Fred Timbers Banqueted

In spite of very bad road conditions, about 300 attended the banquet at the King Edward Hotel on Thursday evening, December 5 when the York County Council and the three Plowmen's Associations of York County tendered a complimentary banquet to Fred Timbers of Stouffville to show their appreciation of the honour which he brought to Ontario and to York County in particular, by winning the top honours over the champions of various States at the First National Plowing Match at Davenport, Iowa, on Oct. 29th. Included in the gathering were a number of Fred's friends from points outside of the County and officials of the Ontario Plowman's Association, as well as a number of Fred's former coaches and helpers.

J. A. Carroll, Secretary-manager of the International Plowing Match, was the guest speaker and was introduced by the chairman of the evening, Mr. Jas. Rennie of Markham. Mr. Carroll who accompanied the Canadian plowmen to Iowa, spoke of the interesting highlights of their trip.

Mr. Timbers was presented with a handsome mantel clock by Warden R. E. Bales on behalf of the County of York and Mrs. Timbers was presented with a large basket of chrysanthemums by Mr. Clark Young, treasurer of the Ontario Plowmen's Association on behalf of the three Plowmen's Associations.

The programme also included dance numbers by Misses Frances Allen and Jean Smith and Zanoni, the magician, delighted the audience with his clever tricks of magic. The pianist of the evening was Mrs. Marie Draper Lyons of Newmarket.

Newtonbrook

Next Sunday, December 15, Newtonbrook United Church Sunday School is celebrating its 90th anniversary with special services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. The morning service will be conducted by Rev. R. W. Rumley of Agincourt, and the pastor will conduct the evening service. The Sunday School choir will sing. The White Gift Service will be a special feature. Help brighten somebody else's Christmas by bringing something useful. Sunday School will meet at 10.30 a.m. next Sunday morning.

The annual S.S. Christmas entertainment will be held next Tuesday, December 17 at 7.45 p.m. in Newtonbrook United Church S.S. hall. A good program will be presented including a pageant and pantomime entitled "The Christmas Story". Every S.S. class is contributing a number. A cordial welcome to all. The S.S. children will be admitted free. Adults 25c. Children outside of the Sunday School, 10c. Santa Claus is expected to arrive by aeroplane about 9.30.

The Mission Band held their annual meeting last Saturday with an attendance of forty-five. Reta Hurd the president opened the meeting with a call to worship, hymn and prayer. The Christmas lesson taken from Luke 2nd chapter was recited by Douglas Hurd. Elise Wells conducted the devotional period explaining the lesson and offered prayer. Helen Gilmore gave a recitation and the Bethlehem Lullaby was sung by members. Mrs. Pearson told an interesting Christmas story on "Sharing at Christmas". A Christmas playlet entitled "Songs of Christmas" was well presented and much enjoyed by all. Mrs. Halbert gave the annual report. The membership had increased over 200 per cent and also the givings and altogether the Mission Band had a very successful year. A treat of candy was given the members at the close of meeting. Rev. A. H. Halbert conducted the election of officers and all the offices were filled for 1941. This will be the last meeting until after the New Year.

The Young People's Union held a very successful banquet last Monday evening when they entertained the members of the Official Board. Mr. Roy Gurney, the Y.P.U. president, was master of ceremonies and proposed the toast to the King and was responded to by all singing the National Anthem. Mr. Reg. Hewitt proposed the toast to the church which was responded to by Rev. A. H. Halbert. The guest speaker was Mr. C. R. Conquergood of Toronto. His subject was "Happy Though Married" and emphasized the need of the home being built on Christian principles and that selfishness was the cause of much unhappiness. Miss Mary Campbell moved a hearty vote of thanks to the speaker of the evening. Mr. Jack Duggan conducted a sing song which brought a very happy evening to a close.

The music given by Rev. W. A. Hunnisset and his orchestra last Friday evening at the Sunday School entertainment was very much appreciated by all. It is hoped that they will return at some future occasion. Lurcheon was served to the artists of the evening after the entertainment and the Young Ladies' Class served.

Miss Mary Campbell took a prominent place in the play "A Family Portrait" which was presented by Victoria University at Hart House on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Campbell, Rev. and Mrs. Halbert, Mrs. Jones, Miss Ruth Campbell and Mr. Colin Campbell attended the play in Hart House last Saturday evening.

Misses Marion, Evelyn and Lottie Case left last week to spend the winter in the city.

Mrs. Kent is in the General Hospital recovering from an attack of pneumonia.
 Mrs. Gordon Hurd returned from the hospital last Friday and is making a very good recovery.

HEADFORD

White Gift Service will be observed in Headford United Church on Sunday, December 15th. Contributions will be forwarded to the Fred Victor Mission.

The annual Sunday School entertainment and Christmas Tree will be held on Wednesday evening, December 18th, at 8 o'clock sharp in Headford United Church.
