The Late Dr. George D. Lockhart
The life of a noble man, a great physician and a steadfast, sympathetic friend came to a peaceful close early Saturday afternoon in the person of the late Dr. George D. Lockhart of King. Forty-one years of active service was concluded but a few brief days before his passing. Each one of those years was a witness to his patient, faithful ministry to many hundreds of people. Not only did he heal sick bodies, he strengthened weary minds, comforted the cheerless and gave sound advice to those who sought direction.

To Dr. Lockhart the medical profession was a sacred trust and in the fulfilment of that trust he spared himself nothing. Out of the richness of his high ideals and from his great understanding heart, his influence has become deeply rooted in the minds and hearts of the people. This influence is an institution, as it were, founded upon a rock which cannot be destroyed. The Doctor was born in Sydenham, near Kingston and received his degree at Queen's University. In London, England he graduated from two hospitals and also took a special course in a hospital in Vienna, Austria. He was leader of the North York Conservative Association for 25 years until a few years ago; he was a Medical Health Officer for King Township for many years; a member of the Masonic and Oddfellow Orders, and he was a member and former warden of All Saints' Anglican Church at King. The Doctor was always an inspired and loyal Britisher. The Union Jack draped the casket as one of his last requests. His love of nature and flowers afforded him many restful moments, as the beauty of the grounds surrounding his home give evidence.

His passing at this time of year when an early summer has all the beauty and promise of God's land, seems to symbolize the hope and strength he imparted to all about him. At the funeral service held on Monday afternoon from All Saints Church, the largest attendance ever witnessed here paid tribute. The Rector, Rev. E. W. G. Worrall, two former Rectors, Rev. Mr. McKittrick and Rev. W. F. Wrixon, officiated. The honorary pallbearers were Dr. Frank Scott, Dr.

Smith-Walker
On Saturday afternoon, May 17th, the marriage of Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr. Arthur Walker and the late Mrs. Walker of King, to Robert Everton Smith, son of the late Mr. Seth Smith and Mrs. Smith of Newmarket was solemnized at United Church parsonage at King by the Rev. Douglas Davis.

The bride, given away by her father, was becomingly attired in pale blue silk jersey crepe, made with fitted bodice shirred at the long waistline and three-quarter length shirred sleeves. She wore natural blue flowers at the sweetheart neckline and a Marina blue heart-shaped turban, beige accessories and twin silver fox furs, the gift of the groom. Mrs. Walter Rolling, as matron of honor, wore a rose ensemble with matching felt hat and navy blue accessories and colorful corsage of sweet peas. The maid of honor was Miss Antoinette Lee, wearing pale blue crepe in French design, black straw hat with cerise trim, black accessories, and silver fox cape, and corsage of sweetheart roses.

The guest of honor, Miss Norma Walker, niece of the bride, was prettily dressed in pale pink silk crepe, pale blue flannel cape and pink felt hat and blue and white accessories. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations and blue forget-me-nots. The groom was supported by Mr. Walter Rolling. The party motored to Toronto for the wedding breakfast after which the bride and groom left on a short trip. The couple will live in Newmarket.

"GORD" ARMSTRONG WRITES FROM ENGLAND

We were pleased this week to receive an interesting letter from Cpl. Gordon Armstrong, son of Mrs. Armstrong and the late James Armstrong, former Richmond Hill residents. "Gord" is now with Canada's active service forces in England. Of the weather in England Gord says "I think the fellow who said 'Oh to be in England, now that Spring is here' must have been an umbrella salesman." The biggest bugbear of the troops he says is tobacco and sweets. The tobacco in England is "lousy" and Canadian cigarettes are very welcome. Sweets are scarce and expensive and when received in Canadian boxes are much appreciated.
