GENERAL NEWS AND VIEWS

Here's hoping the cold weather of this week was winter's last kick.

Peterboro has been chosen as the site of the 1941 Provincial Plowing Match.

Mrs. R. Paris, Centre Street East, Richmond Hill reports tulips up two inches in a bed at the west side of her home. When tulips are up spring just can't be far away.

Two lowly coppers saved one George Doherty from a term in Syracuse, N.Y. jail. Arrested on a vagrancy charge, Doherty argued his own case, and as evidence of "visible means of support" he produced two cent pieces—and went free.

Adding insult to injury, Albert Terkelson, of Boston, Mass., not only had his car stolen recently, but was hauled into traffic court because the thief had parked the car too long on a street!

Values have changed considerably in old England since the war started.
In a recent horse show for officers, the first two prizes were—an onion and a lemon. For the runners-up there were only bottles of champagne!

There's a hen at Nebraska Agricultural College that simply won't believe that Christmas is past. As an experiment, hens were fed dye to show the effects of food on eggs.
They laid eggs with green yolks.
The experiment has now been stopped, but the one hen has made up its mind to fool them. Her eggs are still green-yolked.

Here's a new one for the "Bargains Book."—Bride Bargains. As a last-minute flash from Leap Year, Justice of the Peace P. J. Kelly of Fitzgerald, Ga., ran this newspaper announcement: "Leap Year clearance bargain wedding—complete with license, marriage certificate, recording fee, legal civil ceremony —special this week for brides over 18, $3."

Aurora is to have a new shoe manufacturing industry, it is shown by the sale of the old Fleury plant, transferred to a shoe manufacturer who is expected to employ about 50 men. It will be some time before operations are underway, as the Fleury people are still removing machinery from the place for shipment to their plant at Elora.

Over a storm-troubled telephone circuit went a message to people in Klamath Falls, Ore., about Miss Margaret Gentry of Grants Pass.
Some of them sent wreaths whilst others drove the 110 miles with sad hearts. Arriving there they were met with: "Miss Gentry's funeral?
Why, Miss Gentry is going to be married today."

An aged English woman stuck out six weeks of constant bombing, had to evacuate one home and put out 43 incendiary bombs near another.
Finally she decided to go to a distant village for a quiet weekend.
She returned home the following day on a stretcher—a cow had kicked her.

The ring of the blacksmith's anvil may be heard once more around the hamlet of Gormley, following the disastrous fire which destroyed the shop and contents of George Fisher's — Sensing the terrible loss of a man's life-time accumulation, the neighbors gathered at the charred site of the old smithy shop and within five days restored the premises so that an even better shop than heretofore stands as a memorial to the fine class of people who live in the neighborhood.

A SALUTE TO LONDON

London is the clearing-house of the world.—Joseph Chamberlain.

London—a nation, not a city.—
Disraeli.

Go where we may; rest where we will, Eternal London haunts us still.—Thomas Moore.

London is the epitome of our times.—Emerson.

Oh, London is a man's town, there's power in the air;
—Henry van Dyke.

O Gleaming lamps of London, that gem the city's crown, What fortunes lie within you, O lights of London Town?
—George Robert Sims.

Where has commerce such a mart, So rich, so throng'd, so drain'd, and so supplied As London, opulent, enlarg'd and still Increasing, London?
—William Cowper.

WAY BACK IN THE LIBERAL FILES

FORTY YEARS AGO

From our Issue of March 7, 1901
The Board of Education met Monday, confirmed the minutes of previous meeting, and ordered a $65.00 cheque to be sent in payment for a typewriter for the High School.

The Village has again been shocked with the awful suddenness of death. Mrs. Savage, wife of Reeve Savage, died shortly after 12 o'clock on Tuesday night after a severe illness of only a couple of days. The funeral will take place from the family residence on Friday.

The annual meeting of the Agricultural Society was held in the council chamber Saturday afternoon.
Mr. T. Lloyd, president, was in the chair. The auditor's report showed that about $100 had been added to the balance after paying all expenses of last year's fair. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, W. H. Pugsley; 1st Vice-President, D. Lynett; 2nd Vice-President, J. Slater; Directors, T. Lloyd, L. Hartman, W. Thompson, W.
Wells, C. Norman, T. H. Legge, G.
Gormley, W. Padgett, G. Leek, W.
Ormerod, R. Elliott, J. N. Boyle, W.
H. Clubine, Dr. Gallanough, G. Dibb, H. Rumble, T. F. McMahon, J. H.
Sanderson, I. Crosby, J. Palmer, W.
Eyer, P. G. Savage, H. Jopper, Mr.
H. A. Nicholls was re-appointed secretary-treasurer.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

From our Issue of March 2, 1911
The monthly meeting of the Richmond Hill Ratepayers Association was held in the council chambers on Tuesday evening, February 28. The President, Mr. Pratt, was in the chair. The Secretary, Mr. Lamont, read the minutes of last meeting, which were adopted. The president referred to Weston's waterworks system which had been installed at a cost of about $60,000. Mr. W.
Innes suggested that the council proceed to the sinking of a test well as speedily as possible. He thought the cost of waterworks—less the revenue—would be about $2,500 a year, if run by steam. Mr. Hill did not favor steam. He thought gasoline would be more satisfactory.

The following resolution was carried: Hill-McDonald—"Whereas the Ratepayers Association of the Municipality of Richmond Hill think it to the benefit and best welfare of the municipality to have a waterworks system installed, do hereby request the council of the municipality to take immediate steps in procuring entire data for the same."

Before adjourning it was decided to take for discussion at the next meeting, "Shade Trees and the Park." T. F. McMahon, J. Hickson and Councillor Tyndall to lead.

DEATH
STARTUP—In Richmond Hill, on 23rd February, Mary Grant, wife of John Startup, in her 60th year.

BOIL IT DOWN

Whatever you have to say, my friend, Whether witty or grave or gay, Condense as much as ever you can And say it in the readiest way;
For if you go sputtering over a page When a couple of lines will do, Your butter is spread so much, you see,
That the bread shows plainly through,
So whether you write on rural affairs,
Or particular things in town,
Just take a word of friendly advice...
Boil it down.

QUAKER DAIRY RATION

Turns Feeds Into Actual Dollars

For farmers with low or medium protein roughage, it pays to balance the herd ration with Quaker 24% Dairy Ration protein feed because its excellent protein sources plus molasses are combined with carbohydrates and minerals — all valuable in stepping up milk production.

MRS. PHILLIP JEFFREY

Mrs. Phillip Jeffrey, a native of Vaughan township, died Thursday, February 20th at her home on Wheeler Ave., Toronto. Born 84 years ago, deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Wells, pioneers of the township. Following her marriage she lived for many years in Nobleton, going to Toronto about 20 years ago. In that city she was a member of Kew Beach United church.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs.
H. A. (Jean) Pye; Mrs. G. (Alice) Gould; Mrs. G. (Madge) Kaake, and Mrs. R. B. (Helen) Gibson, and two sons, Charles L. and David P., both of Toronto.

On Saturday, February 22nd, funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. A. Cranston, now retired, and the Rev. Bruce Gray, of Kew Beach United. Interment was in King cemetery.

Another interesting story, this time from Georgia... Cephas Adams parked his automobile, and when he went for it two hours later, found someone had "borrowed" it... He waited two more hours before advising the police, went into a store and returned to find the car back at its old spot — washed, polished and greased... He'd like to have his car stolen every week, if the same fellow took it!
