DESPITE AIR RAIDS AND LOSS OF HOMES BRITISH PEOPLE CAN STILL SMILE

The following are extracts from letter received by Mrs. George Masters, Richmond Hill, from her sister in England:

18 Burnham Drive, Worcester Pk. Surrey, Tues., Sept. 10, 1940

Dear Em, George and Kiddies:— Many thanks for your much looked for letter; I am answering it during an air raid. I suppose you hear all about the wretched things, lasting eight and nine hours at night and several in the day. Most times in the day it is only yarnings. Ron's sister and Aunt have had their houses badly damaged and they have had to leave them. Auntie's has to be pulled down which seems a shame. Still with all the scares, the British people can always smile, and old Hitler and his gang sure have it coming to them. I only wish our kiddies were with you, but the plan seems to have been given up for the time being anyway.

"I never thought we'd see another war, still I'm sure we'll come through with flying colors although it may be a long struggle. We have rigged up an indoor shelter downstairs for the time being and both kiddies are asleep there, bless their hearts. We don't know what bed feels like."

Ron, Ren and Kiddies. The writing of the above letter was interrupted by an air raid. A.P.S. said "raid started 8.10 Tuesday evening and finished at 5.45 Wednesday morning. We're fine in spite of it. The British shot down 90 enemy planes yesterday, three cheers."

The October meeting of W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Brown 'Sr. A splendid attendance was at this meeting. It was under the leadership of Mrs. Jas. Russell and Miss Rhea Scott. Mrs. Stiver conducted the devotional period.

Miss Rhea Scott took as her topic Dr. Evans and his work among the Indians and his mode of teaching them through writing his message on birch bark. This proved to be very interesting. Other readings on this same theme were given by Mrs. Hill, Miss Mary Rodick and Mrs. Patterson.

The presentation of a bed light was made to Mrs. Constable by Mrs. Norman Reid. She has been a very faithful worker in the W.M.S. and will be greatly missed as she makes her home in the city. The good wishes of all go with her that she may continue her valuable assistance in God's great work.

Games were then conducted by Mrs. Walter Craig and enjoyed by all. A very delicious lunch was then served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Jack Brown.

Letters From The People

OFFERS REWARD FOR RETURN OF BULBS

Editor, The Liberal,

Sir:—

In order to give a little extra brightness to this blackout burg, the lights over my front lawn, placed for the benefit of the Lions Club street dance, I was leaving for occasional lighting during the winter months. The 24 globes however have been removed and must be presumably somewhere in the village. Anyone knowing by whom they were taken, from where they can be recovered, and replaced, may receive a reward of ten dollars, or I will give an equivalent sum to the local Red Cross.

Yours truly,
Wm. Davies.
