GENERAL NEWS AND VIEWS

Canada needs your fighting dollars.

The wolf escaped into a nearby bush, when the car got stuck in a snowdrift.

The Sisman Shoe Company of Aurora recently received a war order for army boots amounting to $8900.

Whitchurch Township estimates road expenditure for 1941 at $20,508, the same as last year.

Ontario 1942 car licenses will have black letters on an orange background.

Lions Clubs throughout Canada are planning a fund to aid British Child War Victims.

Ice harvest operations have commenced throughout the district and it is reported only a fair crop. It is not nearly as thick as last year.

A bomb drops in a pasture field and is swallowed by a bull. Use one word to describe this situation.
Abominable. A second correct answer is "noble".

Whitchurch Township council is considering by-laws to regulate building and the controlling and licensing of booths in the municipality.

A declining tax rate is a good advertisement for any town. The Richmond Hill council went all out this year in giving the ratepayers a three mill reduction.

A wounded fawn ran down the main street of Mount Albert last week with several dogs in pursuit.
The young animal was rescued by citizens but died soon after from the shotgun wounds.

Harry C. Clegg of Whitchurch Township was fined $5.00 and given a stiff warning for ill-treating animals. Cows, horses and pigs were among the livestock said to have been found in a neglected condition.

Sale of War Savings Stamps have shown a remarkable increase in recent months. In the month of May sales at Richmond Hill Post Office were $12.50. In the month of January the amount of sales was $318.75. Similar increases all over the country would make a telling contribution to the war effort.

A blind Californian regained his sight through an accident. Two days later he was blind again. "I don't care," he told friends. "In two days I saw everything and everybody worth looking at."

The New Hampshire Legislature has decided to repeal some old blue laws, including one providing six month jail terms for "a stubborn child, a stubborn servant, or a common fiddler."

The draw for the beautiful comforter conducted by the Women's Veterans Auxiliary took place at Davies Dry Goods Store last Thursday evening. J. E. Smith, Editor of The Liberal, made the draw and the lucky winner was W. Edmunds, Roseview Avenue, Richmond Hill. The winning ticket number was 162. The comforter was hand-made by members of the auxiliary.

The possibilities of a section of Whitchurch Township as a source of oil supply are being carefully explored. A syndicate has approached the farmers in an area of some 4000 acres along the second and third concessions between lots 3 and 25. Farmers are asked to sign a ten year lease with provision for a share in the profits if a strike is made.

A friend of Sir William Mulock, seeking to rag him, said: "Sir William, I used to have a luxurious beard like yours, but when I looked at myself in the mirror I decided to shave it off." Quick as a flash, Sir William retorted: "Sir, I once had a face like yours, but when I looked in the mirror I decided to grow a beard."

When you're gliding down the highway
In your coach or limousine,
And you see beside the roadway, Standing straight and strong and clean, A fellow dressed in khaki, or, perchance, in blue, Just remember, driver, he wears that uniform for you.

And while Canada is puzzling over her accounts so that she can spare more and more of her savings to prosecute the war and thereby secure Canada's bright future, Lord Beaverbrook will speak from London to tell Canadians how their money is being spent. His talk will be a delayed broadcast on Sunday, February 23 at 2 p.m. EDST.

WAY BACK IN LIBERAL FILES

FORTY YEARS AGO

From our Issue of Feb. 21st, 1901 The Richmond Hill Hockey Club sent two teams to Markham to play the local teams of that place on Friday, February 15th. The senior team was too fast for the Markham seven who, however, played a very hard game but were beaten by a score of 4 to 3. The Richmond Hill Juniors suffered defeat to their heavier opponents by 4 goals to 1.
Mr. Albert S. Savage, eldest son of Reeve Savage of this Village, and traveller for the firm of Micklebor-ough & Muldrew, Toronto, was united in marriage on Wednesday to Miss Lizzie Wales of Jamaica. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's aunt in Aylmer, where she had resided for some years past.

Deaths

BOWES—At his late residence, lot 3, Con. 2, Vaughan, on Sunday, February 17, Anthony Bowes Sr., in his 67th year. Interment in Thornhill Cemetery on Tuesday.
REAMAN — At Carrville on Saturday, February 16th, Harold Roy, infant son of Daniel and Maggie Rea-man, aged 4 months.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

From our Issue of Feb. 16th, 1911 The Richmond Hill Curlers went to Beaverton last Friday and played friendly games with the teams of that town. The Richmond Hill rinks defeated their opponents in the afternoon and lost in the evening.

There was an interesting meeting at the Epworth League Friday evening. The president, Mr. E. G. Rea-man, was in the chair. After the opening exercises Mr. J. H. Sanderson sang two solos, and this was followed by a spelling match. The captains were Mr. E. Reaman and Miss Hazel Smith. After a sharp contest in words taken from St.
John honors fell to the side of Miss Smith, Mrs. McMahon being the last to remain on the floor.

A number of students of the Canadian Horological Institute, Toronto, with Mr. H. R. Playtner as Director, visited Mr. Jerry Smith's watch establishment on Saturday, and afterwards had a stag dinner at the Dominion House.

At the election of officers of the Fire Brigade the following members were appointed for 1911: Chief, T.
H. Trench; Lieutenant, J. H. Brydon; Foreman of Hose, E. Metcalf; Foreman of Hook and Ladder, F. Lynett; Treasurer, P. G. Savage; Secretary,

F. N. Hopper; Steward, L. Patterson; Auditors, George Sims and G.
Cowie.
