A trip through Vaughan and Markham Townships these days is a real delight. Crops never looked better, and while some fields are down, much of the grain is standing up well.

The frequent rains have been conducive to abundant growth and lawns and gardens still have the green of early June.

The National Registration offers a wonderful opportunity for voluntary war effort on the part of our people. Those willing to volunteer their services in this district may leave their names at The Liberal office.

WAY BACK IN LIBERAL FILES

From our Issue of July 26th, 1900
Mr. N. Sliney opened the threshing season on Tuesday by threshing for Mr. Matthew McNair. The wheat yield was good and the sample excellent.

At a meeting in the Methodist church Thursday evening, Messrs. W. T. Storey, W. A. Wright and T. F. McMahon were elected church representatives on the Quarterly Board.
Inspector Brownlee has torn up a long stretch of plank sidewalk from Hill's bakery to a point opposite Mr. John Harris' residence, and has laid a thick coat of gravel which will be allowed to remain until next spring when it will receive a covering of asphalt. It has been thought advisable to allow the foundation to settle as this part of the village is inclined to be low and springy.

The lacrosse match played in the park Saturday between Markham and the home team was clean, though the play was not as fast as might have been expected from the reputations of the contestants. The game seemed slower, no doubt, from the fact that Markham arrived in town with only 10 players, and as George Glover was injured early in the game by getting struck in the eye with the ball, and W. Trench retired to even matters up, the greater part of the match was played by only nine men on a side, who had to do the work of twelve. At the close of the match the score stood 4 to 1 in favor of Richmond Hill. The defence players on both sides did exceedingly good work, and Urquhart, Markham's goal-keeper, stopped many swift balls that were fired on the nets with deadly aim. Sims in goal with J. Glass in front also had to watch the Hill net very closely. The match was refereed by Mr. Chas. H. Ellston, and Messrs. A. Wilson and W. Savage acted as umpires.

THIRTY YEARS AGO
From our Issue of July 21st, 1910
The cutting of fall wheat is general in this locality and the best crop in years is being harvested.
The Board of Education have engaged a new Principal for the High School, and are now advertising for two assistants. One of the assistants is to teach geometry, physics, chemistry, bookkeeping and art; the other to take English, French and German.

One of the pleasant features in connection with the visit of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the West is that as Premier of this country and as a distinguished Canadian he is receiving a warm welcome not only by his political friends, but by many who are opposed to him in politics.

BEECHER'S WISH
An exchange reminds us of the story of Dr. Henry Ward Beecher who was once buying a horse. The owner described the animal as follows: "This horse is perfectly sound. He can go any gait, walk, pace, trot or gallop. He will stand without hitching and work any place you put him — on the off side or the near side — buggy, plow or wagon. He is perfectly gentle, though full of spirit; goes when you want him to and stops when you say whoa. He has no bad habits; will neither bite nor kick; comes when you call him and does not run off when he sees anything strange." Dr. Beecher looked admiringly at the animal and said wistfully: "Ah, I wish that horse were a member of my congregation."—(From the Living Church.)

THE NEXT CENSUS
The census is expected to show something else; that the Canadian people are growing older. A generation ago, Canada was known as the young man's country. It is not so much that, now, because the years have piled on the shoulders of the young people of the early days of the century, and new young people, from abroad and the native-born, are not coming in such numbers as formerly. So the average age of the population will be greater. The school statistics have been showing the trend for some years.—(From the Vancouver Daily Province.)

KLEINBURG
The Kleinburg and Nashville Women's Institute are co-operating with the central Red Cross committee to make jam for war refugees and Canadian soldiers. Donations of fruit and sugar are urgently needed. Anyone wishing to help, please get in touch with any Institute member or get containers from Miss A. Cherry, of Kleinburg, or Mrs. Ed. Miller, of Nashville.

CANADA IS WAITING

When the reckless driver is punished, and punished severely, he will think twice before he repeats the offense. The example will be wholesome to others. This is one way to check motor car fatalities, a way that may be followed without more laws or delay. There is no need to harass motorists, the great majority of whom are cautious. But Canada is waiting to see a genuine exhibition of severity in dealing with the few motorists who are responsible for the loss of human life.—(From the Guelph Mercury.)

AMAZING

It is amazing to think that under existing conditions, there should be found even one Christian minister in Canada who, like the United Church parson who has resigned in Victoria, is unable to sing "send him victorious" in the national anthem.—(From the Brockville Recorder and Times.)
