MRS. McCONAGHY EXPRESSES HER THANKS I wish to sincerely thank my many kind friends who made my last week of teaching a happy memory.

The choicest gift was a book entitled "For Appreciated Services". It is beautifully printed by the school pupils and Mr. W. Ashford Wright and his daughter, Mrs. Hardy Hill.

Other gifts Friday evening were a radio (Philco), a most comfortable chair and a choice table lamp. There was a wonderful letter from Mr. Gillies, ex-Public School Inspector. He was superannuated last year.

The picnic on Wednesday was a great success. No one could eat any supper and for a wonder no one needed a doctor. I made enquiries. I was given a lovely picture painted by Phyllis Zwarych one of Mr. Caldwell's pupils and framed by the boys in Mr. Scott's Manual Training class.

A lovely dark blue house coat and slippers, and a large bouquet of flowers. I was feeling awfully down-hearted, but the great kindness shown me by so many friends chased it all away.

Ten thousand thanks to you all. Yours most sincerely, M. L. McCONAGHY.

Red Cross Notes

At the regular monthly business meeting held on Wednesday, July 3 a financial statement of the local Red Cross for the first six months of 1940 was presented.

WEDDINGS

ROBERTSON-BALES On Thursday evening, June 20th, Leone Anna Bales, daughter of Mrs. Clara Bales and the late John Robert Bales of Newmarket, was united in marriage with Russell Albert Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell James Robertson, Owen Sound. The ceremony took place at the St. Andrew's Presbyterian manse, Newmarket, and was conducted by Rev. Dr. D. McIntyre.

CHRISTOPHER-HAWORTH The marriage was solemnized at St. Mary's Church, Richmond Hill, on Saturday, June 29th, of Albert Rowland Christopher, elder son of Albert Ashton and Mrs. Christopher, and Noreen Haworth, eldest daughter of Lawrence Marshall and Mrs. Haworth, all of May Ave., Vaughan Township. The bride was beautifully gowned and was given in marriage by her father. She was attended by her sisters Mildred and Winnifred Haworth. The groom was attended by his brother Norman. During the signing of the register Miss Doreen Johnson sang "Because". After the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. W. F. Wrixon, a reception was held on the lawn of the bride's parents, after which the happy couple left for Montreal and eastern points for their honeymoon.

BAIN-GLASS The marriage was solemnized on Saturday in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill, of Miss Marguerite Grace Glass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Glass, to Mr. Donald Bain, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bain of Skibo, Scotland.

All standards of delphinium, pink and white peonies formed the setting for the radiantly lovely bride who was escorted to the altar by her father. Her wedding gown was of embroidered silk net over white taffeta. From the slim-fitting waistline of a shirred basque bodice swept a bouffant skirt into a gracefully draped train. A full length bridal illusion veil, falling in soft folds to the hem of the train, was fastened with an attractive cluster of lilies-of-the-valley, and she carried a white prayer book from which fell a cascade of lilies-of-the-valley and bouvardia.

The maid of honor, Miss Eleanor Pearce, who was the bride's attendant, wore a New York importation of pale pink appliqued marquisette over taffeta of a deeper shade. Her hat of varied colored flowers with a waist length veil of heavenly blue was fashioned from a model. The color was carried out in her accessories.

The best man was Arch Walls and the ushers were Robert Dundas and Archibald MacEachern. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Wrixon and Miss Lucy Yerex was at the organ. During the signing of the register Mr. Robert Turp, cousin of the bride, sang "Because". The reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Glass.

receiving in a gown of pink orchid chiffon, a hat of contrasting flowers and a corsage of orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Bain left later by motor for eastern Canada, the bride travelling in a French blue ensemble with navy accessories and wearing stone martins, the gift of the groom. On their return they will live on Russell Hill Rd.

STREET-ANDERSON The home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Anderson of Athabaska Ave., Newtonbrook was the scene of a pretty wedding when their eldest daughter, Norma Rebecca, became the bride of Thomas Paul Street, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Street of Newtonbrook with Rev. A. H. Halbert officiating. Pink and white peonies, syringa blossoms and garden heliotrope formed the background in the living room where the ceremony was performed. Miss Muriel Gibney played the wedding music. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk lace over taffeta. A full length veil was held in place by a coronet of lace and orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and baby's breath. She was attended by her sister Lorna who wore a pink net gown over pink taffeta, a flower hat of pink and blue with streamers and carried a bouquet of talisman roses. The bride's cousin, Doris Anderson, made a lovely flower girl dressed in a primrose yellow silk crepe. Mr. Harold Street was his brother's groomsman. During the signing of the register Mr. Cecil Prosser of Keswick sang "I Love You Truly".

Following the ceremony a reception was held. The bride's mother received in wine lace with white accessories and corsage of roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother in light blue flowered crepe with white accessories and corsage of roses and fern. Six young ladies, friends of the bride, helped serve.

The happy young couple left later on a wedding trip to Northern Ontario, the bride wearing a dusty pink crepe costume with white accessories and a brown fur jacket. On their return they will live at Newtonbrook.
