Junior Farm Boys And Girls Raising Ambulance Fund

Have already subscribed $575 of $1750 needed for ambulance to be presented to Red Cross.

Junior Farmers and Junior Farm Women are not only doing an excellent job on the farms of Ontario, but they have already subscribed $575 toward the $1750 needed to provide an ambulance for the Red Cross Society, states A. H. Martin, Assistant Director of Agricultural Representatives, Ont. Dept. of Agriculture, who is in charge of the fund.

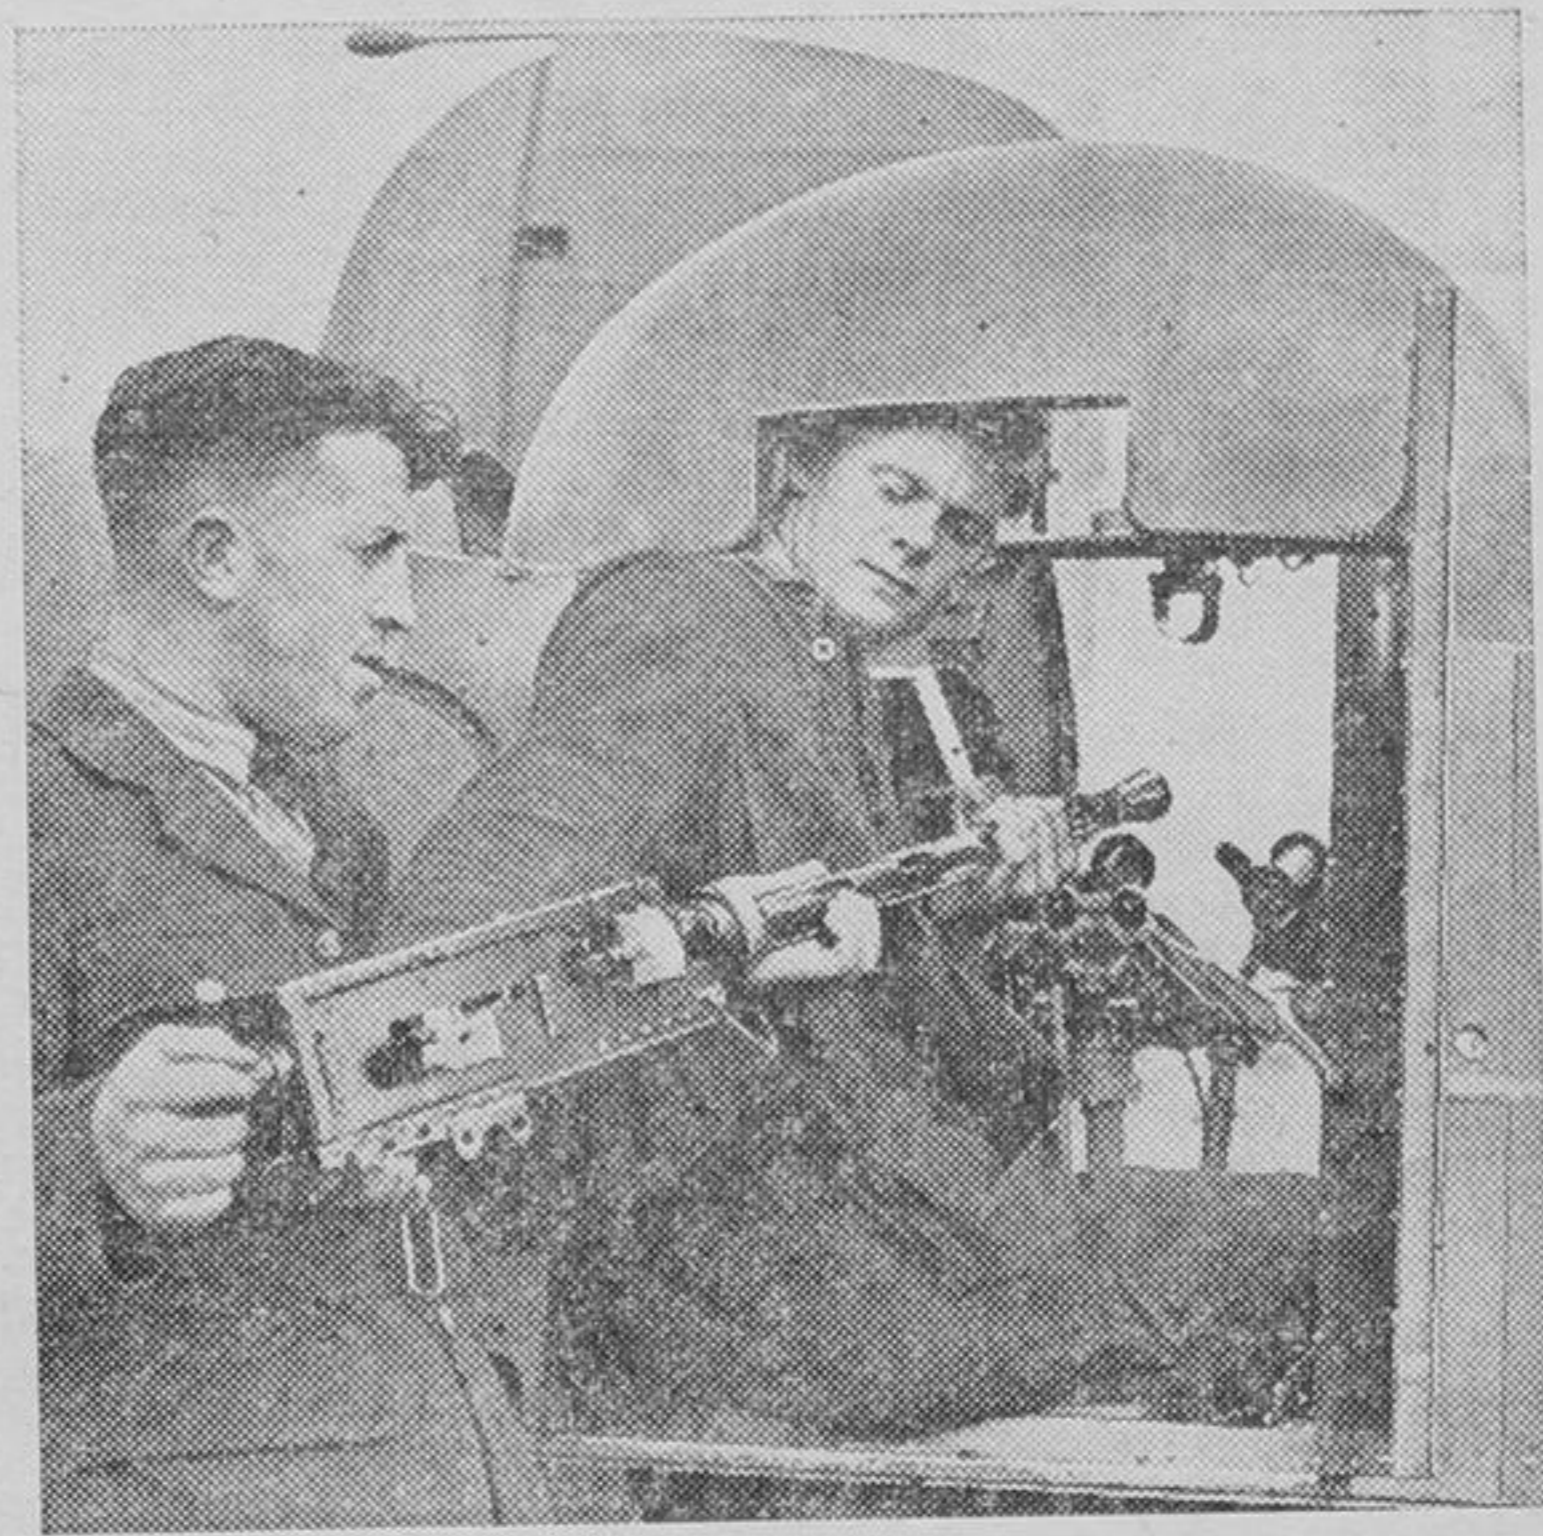

The suggestion that Junior Farmers and Junior Farm Women purchase an ambulance for the Red Cross was first made in the June issue of the "Junior Farmer News" which goes to all Junior farm organizations each month from the Agricultural Representative Branch, and was enthusiastically received by the Juniors.

All cheques and money orders should be forwarded to Mr. Martin, Ont. Dept. of Agriculture, Toronto, and made in favour of the Junior Farmer and Junior Farm Women Ambulance Fund. No contribution will be too large and none too small, Mr. Martin states. It is expected that every Junior Farm Organization in the Province will contribute to the fund.

The ambulance, a standard, fully equipped, four-bed vehicle, will be purchased through the Red Cross and will carry a name plate indicative of the Junior Farmers and Junior Farm Women.

Brampton post of the Canadian Legion formed a home guard unit on Tuesday evening when 48 men of all ages reported for the first of a series of military training sessions. Most of them had no previous experience in military lines. Gordon Stratton and B. C. Smith are first and second in command.

THE STING GOES IN

Cleaned and oiled, the machine guns go into a British bomber before it sets out over Germany. They are the bomber's sting and will pour a deadly hail of bullets into any attacking aircraft.

Weed of the Week, POISON IVY

Poison Ivy may be found growing under a variety of conditions throughout Old or Southern Ontario. Everyone should be familiar with it and should take immediate steps to eradicate it. It is sometimes mistaken for Virginia Creeper, though is easily distinguished by its leaves which are in groups of three, whereas those of the Virginia Creeper are in fives. The leaves of Poison Ivy are quite smooth, glossy and firm.

Poison Ivy has a distressing toxic action on the skin. The active principle of the plant is an oil which is present throughout root, stem, leaf, flower and fruit and even the easily detached hairs. Tearing or bruising of any part liberates the oil which comes in contact with exposed parts of the body.

Poison Ivy can be entirely eradicated by the use of chemical sprays. One method is to dissolve 1 pound of Sodium Chlorate in 1 pound of Elephant Brand Ammonium Sulphate to 1 gallon of water and spray to saturation any time after the middle of June, using a fine nozzle sprayer with as much pressure as possible. Wet the infested area thoroughly. Use Elephant Brand Ammonium Sulphate.

CAUTION: Do not mix Sodium Chlorate and Ammonium Sulphate in dry form. Each ingredient should be put separately into the water immediately before spraying.

A second method is to spray with Atlacide Weed Killer, 2 pounds per gallon of water. Apply this solution in the form of a fine spray any time during the growing season. If new growth appears late in the fall a second spraying will be necessary. Thorough cultivation will eradicate Poison Ivy. Hand pulling is often the simplest way to eradicate it from very small areas. Trailing parts should be pulled or grubbed out. Gloves should be worn and precautions taken to prevent transferring the oil to the skin. Persons highly susceptible to poisoning should leave the work to others. Cattle, sheep and goats relish Poison Ivy and can pasture in it without any harmful effects.

Space does not permit a lengthy discussion of treatment for poisoning so it is suggested that all interested persons should write the crops, seeds and weeds branch, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, for the pamphlet "Poison Ivy". It will be sent immediately free of charge.

Ontario, with its thousands of children and its enormous revenue derived annually from tourists, cannot afford to neglect this weed. Municipal councils, organizations, summer resort owners, park commissioners, school trustees, road authorities and the general public are urged to completely eradicate this weed.

AS I GO ON MY WAY

(By Strickland Gillilan)

My life shall touch a dozen lives before this day is done—
 Leave countless marks for good or ill ere sets this evening's sun.
 Shall fair or foul its imprint prove, on those my life shall hall?
 Shall benison my impress be, or shall a blight prevail?

When to the last great reckoning the lives I meet must go,
 Shall this wee, fleeting touch of mine have added joy or woe?
 Shall He who looks their records o'er—of name and time and place—
 Say: "Here a blessed influence came", or "Here is evil's trace"?

From out each point of contact of my life with other lives
 Flows ever that which helps the one who for the summit strives.
 The troubled souls encountered—does it sweeten with its touch,
 Or does it more embitter those embittered overmuch?

Does love through every handclasp flow in sympathy's caress?
 Do those that I have greeted know a newborn hopefulness?
 Are tolerance and charity the keynote of my song
 As I go plodding onward with earth's eager, anxious throng?

My life shall touch a million lives in some way ere I go
 From this dear world of struggle to the land I do not know.
 So this the wish I always wish, the prayer I ever pray:
 Let my life help the other lives it touches by the way!

William the Conqueror, subsequent to his successful invasion of Britain in 1066, caused a Domesday Book to be compiled showing the human and material resources of his newly-acquired domain. Canada, through the instrument of its National Resources Mobilization Act, is shortly to follow that early example by making a complete inventory of the human resources available to meet the Empire crisis now facing us. A new department known as the National War Services, headed by the former Premier of Saskatchewan, Honourable James G. Gardiner, has been created which will start the machinery at once for a nation-wide registration of our man power.

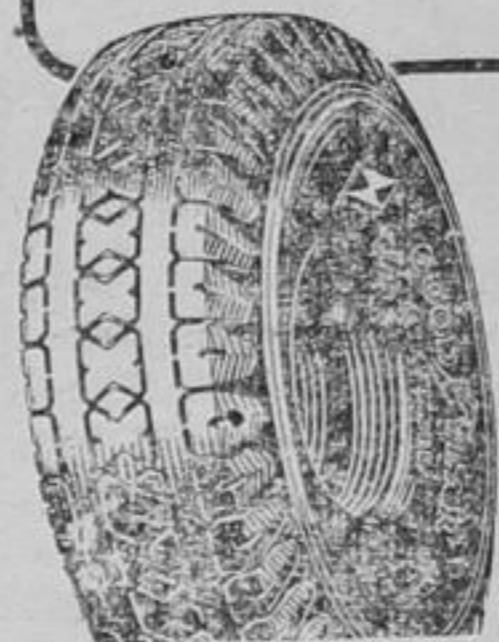

It is not healthy to be a traitor to Canada. The death penalty is now being extended to fifth columnists in this country who are found guilty of this cowardly and revolting crime. The bill is now passing quickly through both Houses of Parliament. Needless to say, everybody was of one accord in favor of this much needed legislation.

Keep your chin up — there'll always be an England.
