HOW TO DIVE

Many can swim, but not all can dive. Why dive? Because it is the easiest way of entering the water, and since you are in correct position, you are ready to start swimming immediately.

Here are some simple lessons. Sit on the edge of the pool, feet wide apart. Bend your body between your knees, keep head tucked down, arms up, thumbs locked together. Take a deep breath, close your mouth, and fall in from that position.

Your body ought to straighten out while you are under the water, and you should hold that position until you come to the surface. The hands pointed upward, once you're under the water, will soon bring you to the surface.

Now we come to the next step.
 You take a kneeling position, close to the water's edge, head down, etc., attaining the same position you previously held. Take a deep breath again and fall in from your kneeling attitude, holding yourself as before until you reach the surface.

Now you're ready to dive from an upright stance. Stand at the edge of the pool, your toes gripping the side, your knees slightly bent. Do not forget to tuck your head in between your extended arms, because, if you raise it on entering the water, you may fall on your stomach. Unpleasant trick, that! You fall in as you did in the previous dives. Do the same dive again, this time with the knees held stiff.

And so you find yourself ready for a really neat entry into the water.
 Co-ordinate your arm swing with the spring in your legs. Take your last stance, body straight. Now, simultaneously bend your knees and swing your arms sharply down and back.

When the arms are away back, rise on your toes, lose balance, straighten knees snappily, and swing your arms easily in front of your head. The angle is at about 45 degrees, head down, and body perfectly straight, just as in the former dive. Give yourself sufficient leg thrust as you leave the side.

Remember, the head is the controlling factor in diving. Its weight and position tell in every dive.

In ordinary plain dives, holding the head too far back causes the performance to be flat. If you hold it too low, you overdrive, and practically turn a somersault.

And now, just practise this last front dive until you feel that it is no effort at all to enter the water the professional way.

THORNHILL

Late Walter Stephenson

The funeral of the late Walter Stephenson was held from the home of his son Monday afternoon to Thornhill cemetery. Mr. Stephenson was in his seventy-third year, having been born at Thornhill in 1867, and lived all his life within a few miles of the place of his birth. Forty years ago he was married to Ethel Woods who predeceased him two years ago. For a number of years he farmed on upper Bathurst street near Wilson avenue, being associated with Asbury United Church.

A brother James, residing in Saskatchewan, is the only remaining member of a family of ten. He leaves also a family of four boys and four daughters, John Henry, Woodbridge; Harold, Willowdale; Nelson, North Toronto; Carman, Bathurst Street, North York; Mrs. Earl Jackson, Elia; Lillian and Elsie, Toronto, and Mrs. John Rooke, Rouge Hill.

Rev. E. C. Moddle, a former pastor, assisted by Rev. G. W. Lynd, conducted the funeral service at the home.

TESTON

Late last Thursday evening, July 19th, Howard P. Jackson was returning from Maple where he had been calling on his father, Mr. Herbert Jackson, who is an invalid, and was struck and killed instantly about a mile north of Maple by a car driven by Clark Robson. The usual proceedings were taken and afterwards the remains were removed to Law-rie's Undertaking Parlours. A private funeral service was held Sunday afternoon from his late residence, Rev. D. Davis officiating. After interment was made in Maple Cemetery.

The tragic passing of the late Mr.
 Jackson was a shock to neighbours and friends of the district. Sympathy of many friends and relatives is extended to the family in their bereavement. He is survived by the widow, 2 sons and 3 daughters.

The many friends wish a speedy recovery for Mrs. Ed. Kyle who is in the Western Hospital where she underwent an operation. Also Mrs.
 Albert Ireland of Pine Grove who is in the Hospital.

Holidays Wanted

In addition to the children and mothers sent each summer to Camp Bolton, the Neighborhood Workers Association strives to provide holidays for some 1200 children who for various reasons cannot be sent to camp.

Through the Country Home Department these children are sent to homes within a radius of 150 miles from Toronto. The Neighborhood Workers Association pays all transportation costs but no board is paid.
 Persons living in the country who have room in their home for one or two children generously co-operate with the N.W.A. by taking city children for a two weeks vacation period free of charge.

It is not expected that the hostess will lay out any elaborate plan of entertainment for the child. Any home that can offer a garden — or a nearby green field (practically unknown to many children who live in the factory areas); three plain, nourishing meals a day, and a comfortable bed, can be a happy holiday spot.

Holiday homes need not be any great distance from the city. Even homes on the outskirts of Toronto can provide unbelievable pleasure for children who live in the crowded downtown areas.

Pressing need of the Neighborhood Workers Association at present is to locate farm homes where boys from eight to twelve years of age can realize their dream of "living on a real farm."

Hostesses of previous years have, in a great many cases, invited back to their homes the children who visited them last year. Also, there is very little difficulty in placing small children around four to seven years of age. But there are hundreds of children over seven—many of whom are called upon to bear heavy responsibilities in their homes — who are in need, and very deserving of a vacation.

Letters of invitation should be addressed to the Neighborhood Workers Association, Country Homes Department, 22 Wellesley Street, Toronto. They should state clearly how many children are invited; the age and sex preferred, and give details of the best transportation route, and where the children will be met; also a letter of reference from the minister of their church.

All children are medically examined before leaving Toronto.
