper on Health and Child Welfare, closing with a contest of quiz, after which a social half hour was spent, lunch being served by the hostesses Mrs. C. Burr, Mrs. A. Stephenson, Mrs. R. Boyington.

One of the finest located farms in Markham township between Markham and Unionville was sold to R. J. Cherry of Renfrew, Ont., through J. A. Willoughby, realtor, the vendor being Archibald Empringham. The latter purchased it from his father in 1915.

The farm is on the north side of No. 7 highway, lot No. 7, concession No. 6, township of Markham. A good producing farm with clay loam soil, it consists of 86 acres.

There is a good brick house of 10 rooms. The new owner has installed hydro and on the property is a hip-roofed barn 90'x36' with stabling for seven horses and 16 head of cattle. In addition there is a driving house, henhouse, silo and garage.

NOTICE

The Public Library will be closed on Thursday afternoons during July and August.

CARRVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Oliver of Palgrave visited Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver on Sunday.

Mr. W. Wynn spent the week-end on a business trip to Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Goddard and Mrs. Michell of Toronto visited Mr. and Mrs. J. Wark on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Vanderburg and family of Toronto spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Vanderburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Duese have taken over the management of the Halliwell Service Station at Richvale.

Mrs. E. Durie spent a few days this week with her sister Mrs. Slater in Toronto.

There are four pupils from Carrville School trying their entrance this week, Mable Durey, Bonnie Burton, Tom O'Connell and George Reid.

The Roselawn baseball team played Oak Ridges Monday evening at Roselawn Park. It was rather a one sided game the score being 19-2 in favor of Roselawn.

Mrs. J. Vanderburg spent Wednesday in Toronto.

Bobbie and Edmund Slater of Toronto are spending a couple of weeks with their aunt Mrs. E. Durie.

A very enjoyable evening was spent on Saturday, June 22nd at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perring when a Euchre, Bingo and Dance was held in aid of Richvale Red Cross and was largely attended. The draw for the pillow cases took place and were won by Miss Thelma McPherson, Stop 24, Yonge St.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to Wrigley Ltd., Mrs. Berwick, Superior Store, Langstaff and Mr. Wyman for their donations, also the four ladies who donated the prizes. These were won by Mrs. Wyman, Mrs. Perring, Mr. Frank Everingham and Mr. Alan Norris. The entire proceeds were a little over $12.00.

TESTON

The countryside around Teston was well represented last Sunday, June 23rd, the occasion being the Sunday School Anniversary services. In the morning at 11 o'clock Rev. Galloway, pastor of the Baptist church at King, conducted the service assisted by Rev. D. G. Davis. His remarks were based on texts from Isa. 39-8 "For there shall be peace in my days." The local choir led the song service assisted by Miss Helen Campbell and Mr. A. Barker of King. In the evening although weather conditions were not so good the attendance was somewhat larger than in the morning. Rev. Dr. Thompson of Aurora United church was the speaker assisted by Rev. Davis, and his subject was taken from the text John 20-26, "Peace be Unto You". The choir of Aurora United Church had charge of the music. Both services were uplifting and thought provoking.

Friday evening, June 21st, the ladies of the community gathered at the home of Mrs. McCluskey to do honor to a bride of June, Miss Alma McCluskey whose wedding is set for June 29th. A kitchen shower was the gift of her friends and after the presentation Miss McCluskey thanked those who were present for the gift. Afterward a social time was spent and lunch served. On Saturday, June 29th, Miss McCluskey will be married to Mr. Robert Leonard of Toronto. Her many friends wish them all the happiness and prosperity for the future years. A game of softball between Victoria Square Y.P.U. and Teston Young People on Friday evening, the 21st, was won by the Square players.

MRS. JOHN E. MORRISON

Mrs. Cathrine Agnes Morrison, widow of the late John E. Morrison, died at her daughter's home, Eversley Farm, King, on Monday, June 17th. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. A. R. Mackie, of Regina; Miss Cecile Morrison of New York, and Mrs. A. W. McLennan. Requiem high mass was sung at St. Peter's Church, Toronto, on Wednesday morning, followed by interment in Mount Hope cemetery.

WEEKLY NEWS NOTES FROM THE UNIONVILLE DISTRICT

The Red Cross work meetings will open the entertainment followed by a splendid concert in the Crosby Memorial Rink. A refreshment booth will cater to the folks when homemade baking, ice cream, tea, coffee, soft drinks, hot dogs, etc. will be on the menu. This is a real patriotic rally. Remember the date, July 5th and be there. Baseball at 7.30 p.m.

The Markham Township Veterans were hosts at a very enjoyable evening event held on Wednesday last in the Township Hall. A complimentary ticket was the only admission fee and the program included moving pictures, euche, dancing and refreshments. The patrons of the Veterans euche series who were the guests expressed appreciation for the splendid entertainment along with best wishes for success in all undertakings sponsored by this organization.

The local Bowling Club plan to hold a mixed doubles tournament on the local green on Friday evening next commencing at 7.30 o'clock. This club's activities are always of special interest to lovers of the game and the splendid green is a most desirable spot to play.

Miss Mary Gibson visited her aunt Mrs. J. A. Gibson on Tuesday last. Prof. John Coulson of MacDonald College, St. Anne de Bellevue, Quebec, visited his mother, Mrs. Aaron Coulson this week. Miss Effie Middleton was the guest of Miss Ellen Boyington on Wednesday and Thursday.

The Sunday School anniversary service held in connection with Central United Church was celebrated last Sunday morning with Rev. Halbert of Newtonbrook as guest speaker. Mrs. Milner's class were responsible for the decorations.

The annual picnic of the local Horticultural Society was a very enjoyable event when members took a goodwill drive under the leadership of Mr. Leslie Miller and made a tour of winning farms in the Home Improvement contest. The homes visited included Fred Miles, Wm. Tapscott, H. C. Hammill, Ruby Reesor, Dimma Bros. and Col. Deacon. A picnic supper at Col. Deacon's provided plenty of good food for the party. A survey of the treeplanting and a call at the home of the president, Mrs. R. A. Stiver, concluded the itinerary. The members felt that a profitable and most enjoyable afternoon had been spent. The district picnic arranged for July 15th at Midhurst will be the next public event on the schedule. It is hoped that as many as possible will be in attendance. Reserve the date.

A happy event of the past week was the gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Harrington, when nephews and nieces assembled to offer felicitations to Mr. Harrington on the occasion of his seventy-fifth birthday. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bushbe and Mrs. Geo. Anderson of Washington State, U.S.A. A buffet supper on the lawn, photographs taken of the group, games and dancing were pleasing activities of the party. A delightful innovation was the arrival during the evening of a 30 lb. salt water King salmon caught by the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bushbe off the Pacific Coast and sent as a birthday gift to Mr. Harrington.

Mrs. A. E. Milner visited relatives in Port Colbourne last week.
