The Stouffville Tribune last week told an interesting story of the experience of a Markham Township farmer who attended one of those auction sales where packages and parcels left on trains and street cars are sold by auction. The farmer in question attended one of those auction sales and attracted probably by their size, the Markham farmer purchased two huge boxes, sturdily put up, and very imposing. They ought to be worth the money, and if there is anything in size, well he was about to have it. Going, going, gone, yelled the auctioneer, and the box came to Markham. On being opened, what do you imagine the big packing outfit was filled with? Nothing more than a few thousand 1939 calendars, and old paper is worth but $4 per ton.

"Oddest accidents of the year," as selected by the United States National Safety Council, include:
1—Joseph Callahan, Chicago, dozed and slipped from his chair. His false teeth landed, toothside up, on the floor. Mr. Callahan's head came down on the same spot. The result was a bite on the forehead.
2—Beb Forde, Marysville, Calif., couldn't dope out why two men approaching him were walking so far apart. He decided to go between them. He walked through a large sheet of window glass they were carrying.
3—Eugene Ramsey, Bugaw, N.C., carpenter, was building a mouse trap. "Zing", went the trap, catching Mr. Ramsey's finger. He hurled the contraption under the kitchen stove. It struck a mouse and killed it.

Ontario Winter Fair Sponsors Seed Show

Will be held in Toronto week of February 10th states Vice-President E. K. Hampson — Prize list available January 1st.

A Winter Seed Show, similar to the successful show held last year, will again be sponsored by the seed division of the Ont. Provincial Winter Fair (Guelph Winter Fair) E. K. Hampson, Hamilton, vice-president of the Fair announces. The show will be held the week of February 10th in the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, and will provide an opportunity for dealers and farmers to view and purchase the best in seed grain.

The show, Mr. Hampson points out, is strictly commercial and only those growers who have substantial quantities of seed grain for sale will be eligible to compete in the various classes.

The prize list and other particulars will be available about January 1st. All enquiries should be addressed to the secretary of the show, L. E. O'Neill, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

CARRVILLE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Guelph Mayers was burned to the ground. The origin of the fire is unknown. This house was on the Carrville mill property. The mill was burned down several years ago when Mr. Ross Bowes owned it.

Mr. Stan Wood has joined the R.C.A.F. as a tractor and truck driver and expects to be called for duty the first of the year.

Carrville Ladies' Club held their Bingo and Dance on Saturday, December 7th at Richvale school. The draw took place for the Snow White Doll and was won by a 3-year-old girl, Madaline Bolter, No. 71. Bingo prizes were won by Miss Eileen Dickinson and Mr. Johnstone. Lucky spot dance prize winners were Mrs. Webb and Mr. Walter Dickinson.

We wish to thank Tamblins, the Robt. Simpson Co. and Kerr's Grocery for the gifts donated, also Mr. Alan Morris who so ably rendered the musical part of the programme.

When the U.S. presidential vote was unofficially announced, curious people inquired in vain for the standing of any but the Democratic and Republican candidates. Now the official results show that while these polled over 27,000,000 and 22,000,000 votes respectively, Norman Thomas, Socialist, polled only 116,796; Roger Babson, Prohibitionist, 58,600; and Earl Browder, Communist, 48,789. In the States, as in Canada, the two major parties quite eclipse the others.

Presbyterian General Assembly of which Rev. Dr. William Barclay of Hamilton is moderator, meets for its annual session at Victoria Presbyterian Church, Toronto, on June 4. Rev. Ross Cameron, of Dovercourt Road Presbyterian Church, is chairman of the arrangements committee.
