Reports at Annual Meeting Newtonbrook United Church Reflect Year of Progress

A Hot Dinner featured the annual congregational meeting of Newtonbrook United Church which was held last Wednesday evening in the Church School room with a large attendance. This was followed by the business meeting which was opened by a hymn "Blest be the tie that binds", Psalm 121, and prayer by Rev. A. H. Halbert. Mr. W. T. New was appointed secretary for the meeting. The Sunday School report was presented by Mr. Irwin Brown. The Sunday School met every Sunday during the year with an average attendance of 84. The first Sunday in each month is set aside for missionary purposes. The offerings on these Sundays for missions amounted to over $37.00. The Home Dept. has a membership of 30 and contributed $10.25. Some of the highlights of the year were the annual Sunday School Supper & Party held in February, Mother's Day service, the annual S.S. picnic to Woodland Park, Rally Day service, a concert by Rev. W. A. Hunnisett and his orchestra, the S.S. anniversary and White Gift service, and the annual Christmas Tree and entertainment. Mrs. Halbert's class of young ladies presented a Christmas pageant based on the Manger Scene at the evening worship service on Christmas Sunday.

The Cradle Roll has a membership of 35. The Cradle Roll Supt., Mrs. L. A. Grisdale, made 35 calls. Temperance education was stressed in the S.S. during the year. A Temperance Oratorical Contest is held annually in the local Sunday School. This was held Feb. 25. Miss Elise Wells was awarded first prize. She also competed in the North York Temperance Oratorical Contest at King City on March 1st and was awarded second place in a class of nine competitors. Dr. A. J. Irwin, General Secretary of the O.R.E.C., Supt. of the S.S. on Sunday, Feb. 4th and presented a charter for the Youth Temperance Post which was organized in our S.S. the previous year and has now a membership of 75. Those who signed the pledge were over 12 years of age.

Miss Irene Thompson of Richmond Hill, winner in the Senior Class in the Provincial Temperance Oratorical Contest addressed our S. S. on Mar. 17. Rev. A. H. Halbert addressed the S.S. on Temperance in October. The S.S. choir of 30 voices sang at the opening service on Sept. 29th to celebrate the 100th anniversary of Newtonbrook United Church. Rev. A. H. Halbert was in charge of the service. The S.S. Supt., Mr. A. W. Galbraith, gave the address of welcome and Rev. C. B. Lawson, D.D., of Toronto, who attended the Newtonbrook Methodist Sunday School as a small boy was the special preacher on this occasion. Former S.S. Supts. who were present at this service were: Mr. Fred R. James who was Supt. from 1885-1889; Mr. J. R. Smith, 1923-1933, and Mr. L. A. Grisdale and the present Supt., Mr. A. W. Galbraith.

The report of the Young People's Union was presented by Miss Doris VanLoven. There is a membership of 35 with an average attendance of 28. Some of the most outstanding meetings were the annual banquet with Mr. C. R. Conquergood of Toronto as guest speaker. On this occasion the members of the Official Board and their wives were guests. A debate with Thornhill Y.P.U., a missionary meeting with Rev. J. A. Torrance as speaker, a Christian Fellowship meeting addressed by Sister Beatrice of St. John's Convalescent Hospital, a Christian Culture meeting addressed by Mr. Douglas Cooper of Leaside. The Young People presented a play last May entitled "Look Who's Here". The social activities included a sleighing party, Valentine social, annual picnic to Mossington Park, bacon fry and a Hallowe'en social. The Y.P.U. conducted one Sunday evening worship service in the absence of the pastor at conference time. A Young People's service was held in conjunction with Centenary Services last autumn with Dr. C. W. DeMille of North Parkdale United Church as special speaker. Lansing Young People's choir gave special music. After the service the local Y.P.U. served refreshments. As their share in the Centenary services the Young People provided the church calendars. Amount raised during the year was $80.00.

Mrs. Reid Brumwell presented the report of the Women's Association. Eleven meetings were held with an average attendance of 18. Each member responds to the roll call with the number of church calls she has made, 438 calls being reported. Some of the activities were the Centenary Anniversary Dinner and Concert, congregational dinner, plunkett dinner, St. Patrick's supper, a spring tea, birthday tea and bazaar. Fifty quilts have been made and quilted for refugees, also hospital supplies etc. The receipts amounted to $378.

A hearty vote of appreciation was extended to the organist, Miss Bertha Smith and the choir for their valuable services in the worship services. The givings of the missionary and maintenance were a trifle lower than last year, but more contributions were expected to come in.

Mrs. W. T. New gave a concise report of the Auxiliary of the W.M.S. which held ten meetings during the year. Christian Stewardship was stressed at five meetings. One meeting was devoted to Temperance. The W.M.S. Sunday service was held in June and was addressed by Rev. Frank Russell, D.D., of India. A Tulip Tea was held early in June at the home of Mrs. W. T. Wells. A life membership was presented to Mrs. New in appreciation of her work as recording secretary for five years. The missionary bale sent in June was valued at $121.00. The Auxiliary were guests of Willowdale United W.M.S. also Willowdale Baptist W.M.S. and attended the Day of Prayer service at Lansing.

Mrs. Halbert gave the report of the Girls' Mission Circle. Nine meetings were held with an average attendance of twelve. The study book was used and some of the chapters were dramatized which made it more interesting. A bale consisting of babies' layettes, children's knitted clothing, three cot quilts, etc. valued at $37.00 was sent to Headquarters. Among the guest speakers during the year were Dr. Frank Russell and Dr. Margaret McKellar of India and Miss Gertrude Aikenhead, Supt. of the Victor Home for girls. We were also honored in having Miss R. Duff, provincial secretary of the W.C.T.U. address the Temperance meeting. Richmond Hill Evening Auxiliary were guests at the Easter meeting and conducted the devotional, also contributed vocal numbers. A birthday tea followed to celebrate the eighth anniversary of the Circle's organization. Miss Doris VanLoven, the treasurer, reported that the allocation had been raised. Receipts amounted to over $30.00.

The Mission Band report given by Mrs. Halbert revealed increased interest. The membership and givings had increased over 200 per cent. 19 meetings were held with an average attendance of 33. A Temperance meeting was conducted entirely by the boys and the scripture story of "Daniel before the King" was dramatized. The parents were invited guests at the Easter meeting when the Band members presented a pageant, "The first Easter". Mrs. J. I. McKay of India gave an address and exhibited curios. Over 70 were present. Lantern slides were used quite frequently. After the regular meeting was over several parties were held, including St. Valentine, Hallowe'en and an Indian party. A Christmas playlet was used at the Christmas meeting. An award for proficiency was presented to the Mission Band for the year's work by the Toronto Centre Presbyterial. Total amount raised was $26.05. The Mission Band also contributed to the sale to the value of $13.00. The Baby Band has a membership of 25.

A carefully prepared report of the church was well presented by Mr. Harry Smith. The collections of the Good Friday service amounting to $22.41 was paid direct to the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto. The Centenary services held last autumn for three successive Sundays was an important event in the church's history with large congregations at every service and was a great success.

Rev. A. H. Halbert reported 15 new members added to the church during the year. He had officiated at nine weddings and twelve baptisms, had attended 16 funerals, 175 meetings and made 993 pastoral calls. Two church members had died during the year, Mr. Allan Wiltshire and Miss Ada Stephen.

The following were re-elected to the Session for three years: J. V. Batchelor, F. Summers, L. A. Grisdale and W. T. New.

Those re-elected to the committee of Stewards for three years were: R. E. Bales, J. V. Batchelor, W. T. New and Reid Brumwell.

Jack Duggan Jr. was a newly elected member to the committee of Stewards for one year. Messrs. C. O. Bales and Hicks

Plowmen Will Meet at Toronto Feb. 11

Ontario Association expecting 300 delegates to attend annual meeting.

Fresh from the greatest triumph in the long and honorable career of the Ontario Plowmen's Association—the International Plowing Match in Elgin County last October—members of the Association to the number of 300 will gather at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, Feb. 11th, for their annual meeting and also to lay plans for the International Match this year and next. President Alex. McKinney of Brampton will preside.

One of the features of the convention will be the receiving of deputations from several counties regarding future International Matches. They will outline reasons why their particular counties should receive consideration as the site of the Match.

F. S. Thomas, Agricultural Representative, Elgin County, Secretary of the Elgin committee in charge of last year's outstanding International Match, will talk on the subject "Was the International Plowing Match worth the effort to Elgin County?" J. J. Tierney, Brockville, will discuss the duties of a director at matches, while Clark Young, Treasurer of the Ont. Association, will report on the National United States Plowing Match at Iowa.

Hon. W. L. Houck, Vice-Chairman of the H.E.P.C., of Ontario will be the luncheon speaker.

Over 600 Delegates To Attend Meetings

Ont. Agricultural Societies facing changed methods of operation during 1941 due to war conditions—to meet at Toronto Feb. 13 and 14.

Facing changed methods of operation due to war conditions, over 600 delegates will attend the annual meeting of the Ontario Association of Agricultural Societies at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, February 13 and 14. President Wilfred Walker of Fort William will preside.

The morning session, February 13, will feature addresses by Hon. P. M. Dewar, Ont. Minister of Agriculture, and Dr. E. J. Lattimer, Macdonald College, Que. Dr. Lattimer will discuss agricultural trends in Eastern Canada. M. B. Cochrane, Almonte, will introduce a contentious subject in his address on whether or not the area of fall fairs should be restricted, with an eye to the encouragement of local exhibitors. Group meetings will be held following this address.

Greetings will be brought from the Ont. Dept. of Agriculture by the Hon. P. M. Dewar, Ont. Minister of Agriculture, at the banquet Thursday night, while Col. the Hon. Geo. A. Drew, K.C., will be the guest speaker.

The Women's Division will hold both morning and afternoon sessions Thursday, Feb. 13 and have arranged an exceptionally interesting program, including an address by Mrs. Wallace Campbell, Windsor, Chairman of the National Women's War Work Committee, Canadian Red Cross. Mrs. H. M. Aitken, Toronto, will be in charge of demonstrations suitable for fall fairs from the women's angle.

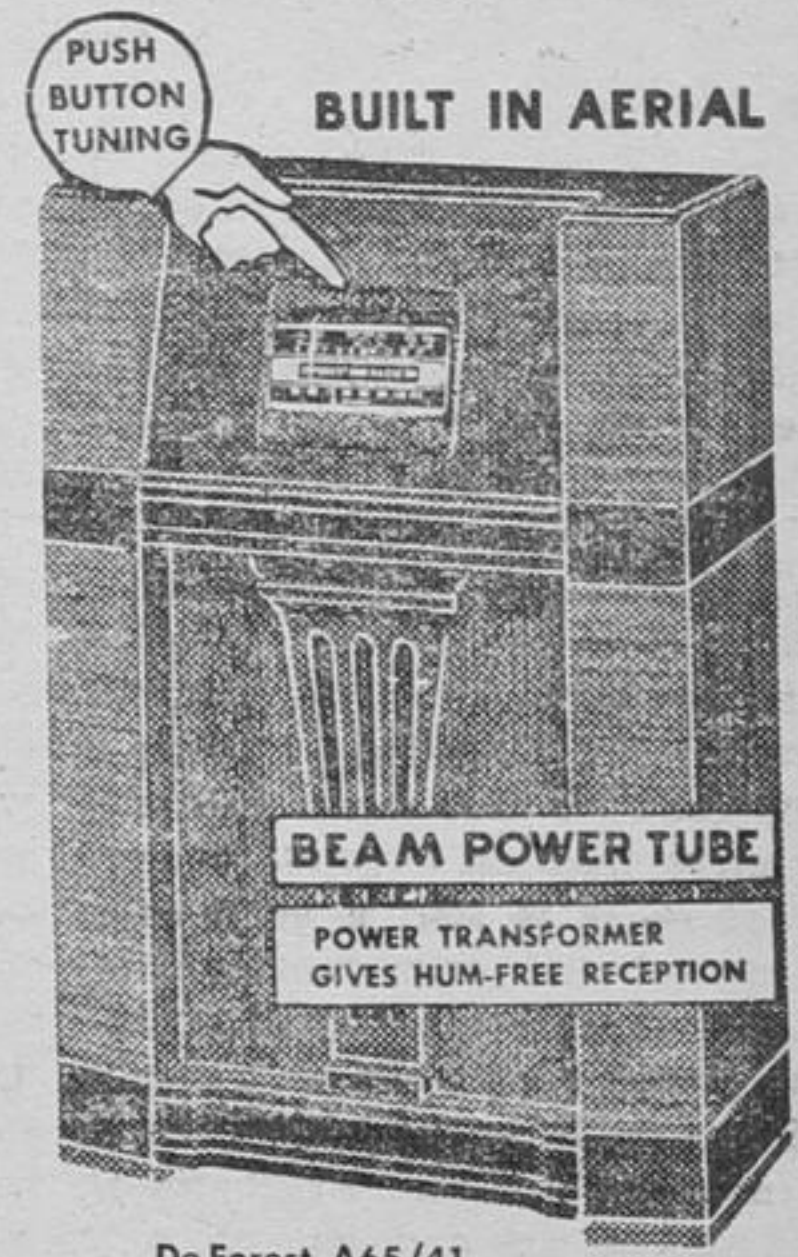

Alex. Maclaren, Ont. Dept. of Labor, will talk on the farm labor problem at the morning session Friday, while I. B. Whale, London, will discuss "Agricultural Achievement Days". Machinery displays at fall fairs will be the subject of addresses by Cecil Stobbs, Leamington, and Stewart L. Page, Barrie. J. Buchanan, O.A.C. Guelph, will give an illustrated address on Rural Beautification at the afternoon meeting.

A merchant all his life until retirement 21 years ago, James Robinson, a former district resident, celebrated his 100th birthday at Weston on Tuesday, January 21st. Mr. Robinson started work in a store at Clarendon when 12 years old, earning $40 in his first year, some of which he saved, he declares. Since that time he has been proprietor of stores in Bolton, Clarendon, Brampton and Weston. He was born in Ireland and brought to Canada when a child. He has 3 daughters, 2 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren. A son died several years ago and his wife died 31 years ago.

You, too, can serve and save by buying War Saving Certificates regularly.

Smith were re-elected auditors for 1941.
