North York Township grocers and butchers have adopted 10 p.m. closing for Saturday nights.

The sale was reported last week of "Bonnie Burn" farm, on the corner of the fourth concession and No. 7 Highway, and owned by William Brooke. A Toronto Doctor is reported to be the purchaser.

In Parkhill, Mrs. Mary Jane Mark, in her will left $1000 to a church, but forgot to state which church it was. A justice of the Supreme Court will be asked what should be done about it.

Foxes up in Dundalk vicinity are maintaining their reputation for clever thinking. A hunter thought he shot a nice fox and was about to pick up his prey and Mr. Fox jumped up and ran away.

"The Princesses will leave this country when I leave, and I will leave when the children's father leaves, and their father will not leave this country under any circumstances."—Queen Elizabeth.

The Liberal will welcome letters from men on active service in Canada or overseas. Letters from friends telling of conditions in Britain make interesting reading and we will appreciate the opportunity of publishing them.

Sunday was Candlemas Day, and if the groundhog wasn't blind he must have seen his shadow, which according to tradition means some more winter weather. More sure than the belief about Candlemas Day is the fact that winter is now officially half over. As the rhyme goes: "Half your wood and half your hay, should be left on Candlemas Day".

The farm sale of Walter Bradshaw, north of Stouffville last week totalled about $3500. The high cow sold for $95 with the herd average $80. The binder sold for $220 and the manure spreader brought $125.
Wats and other grain sold for good prices.

Easter, the next holiday season, is considerably later this year than in 1940. Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, falls on February 26th, with Good Friday, the conclusion of the fasting period, on April 11th, and then Easter Sunday following on the 13th. Last year the Easter season was ushered in with wintry blasts and was a disappointment to local feminine fashion exponents but with the later date this year the weather should be more favourable for the annual fashion parade.

Foster Russell, editor of the Coldwater News, said something which newspapermen at least will agree needed saying when he pointed out in a front page editorial in his paper that "there is no such thing as free publicity." As Mr. Russell explained, "newspapers may give you or your organization publicity without charge, but it is not free, for the publisher has to pay for the linotyping, setting and printing, and all this costs money."

Increased attendance at Sunday services was reported by Rev. J. H.
Kidd at the Christ Church, Woodbridge, vestry meeting Monday night, January 27th. Mr. Kidd also reported his investigations had revealed the congregation dated back to 1842, indicating that the church will celebrate its centennial next year. Congregation members urged a continuation of the historical research and suggested publication of the findings in printed form. Reports from all departments showed receipts totalling $3812.94, with expenditures listed at $3,319.48.

Election of officers resulted in H.
N. Smith being named Rector's Warden for the 18th consecutive year, and Arthur Weatherill as People's Warden for the 12th consecutive year. Others named were: Vestry Clerk, Mrs. Ross Livingston; Lay Delegates to Toronto Diocesan Synod, Alfred Thompson and Victor Dumbleton; Substitute delegate, Thomas Cole; Vestry council and cemetery com., R. T. Wallace, Thos.
Cole, N. Wiley, A. Thompson, R.
Simpson, E. Ring, E. Brown, Mrs.
H. N. Smith, Miss M. Wallace, E.
P. Barker, James Smith and the Wardens: Auditors, E. Brown and Gordon Kidd.
Twenty-three sidesmen were re-elected to that office.

WAY BACK IN THE LIBERAL FILES

FORTY YEARS AGO

From our Issue of Feb. 7th, 1901 The Quarterly Board of the Thornhill Circuit passed a unanimous invitation inviting their pastor, Rev.
Mr. Keam, to remain on their circuit a fourth year.

Messrs. Saigeon & McEwen conducted a successful auction sale for Mr. Wm. Shunk at Sherwood Wednesday. A colt rising two years brought $125, yearling heifers $40, and milch cows $75.

The fastest and most interesting game played here this season was played Monday night between the Excelsiors of Toronto and the home team resulting in a victory for the visitors by 4 goals to 3.

The funeral of the late Rev. John O. Clubine took place from the residence of his father, Mr. W. H. Clubine, Yonge Street, Saturday forenoon, to Newmarket. Deep sorrow is felt for the sudden death of this promising young man who was loved by all who knew him. Thornhill Methodist Church was packed Sunday evening when a memorial service was held, several clergymen taking part in the solemn service.

The passing of Mrs. Francis Leaf, wife of the late George Leaf, on the 1st inst. is a matter of deep regret to the many who will always have the pleasant and most affectionate remembrances of this kindly lady whose life was marked by many acts of kindness and liberality to those less fortunate in life than she was.
Deceased was laid at rest beside her late husband on Monday, Feb. 4th, in the cemetery here, the Rev. W.
Dean officiating. Deceased was 68 years of age.

Aurora is offering $10,000 to Messrs. Underhill & Sisman, boot and shoe manufacturers, who are leaving Markham.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

From our Issue of Feb. 2nd, 1911 The Curlers' Sitting Room at the rink, with its cheery fire and comfortable chairs, is quite inviting.
Visitors always welcome.

As predicted, the auction sale of Mr. James Baker's property near Carrville on Wednesday of last week was the largest of the season. Fully 2000 were present, and auctioneer Prentice realized $5000 between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Thornhill and Richmond Hill curlers had a friendly match here Saturday, and the return match was played at Thornhill Tuesday evening. In the first match Richmond Hill won by a point, and in the return match by 3 shots. On Saturday skip T. Hughes defeated A. G.
Savage's rink by 6 points, and J. H.
Sanderson was 7 up from H. Hooper.
Tuesday evening C. P. Wiley won from A. Pearson by 13-6, and H. A. Nicholls lost to H. Hooper 8-12.

On Tuesday, January 31st, at 8 a.m. in St. Mary's R.C. Church, the marriage of Miss Louise E. Lynett, formerly of Richmond Hill, to Mr.
P. W. Ryan of Chicago was solemnized. The bride was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. F. Lynett, while the groom was supported by his brother-in-law, Mr. F. Lynett.
Rev. Father Grant officiated. The wedding breakfast was held at the home of Mr. F. Lynett after which the happy couple left by afternoon train amid showers of good wishes for a short honeymoon after which they will return to their future home in Chicago.

Partially blind for several years and not too well in health, Miss Margaret Riddell of Sutton passed her 101st milestone on Friday of last week as interested as ever in the doings of the world. She declared desire to stay alive and follow this war by radio through to hear a final victory. Miss Riddell, born in Baldwin, lives with her sister, Mrs. A. Mallory.

"Where is my wandering boy tonight,
I wonder, near or far?"
An anxious parent asks, and adds:
"And also where's the car"

Wedding

DELBROCCO—HICKL-SZABO

In St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Richmond Hill, Wednesday morning, January 22, a pretty wedding was solemnized when Ruth An-tonette Hickl-Szabo became the bride of Philip DelBrocco, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luigi DelBrocco of Carrville.
The mass was conducted by Father Keane. The bride was escorted to the altar by Dr. Charles A. Stewart.
The bride was lovely in a bridal gown of lace with a long train, gown fashioned with a peter pan collar and long sleeves, slightly puffed at the shoulder. Her finger length veil was arranged with white gardenias and her bouquet was a mixture of ferns, carnations, sweet peas and baby mums.

The bride was attended by Miss Marie Josephine DelBrocco, sister of the groom, gowned in blue and wore a shoulder length veil arranged with blue gardenias. She carried a bou-quet of snapdragons and baby mums.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Donald DelBrocco.
The reception was held at the home of the groom's parents. The bride and groom left on a short trip and on their return they will reside in Carrville.

Get Weanling
Pigs off to a flying start.

To make profits from hogs, feed Quaker Pig Starter, and get them ready for market at 200 to 220 pounds weight at the age of about 5 to 6 months.

Quaker Pig Starter is built around oatmeal, and research farms have definitely proved that oatmeal makes pigs grow faster, develops big strong frames, and increases resistance to disease. Because oatmeal is 94 per cent digestible, there is less waste, and the pigs convert it into meat far more quickly and economically.
